LOCAL AND GENERAL.

—Has Roosevelt been kidnapped? —Sweet-bread patties are good if properly made.

—Don't run in front of a street-car, stand still and let it pass. —Newton sold five planes last week—and got in a car load of eleven.

—The level of the new park will be about sixty feet higher than Mercer St. —The red car goes up Mercer street and the yellow one to the Fair grounds.

—The Pan-American will give us a show, but there'll be no trust at the gates. —The coffin combine promises to be a success, though its last thing a man wants to get into.

—The "Bessie" will have a new schedule next Monday, week between Butler and Buffalo. —John Younkus has imported a fine Spanish Jack and has him on his farm near Buttercup. See adv.

—The South is Solid, but the President seemed to have a very easy and pleasant time going through it. —Johnston's "Beef, Wine and Iron," for sale at the Crystal Pharmacy, has become a very popular spring tonic.

—The American troops are coming out of China with dignity, but the chances are in favor of the Europeans falling out. —The Buffalo and Rochester has added a dozen splendid new coaches to its equipment, an account of the Pan-American travel.

—Very few farmers were in town last Saturday, and yet Jos. Rockenstein sold $600 worth of buggies, harness, etc. at his auction sale. —W. G. Sonney is now the owner of Young Belcher, a grade Percheron stallion, and has him at his farm in Clearfield twp. See bill.

—Butler's streets look quiet and deserted, better than warm spring days but much better than a year ago. —The Millerton Herald has been revived by a Stock Co. with a Pittsburg newspaper man for editor. Issue No. 1 is a very creditable paper.

—It is to be presumed that there are more readers of books in Butler this week than last, as the peddler left several tons of them behind him. —A squad of men went to work on the street-car line up the run from Mercer street, Tuesday morning, and expect to complete it in a few weeks.

—Our old friend Arthur Love is getting up an "Old Fiddlers Contest," to be held in old City Hall, Pittsburg, on Tuesday, the 29th. For particulars see bill. —A freepart carpenter came to Butler Saturday, to see his girl, and found she had "gone back" on him. Then he got drunk and was threatening to kill himself.

—Woods burning at McAlmont station during the thunder storm last Thursday evening made people think some building had been struck by lightning. —Did you see the tree trade on Main St. last Saturday afternoon. The Pierce Bros. made the Ophelia's Home a present of a lot of trees, and the boys shouldered them, and paraded the street with them.

—There will be tremendous displays of both manufactured and unmanufactured goods at the Pan-American, this year, while Niagara, near by, will continue to furnish an unlimited supply of rural material. —During the storm of last Thursday evening lightning struck the wires at the West Windfall quarry, and burned out the dynamo. The works were shut down Friday and Saturday, and the new dynamo put in place.

—A company is trying to buy the Evans City water-works and the Town Council thinks of selling out for $30,000, and using the money for paving and sewerage. The prospective purchasers have asked for an invoice of the property. —Alonso McCandless of near Isle P. O., Franklin twp, advertises his two fine stallions—Storm Bird, a fine trotting stallion and Brilliant, a registered Percheron—in this paper. Intending breeders should look them up.

—The ladies of the U. P. church will have charge of the monthly reception to be held in the Y. M. C. A. this evening. A musical and literary program has been arranged and refreshments will be served. All are invited to attend. —The Heydick brothers are surveying the street-car route up the run, this week. The route is up the west side of Martin run—which will be the shady side, evenings—and the distance from Mercer St. to the Park will be about a mile and a half.

—A large force of workmen are engaged at putting in a new furnace at the Standard Plate Glass Works. This will make three furnaces, two of which will be operated and one held in reserve. The boiler house, pot house, casting hall and polishing hall are also being enlarged and more men are being employed and wages paid than at any other time in the factory's history. Four years ago the output was 500,000 square feet per annum, now it is said to be 2,000,000. A sheet of glass 28x37 inches in size was made and shipped to the Buffalo Exposition. A car built especially for large sheets of glass was required.

Albert Sibbert of W. Wayne St., and Andrew Graham of West street, 46, recovered attacks of blood poisoning. The former scratched a finger while at work in Boos' store and the latter had a slight injury caused by cracking of the skin on a liner. From these trifling wounds inflammation spread through the veins and in a week both young men were very sick.

Maj. Alex. McDowell recently cleaned up $125,000 on the sale of Lake Superior mines to the big steel trust, and the Major can now feel free to doctor with Dr. Browning (Senator Magee's physician) and get his money and a locomotor ataxia, brain fog, and the other distempers of the miserably wealthy.

Dr. H. Weber, of Dempseytown, has a horse, now 21 years old, that he has used steadily in his practice for the past 16 years. He estimates that he has driven the animal for about 60,000 miles during his long period of service, or an average of a little over 10 miles a day. Estimating the travel of a horse during the years before the doctor got into the animal has probably done an aggregate of 100,000 miles, and the doctor has carried him two and a half times around the earth—beating the record of the two-legged globe-trotter.
