

THE CITIZEN.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1899.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Administrators and Executors of estates... THE CITIZEN office, persons making public sales...

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Read it. It is good. "They that Sit in Darkness." Horseblanket skirt-patterns. $2.00 oil is predicted for Xmas.

Local frosts last Thursday morning and general Friday morning. Excursion rates to New York—September 28 and 29—account Dewey Day.

A Kittingan policeman arrested his father for drunkenness, the other day, and locked him up. The Mercer, Clarion, Dayton, Greenburg, New Castle and Washington, Pa., fairs open next week.

C. B. Campbell, the West Sunbury merchant and shipper, expects to ship 5000 bushels of apples to Pittsburgh this fall. Members of the First Ward running team have received splendid group photos of the team, taken by Mart Wagner, the artist.

Everybody got full at Evans City, Pa., Thursday—fall of delicious chicken. The next reunion of the regiment will be at Tarentum, October 15, 1899. "They that Sit in Darkness" is an old title for the story of adventure in Northern Australia, the opening chapters of which appear in this paper.

West Sunbury Academy's fall term commenced Tuesday with fifty students in attendance. Prof. Bruce Gill, and Miss Elizabeth Campbell and Bessie Wick are the faculty. "Not guilty, and county (defendant or plaintiff) to pay the costs" was the favorite verdict last week—and it is somewhat of a reflection upon our Justices of the Peace.

During the election on the bond issue in Pittsburgh, Tuesday, the bars of that city were closed, and those of Allegheny reaped a rich harvest. The majority for the issue is about $3,000, and the vote carries about $7,000,000. The Mars Lecture course will be opened next Monday, the 25th, by Col. Copeland, who will talk on "Snobs and Snobbery." There will be six lectures in the course, and season tickets can be had of Dr. Barr for $2.00.

A newly married editor gets off the following: "What's the difference between a honeymoon and a honeymoon and a pretty girl? A honeymoon is a small cell, a honeymoon is a big cell and a pretty girl is a dame!" The chemicals drained into the creek by the Plate Glass works have not only killed the fish but also the crabs. Last week hundreds of dead and dying crabs could be gathered up on the rocks below Walter's mill dam.

Breaden Young and Mr. Glyn, two enterprising West Sunbury young men, opened a furniture and undertaking establishment and livery stable in that town four months ago and have already worked up a prosperous trade. They keep an excellent assortment of furniture. Robert Kidd, administrator of James Criswell, a late of Adams township, will again offer the place near Mars sale on Saturday, October 14th next at 1 p. m. It is a valuable property, near enough to the station, to some day, be available for town lots.

The part of Negley avenue vacated for the use of the coming Whitehead manufactory was the part between the Fair Ground road called Willow street, and the creek at its second crossing from town, and at the first crossing near town. Only about one sixth of the avenue was vacated and it was supplied. The Sarvers Station Academy's fall term began Tuesday with about thirty students in attendance. Gardner Lovry of Butler, who graduated from Grove City College last spring, is principal. Some Rev. W. J. Hazlett is president of the board of directors. The academy is better than the promoters expected for this term.

It is related that two young lawyers were out driving near Butler one day last week and on coming to a brook it occurred to them that the horse might want a drink. They therefore drove into the stream and commanded the horse to drink. When they saw the horse check rein. When they saw the horse trying to reach the water, they got out and lifted the back of the buggy so that he could get his head down.

Seety Carruthers has secured eight excellent attractions to make up the sixth annual Starr Course of entertainments under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. They are: "The Central" Concert Co., November 2; Robert Norton lecture on "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde"; Clayton Jubilee Singers, Col. L. F. Copeland on "Handsome People"; Sam P. Jones; Elias Day, impersonator; Mozart Symphony Club and DeWitt Miller lecture "In the Republic Suffered Under Itself."

WANTED—Homes for four boys aged respectively 9, 7, 8, and 6, also one girl baby, four weeks old. Apply to Children's Aid Society, Butler. What Heck's prices mean. It's like buying goods on the installment plan and making only the first payment.

FOR SALE—A sturdy, suitable for one or two horses, is offered for sale cheap, as the owner has no use for same. Inquire at 128 Mercer St., Butler, Pa.

WANTED—A middle-aged woman for housekeeper to a widower. Address J. E. Weisz, Ogle, Pa.

Pittsburgh is actually shipping beef cattle to points 500 and 600 miles west for market supply. Beef is cheaper in Pittsburgh than in Kansas City, and it is cheaper in New York than it is in Chicago.

At the Allegheny Presbytery in session at Mars Tuesday, a "blanket resolution" condemning corporations and banks for their excessive line of credit was passed unanimously, according to pre-arrangement. On its face it is a resolution of the Presbytery, but in reality, however, its purpose is to counterbalance the action of the General Assembly of the Synod, which in approval of Sunday sermons in the parks.

The regular fall meeting of the Butler Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church met at Allegheny, Mercer county, Tuesday and Wednesday and adjourned to meet at Butler Oct. 30. Rev. Lewis J. Gillipie, Moderator, presided. Deacons of W. Sunbury and layman J. C. Redick, of Butler, Elliot Robb of Prospect and R. O. Jolly of Butler, were elected delegates to the General Presbytery at Erie.

THE POOR FARM.

Contractor George Schneck is showing work on the poor farm buildings as quickly as possible. The foundation of the women's dormitory, the eastern wing of the buildings, has been laid and brick laying commenced. The walls are three bricks thick. The foundation of the boiler house, which is north of the main buildings and nearest to town, is being done for the dining hall and men's building. A seven hundred barrel well of soft water has been struck between the boiler house and Boyd's woods. The old gas well south of the buildings still has a good pressure and Butler county's poor should never want for fuel and water.

When the buildings are completed they will command a magnificent view of all the Butler valley except the Fair Ground end. The brick for the buildings are made as quickly as possible. Rupture!

Trusses for Rupture are necessary. The only question to consider is "where can I get the best truss for the least money?" We sell trusses on the "no charge for fitting" plan. We charge you simply for the truss. We go further, we guarantee a fit and guarantee satisfaction. There are many different kinds of trusses, and one great thing is to know what kind is best to use. We have had enough truss selling experience to find that our stock of trusses is not excelled in this vicinity, but that is not the point for you to consider. Your consideration as we said before, is stated above. Men we fit here. We give direction for self measurement to ladies.
