

THE CITIZEN.

WILLIAM C. NEALEY, Publisher. THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1898.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR. WILLIAM A. STONE, of Allegheny. FOR LIUTENANT GOVERNOR. J. P. S. GOBIN, of Lebanon. FOR SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS. JAMES W. LATTI, of Philadelphia. FOR SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE. WILLIAM W. PORTER, of Philadelphia. FOR CONGRESS. DR. J. B. SHAWALTER, of Millerstown, Pa.

Muster Them Out.

The parents of several members of the 10th regiment have later secured the discharges of their sons, and they did just right, for under the circumstances there is no honor in longer remaining in the service nor disgrace in leaving it, and the boys should be at home at their books. All the volunteer regiments should be mustered out of service in the near future. None of them should be retained for garrison duty. They did not enlist for such service, their officers also desire it, and they for the money that is in it.

New Line Between the Oceans.

The most important news of the past week was the announcement made by the government of the control of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad by Chicago capital, and that the road will hereafter be under the management of President Hill, of the Great Northern Road. This change in the ownership of the Baltimore and Ohio, giving President Hill a through line from the Atlantic to the Atlantic, is a great thing for the West, a great thing for Chicago, a great thing for Baltimore, and it may be a very serious thing for New York and for Philadelphia.

Sickness is Increasing.

There are over 100 typhoid fever patients in the division hospitals at Camp Meade and the Red Cross hospital have been increased to double their former size to accommodate this class of patients. The society has 35 trained female nurses on the ground taking care of the most serious cases.

The Best Education.

In a late address made by Charles R. Skinner, superintendent of public instruction of the state of New York, on the subject of the progress of education he said: "A little more than two centuries ago George Berkeley said of the conditions of the world as we see it, that it was a mass of confusion, and that the only way to get out of it was to get into it."

France and the Case of Dreyfus.

To the American it is difficult to understand that the fate of the foremost republican of the old world should hang so emphatically on the fate of a court-martial of an officer of the army. But while France is a republic, she is a republic of Europe, built upon a basis of custom and tradition, which means that in many respects France is not a republic, but a close corporation ruled by very narrow prejudices and tainted by a survival of too much of the immediate past. Were Dreyfus convicted criminal in this country, with a proposition to reopen his case owing to the appearance of testimony that appeared likely to shed new and bright light on it, the courts would call the matter up and dispose of it, and it would be forgotten. In France, that is not so. There it is a daily newspaper for every two families. The United States, to day the youngest of nations, and the first great nation which spends more for education than for war. France spends annually $4 per capita on her army and $0.75 for her navy and $2 for her education, Prussia, $2 for her army and $1 for her navy and $1 for her education; Austria, $1.50 for her army and $1 for her navy and $1 for her education; the United States, 30 cents for her army and $1.50 for her navy and $1.50 for her education. England, $1 for her army and $1 for her navy and $1 for her education. France and Russia combined.

War Department Items.

Secretary Alger tendered his resignation to President McKinley some days ago. It was reported Tuesday that both the 14th and 15th would be ordered to Cuba, within thirty days. The movements of the Germans and insurgents near Manila were considered suspicious, and the Oregon and Iowa and five more regiments were ordered there.

WASHINGTON.

The members of the Peace commission in Washington left Friday for New York and next day sailed in the steamer Campania for Europe. The Education Commission at San Juan finished their work last Saturday and will leave for home as soon as transports can be secured to take the Spanish troops out of the country.

Lynched a Judge.

Judge Prouty, of the federal court at Tennessee, was lynched by a mob of negroes near his home a few nights ago. The negroes, numbering only ten, overpowered the judge and his family, and stripped him of his clothing and hanged him to a tree by the roadside, where his body was found on Monday by farmers. On the body was pinned a piece of paper upon which was scrawled the name of the judge.

Died Without Friends.

On last Saturday morning, Sam'l Richardson, a colored man, was found dead in the street. He was a native of Philadelphia, and had been in the city for some time. He was a very poor man, and had no friends to care for him. He was found by a policeman, and his body was taken to the morgue.

Prospect and Suburbs.

You will be delighted to hear that the Franklin Twp. schools began last Monday, and by an average pass through town twice a day. Mrs. Martin, of Pittsburg, has been the guest of J. C. Beighley and family for several days. Her people remember well when Mrs. Martin was the genial hostess of the Prospect Hotel.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Geo. R. Waters, young Pittsburg attorney, son of J. Q. Waters, formerly of Butler, disappeared from Parkersburg, W. Va. last Saturday, and it was reported that he has been drowned or murdered. Mr. Waters' disappearance caused much anxiety among his friends in Pittsburg and they used every endeavor to locate him. He studied law in Parkersburg, and was connected with the firm of Lee & Chapman, attorneys with offices in the St. Nicholas building, Parkersburg, W. Va.

Harmony and Zelenopole.

On Wednesday last week H. M. Wise of Harmony left for Ben Avon to see his sister's husband, James M. Moore, who then returned to Harmony. Mr. Moore died last Monday morning at five o'clock and his remains were brought to Harmony on Tuesday morning and buried in their lot in the Menonite cemetery near Harmony. Mrs. Moore is a sister of L. M. Wise, the attorney at Butler.
