La Fayette Monument.

In the city of Paris there is a monument to the memory of the late Victor Hugo's "Les Misérables".

In the grounds of this monument, where nearly fifteen hundred victims of the guillotine were buried.

Here also were buried the remains of La Fayette, the hero of the American Revolution.

The resting place of the hero of the Revolution is a plain granite slab.

Upon a register kept by the persons in charge of the monument there are inscribed the names of but a small number of casual visitors.

In view of these facts, the La Fayette Memorial Commission has been formed for the purpose of erecting a monument to the memory of La Fayette.

POLITICAL.

On Saturday last the Legislature of Oregon elected a man named Joseph Simon, a Hebrew Republican, to succeed John H. Mitchell as U. S. Senator.

Senator Mitchell was not a candidate. Mr. Simon read law with Mitchell & Dolph.

Butler will or ought to poll a few less than 2500 voters next month, and the county a few more than 14,000.

It is expected that Senator Quay will take the stump in Philadelphia this week to reply to Mr. Wamaker.

Army Notes.

The Fifteenth regiment was paid for September last week. A letter from a member of the Co. E last week stated that the Fifteenth's new location was within half a mile of Middletown and near the headquarters of the regiment.

It is added to the regiment in the near future. Now that the boys believe they are to be retained in the service, they fear that instead of being taken to Cuba for the winter, they will be kept at home.

Co. E's boys are in the Division hospital and others are confined in quarters. Lieut. George Meacham has joined the Co. again and improved in health after his visit home.

The Fifteenth has again been brigaded with the 201st New York, and is now at Camp Meade, Md.

Several regiments from Camp Meade, including the Fifteenth, will take part in the peace jubilee at Philadelphia, leaving Camp Oct. 26 and returning two days later.

The Sixth U. S. immunes and the Forty-seventh N. Y. regiments sailed Sunday for Porto Rico, and other troops there.

Drill in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth regiments was suspended for ten days on account of vaccination. The boys were vaccinated at the rate of one hundred a day.

Boys of the football team played a game with the Harrisburg H. S. eleven Tuesday, neither side scoring.

The football team of the University of Pennsylvania will play the University of Maryland at the University of Pennsylvania stadium on Oct. 20.

Additional blankets and winter uniforms were issued to the soldiers at Camp Meade and preparations are also made to move them south.

Commissioners will appoint commissioners to take the vote of the Pennsylvania regiments still in the field on election day.

The investigating committee will visit Camp Meade and Gen. Graham will review the corps in their honor.

They will be accompanied by the Hon. J. T. Critchlow and sons, Clayton and Tommy, spent several days last week in Pittsburgh, visiting and seeing the Exposition. Tom can tell you about the deep sea diving and the big turtles.

James Riddle died Friday night last week at his home in the French part of Paris. The French are in a box, but they must stand up or fight.

The Canton Affair. On Sunday last the President and his wife attended the funeral of Mr. McGeorge at the home of George W. Saxton at Canton O.

Saxton was shot and killed Friday night, Oct. 7, at the home of Mr. McGeorge. The shooting is supposed to have been done by Mrs. Annie George, who was married to Saxton.

Mrs. George was arrested and placed in jail. The murder occurred shortly after dark in Lincoln avenue, a resident street in front of the home of Mrs. Eva E. Althouse, widow of the late George Althouse, who was regarded as an intimate friend of Mr. Saxton, and who not long ago began proceedings for divorce from him.
