NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. NOTE—All advertisers intending to make changes in their ads, should notify us of their intention to do so not later than Monday morning.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The milk bottle is out of quarantine.—The College will remain at Greenville.—Strings of suckers carried by boys, are another indication of Spring.

There are now three cases of small pox at the Price home, near Chicago.—The Easter postcard and the Easter bonnets vie with each other in gorgeousness.

Five inches of rain fell on this section during March, and there were but four clear days.—Excavating for the new theatre began Tuesday. The owners expect to have it ready by September.

An attempted suicide is reported from Washington township. A young lady named Kelly took laudanum.—Abydoy wanting a ton or two of Congressional record can secure the same, free of cost, at this office.

Subscribers who move this office should not forget to notify this office of their old as well as new address.—The severe weather of the past winter is said to have killed many birds, especially those recognized as game birds.

Johnston's Chrystal Pharmacy was sold yesterday afternoon to E. M. Logan, formerly pharmacist in this popular store.—A nice 25-acre place near Saxonburg is for sale—within five minutes walk of the mineral spring. Inquire at this office.

The Elks entertained their lady friends and the Relief Committee Monday evening. The affair was a most pleasant one.—Forty-four hundred men began work at the Car Works Monday. There was something doing in all the departments, excepting the paint shop.

The Nixon brothers have purchased the old Armory lot, and Butler is promised a modern hotel building. They paid $10,000 for the lot and debris.—In Ohio the spring election has been abolished and in the future all elections, national, state, county and local, will be held on the same date in November.

Discussing rest cures, sun cures, and other means of alleviating or curing the ill, we have to think we are a London journal says, "Do we sleep enough?"—Though our columns are crowded this week we begin a story. Next week, and after, we will have more space to give it, and as it is a good one you should read it.

Strawberries from Texas are selling at twenty cents a quart. The Florida berries bring from thirty-five to forty cents. There is a big supply. The berries are being sent north in car load lots.—People who know of but two motions of the Earth—the daily rotation around its axis, and its annual revolution around the Sun—will be surprised to hear that a French astronomer has discovered a twelfth movement of the earth.

There's too much fuss raised about backyard rubbish. Any noxious germs in them are killed by the frosts at nights. One odd water closet will pollute more air than all the backyard in the town.—The town of Indiana, Pa. was lively, last week. They had a negro hunt on Friday, a judicial primary Saturday. In the judicial contest old Judge Harry White lost to his nephew by marriage, S. J. Telford.—The display of orchids alone at the Phipps conservatory is valued at $15,000, and the entire exhibit at $200,000. Twenty thousand people passed through the conservatory last Sunday, though it was a cold day.—The Council and the Electric Light Co. got together, last Thursday evening, and made a five year agreement at $90 per light per year. There are now 80 lights on our streets, and they are talking of putting up twenty more.—Statistics show that in one year a hen eats food equal to sixteen times her weight. Her food costs about one cent per pound, while her eggs bring about 30 cents to 40 cents per dozen. The yearly product will sell for at least six times the cost of food.—Egg Reporter.—J. V. Stuart has bought Wm. Kennedy's interest in the Kennedy & May Livery, rear of Bickel's Building on S. St. and the firm is now May & Stuart. They invite all their old friends to give them a call. Letter to Standard Lumber Co., Butler, Pa. Dear Sir: Let's have a little private talk by ourselves on business; nobody else, please, read.

Dear Sir: Let's have a little private talk by ourselves on business; nobody else, please, read. Here it is: The cheapest thing there is anything else in good looking—there is nothing about its being good—'tis Devoe; anything else in Devoe.

The reason is Devoe is further than anything else in Devoe and it is good-looking; don't go so far and cost more. The other paints are more or less short in one way or another; don't go so far and cost more than Devoe.

Devoe costs least of all; you don't mind its lasting longer, do you? We can't help it; a paint that goes further lasts longer; we can't help it.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & CO. P. S.—Paterson Boro. sell our paint. Team for Sale. I will sell my matched team of bays, weight about 3000, aged 5 and 6 this spring, both good sound horses. Inquire of Richard Campbell, one mile west of Greecy City, in Concord twp., or write him at West Sunbury, R. F. D. 48.
