NOTE—All advertisers intending to make space in their ads should notify us of their intention to do so by the 10th inst. morning.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Oh, you who search to find a creed Here and the foolish quest, This little line is all you need, 'Do what you know is best.'

All the Butler people are getting home from Buffalo. Butler is to have a new 5 & 10 cent store on South Main St.

The Columbia and the First Wards take everything in sight. The railroads of this country are, at present, 'overwhelmed with traffic.'

There are lots of trucks hanging around Butler, which accounts for the frequent traffic accidents. Please shut off that nuisance of a whistle which breaks loose like a fire alarm at 3:30 each morning.

The Bessemer railroad has a track gang and steam shovel at work excavating for a double track west of Walter's mill.

The Pittsburg & Western railroad was sold at auction, Wednesday, in Pittsburg, the result of years of litigation.

The pressure of the big Beaumont, Texas, gubbers is rapidly declining and the wells sport for but a few minutes when turned on now.

Jack Frost put in his first appearance last Thursday night, and next day was a "Black Friday" for the plants and posies left uncovered.

Statistics of fire losses in the United States for last year show that, next to incendiary, defective flues were the largest factor in the destruction of $161,008,000 worth of property.

Pittsburg's temple of justice will soon be so surrounded with skyscrapers that the goddess can remove the blindfold from her eyes—she will be in the dark without it.

In the cadet battery at Grove City College Walter Lovell of West, Pa., has been made honorary sergeant. A. B. Chesno, adjutant, and Clyde Green, first lieutenant of Co. B.

PERSONAL.

We're judged by what the head contains And so we measure with care 'Is it employed to carry brains? Or just a place for growing hair?'

The Butler Poor Board received $1000 from Harvey Miller, the former Overseer, a few days ago in settlement of all claims against him; and the board now has enough money on hand to pay all the outstanding warrants.

Old oil men say that the price paid ($40,000) last week to the Home Gas Co. and Danberg for their 230 acres and one 18-barrel well on the Ezra Campbell farm was the highest price ever paid for production in the history of oilhood.

The bursting of a rubber hose connection to a gas stove caused a $3,000 fire at Millersburg, Tuesday. The dwelling houses of George Palmer, Mrs. Lewis and Plummer Smith were totally destroyed. With the exception of Lewis, the losses are covered by insurance.

At the last session of the State convention of County Commissioners at Bellefonte, after a thorough examination of voting machines, resolutions were adopted favoring voting for the amendment to the State Constitution enabling the Legislature to enact laws providing for the use of voting machines in Pennsylvania.

"Well, well," said an old lady, after returning from the Pan-American Exposition, "I never thought I'd live to see the sights I saw at that show. Why, just think of it, they're actually raising babies in incubators up there. And I suppose the country will be overrun with orphan young'uns. They're a routine of this science business a little too far."

Some people who go to the theatre make nuisances of themselves, and annoy both the audience and players, by running in and out. Nothing could be more provoking than to have to stand up a few times to allow some fellows to go out and come in again, and as the managers cannot have refreshments served in the seats it would not be a bad idea to refuse any man more than one "check" during the evening.

On Monday, Mrs. Thomas H. Hays received a Washington draft for $500 the amount of the policy held by her son, Harry Hays, dec'd, in the Prudential Insurance Co. of New York. The policy was paid within ten days after proof of death had been submitted and the amount had been paid the first of September had it not been necessary to secure proofs in Denver, Col. the place of Harry Hays' residence. The Prudential Co. is now carrying for the Three P's in Butler.

During the past summer season approximately 42,000 people rode to Allegheny Park on the street cars. At fifteen cents each the fare amounted to $6,300, which is less than what the improvements at the Park cost, and is but a small part of the cost of laying track to Allegheny Park on the street cars. At fifteen cents each the fare amounted to $6,300, which is less than what the improvements at the Park cost, and is but a small part of the cost of laying track to Allegheny Park on the street cars.

Hundred-year JELLIES.

Neither time, moisture nor mold can affect jellies that are sealed with paraffine wax. Fall your glasses or jars, pour a film of paraffine over the surface, and the jelly will keep for a century if you want it to.

Paraffine is white, tasteless and odorless, and is proof against moisture, acids, insects and germs. It prevents evaporation, granulation or change of any kind. A pound of paraffine goes a long way and can be used over and over again year after year. Just as good for covering preserves, fruit butters and jams.

Paraffine Wax, especially refined for sealing purposes. C. N. BOYD, Pharmacist, Butler, Pa.
