Horse Thieves

Were plentiful and powerful on the western plains twenty-five years ago. You will get an interesting insight into their methods if you read our New Serial.

The Weldon Estate

By ALFRED R. CALHOUN. It is a thrilling romance, full of lively episodes and hair-breadth escapes, and is

Well Worth Reading

BEGINS NEXT WEEK.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

—Sir hay! the wild scorcher, he's out on the track. He's mounted his wheel and he's humped up his back.

—It seems to me, said the expert wheelman, "that I would hesitate a long time before I took a little child on the wheel with me. Not that I would be afraid of falling, but I would be very apprehensive that some clumsy rider should run into me. It never occurred to me before until the other night, that gave me an odd child, and sent my hair up on end."

—The Butler P. O. has been allowed $2,000, extra for office rent, clerk hire, etc.

—A Pittsburg company proposes in a short time to change the manufacture of horseless carriages.

—When the revenues of a postoffice reach $10,000 per annum it becomes entitled to a free delivery system.

—A factious exchange says marriage in Chicago is not considered a failure, "It is merely a temporary embarrassment."

—A high-grade bicycle will be the time prize for the road race, and our merchants offer quite an assortment of prizes.

—Midnight Mechanics continue to do a little business in Butler. They were operating on W. Jefferson st., a few nights ago.

—The farmers vouching this week for we are having the first good hay weather for a month.

—An item is going the round of the press to the effect that a young lady had a needle enter her wrist about a year ago, and that it recently worked its way out of the arm of a young man in another city.

—Our grocers are paying 15 and 16 for butter, 10c for eggs, 25c for potatoes, 15c to 20c for apples, 9c a doz. for corn, 40c a bu. for cabbage, or about 3c a head, 5c for blackberries, 6c for huckleberries, etc.

—The McCandless reunion, which had been arranged for Aug. 27th, this evening, was changed to Wednesday, Aug. 19, on account of another in the neighborhood, which had been previously arranged. All friends and relatives are cordially invited.

—The firm of H. C. Black & Son of Harrisville has been dissolved. R. N. Black retiring. The new firm will hereafter do business under the firm name of J. R. Black & Co., and will continue to mark the patronage which the establishment now commands.

—Deaver Falls will hold a great "Street Fair" on Sept. 9 and 10, on which occasion there will be a grand international parade; horse, bicycle, foot and boat races; cake walk, public marriage, athletic sports; prizes for best horses, cattle, farm products, etc.

—Our military company elects officers for the next five years, this evening. Capt. McKim has no opposition for reelection, but for First Lieutenant there are two candidates, A. M. Borland and Geo. Meachling, and for Second Lieutenant two—A. T. Scott and John A. Alexander.

—According to a journal for missionaries "In Mongolia the missionary is often asked to perform impossible and ridiculous cures. One man asks to be made fat, another to make either furniture or clothing. For cleaning pants add a spoonful to a pail of warm water. A little in the ends on a wash day is said to make washing easier."

—The county newspaper of good standing, clean columns and fair circulation is the best advertising medium on earth. Its readers as a rule have time to read what the business man who gets a daily and "skims" it never thinks of reading. For the advertisements. I have had farmers tell me that on rainy or stormy days they had read every thing in the paper, from the date line to the last line on the last page.

—Turpentine is the best friend house-keepers have and a supply should always be kept on hand. It is good for burns. It is a sure preventive against moths a few drops rendering garments safe from such invaders during the summer. It drives away ants and bugs from cupboards and corners by putting a few drops on the shelves. It effectually destroys bugs, and makes either furniture or clothing. For cleaning pants add a spoonful to a pail of warm water. A little in the ends on a wash day is said to make washing easier.

Accidents.

Francis Murphy and wife, of Millers-town were the victims of a run off in Butler, yesterday morning. Their horse frightened on institute hill near the Orphan Home ran over down Brady St., and at the junction of Brady and Monroe the buggy was upset and Mr. and Mrs. Murphy thrown against a telegraph pole. Both were made unconscious and were carried into Mrs. Rev. Smith's home.

The injured couple were taken to their son Frank's house on Monroe St. that evening. Mr. Murphy's breast bone is broken, and he is otherwise injured but will recover; while Mrs. Murphy remains in a semi-unconscious condition, is injured internally, and it is feared she cannot recover.

Two employees at the Kesselman machine shop, James Gatten and Michael Williams, were injured by the explosion of a rope socket, last Friday. The socket was full of water and sand, when put in the fire.

Willie Bleicher, of Herman St. 64, aged 11 years, had his left foot cut off by a reaping machine, last Saturday.

Harry Schmecker had an arm broken at Hughes Bros boiler shop, Monday by falling into a pit while helping to carry a boiler.

Edward Dunabue a young man of Sharpsburg, was fatally injured by falling off a freight train on the Pittsburg & Western Railroad near Hardies station, Tuesday.

Patrick McCormick, a Pittsburg boy broke his arm in a pit near the water works playing ball and was at the bat. He struck at a pitched ball and missed it, was turned around by the force of the swing he made at the ball. In turning his ankle broke off squarely, and the large ligament was torn from the bone. A patrol wagon was taken to the West Hill hospital.

A Reading R. R. train ran into a Pennsylvania R. R. excursion train at the crossing of the two railroads on the Meadows near Atlantic City, last Thursday, and about 50 excursionists were killed, and twice as many injured. The excursion was from Philadelphia to Atlantic City, and was led by J. M. Salom and Bridget N. J. The operator at the "black tower" was placed under arrest, but the trains were said to have been racing.

A traction engine to which was attached a threshing, belonging to a Mr. Bruce, was being moved from one farm to another near Rural Valley, Armstrong county, early last week, and in crossing a temporary gas line that had not been buried very deep, the weight of the engine caused the threads of the pipe to give away allowing the gas to escape. The gas, which was highly explosive, passed over the line, the gas ignited and flamed up thirty feet, severely burning one of the men who was sitting on the threshing, besides burning belts and taking part off the machine. The burns were very painful being on the hands and face, but were not serious.

This is done as a trial lot to prove to the public the high character and richness of our wine, and to convince those who are prejudiced in favor of foreign wines, that we can produce wines equal to the finest of Europe, and far superior to other American wines. To those who may still have a quarter part water and then have a richer bottle wine than those from California. We also give this certificate to those who are strangers to our wines to try them, and by sampling to their friends they will know the fine quality and rich bouquet of our wine and Brandy. This lot is far below cost, but the loss will be made up by the sale of the remainder of our wine and Brandy.
