—361 was the lucky number.
—Nos. 17 and 18 are great cars and look fine on Main St.
—L. Stein & Son offer barbasins in shirt waives. See adv.
—Since the roads have been "worked" they are better spoken of.
—The shoe stores of Butler will close at 6 p.m., after next Friday.
—If you want an iron ceiling try the Wheeling Carriage Co. for one. See adv.
—The Modern store offers bargains in men's and linens, until Saturday. See adv.
—The cellar of the D. H. Wuller drug store was robbed of some liquor Saturday next.
—The Northern Pacific offers inducements to settlers in Dakota—June to October. See adv.
—A glance at our columns this week, will inform you that the excursion season is well in its vein.
—Iron steamers, bulkheaded, and short trains, vestibuled, would lessen the danger on excursions.
—P. O. increases in salary—Miss Robinson to $1,400, A. L. Osterling to $1,000, J. G. Moore to $700.
—Butler is to have a Golf Links on the Kohler farm, west of town; also a plaster factory near the brewery.
—The 4th of July parade—firemen's—will form on Centre Ave., near the R. R. station and march all over Butler.
—The newest mail box is cylindrical in form and the carrier puts up the flag after putting something in the box.
—Tuesday was a great day in these United States—the Republican National Convention convened in Chicago, and License Court convened in Butler.
—Frog hunters are reminded that the frog is either game or gamey now and the season for stopping his bass loses does not open until the first day in July. The penalty for violating the law is a fine of $10.
—The hospital for incurables, built by Father Hickey at Fenelon, was dedicated and opened for patients last Sunday. The nuns of St. Francis will have charge of it. It is a three-story, frame building, with mansard roof, and has 20 rooms for patients.
—A young lady dreamed for two nights that she was going to marry a certain young man here who is addicted to the use of cigarettes. Believing in the superstition that if the same dream occurs three nights it will come true, she sat up all night the 23rd night.
—Up to 8 o'clock yesterday morning 850 bottles had been recovered from the store of the Butler Business College here, 725 of which had been identified. The recovery of over 100 bottles that day was due to the use of explosives, which caused the bottles to rise.
—Rural Mail carriers have made information against the supervisors of Georges twp., Fayette county, charging them with criminal negligence in permitting certain routes to remain in an almost impassable condition. This is probably the first suit of the kind brought in the State.
—A minister out in Wisconsin lifts up his voice against the wearing of net or "peck-a-boo" waists by women, which leads the exchange to remark that the gospel was horse-wouldn't shy quite as badly if he wore binders. The net waists has its good points and perforations. As the alley fellow said when he was wrapp'd a fish net around him, "I'll keep out the coast of the cold."
—A recent decision of the Postoffice Department imposes a penalty of $200 on any one taking mail out of the Postoffice that is directed to another party. All post masters are liable to make mistakes and get the wrong boxes, and the law says that the people must examine their mail before leaving the office, and if they have other than their own, it must be returned at once.
—Quite a number of divorces have been granted by the Courts of Butler county doing the past few months.
—The divorce in the case of the man rather than a cause. It is the result of vice like licentiousness and drunkenness that make companionship insupportable; cruelty, which involves risk to life itself, and the lighter but more generally diffused vice of vanity, selfishness and ungenerous temper. It has been said, rather superficially, that it takes two to make a quarrel, but one is sufficient to make married life insupportable. The clergy do well to fight the evil of divorce; they will do even better to fight the vices that lead to it.
The following graduates and students of the Butler Business College have recently accepted positions as follows: Elizabeth Killian, stenographer, McGuire Casket Co., Butler; Edna Hoon, stenographer, Dr. Wason, Butler; Cora Kottroba, stenographer, Butler; Bertha Hammel, stenographer and clerk, with Dr. Atwell, Butler.

Miss Myrtle Kearns, daughter to Mr. and Mrs. James R. Kearns of Butler township and in Albany, was married yesterday at the bride's home, Rev. A. Robinson officiating. A number of friends and relatives were present.
Jacob B.—is one of those positive dunces who is sure of his own thing when he don't see it, but whose English is confounding. He went to a funeral in the morning, and threw into his coat a red ribbon, and when he returned announced that he didn't like that town that he "wouldn't be buried in it."
"You make a mistake said a neighbor, you mean—."
"No, I don't," said Jacob, hoily, "I wouldn't live in that town, dead."

THE SHANOR AND NAILOR CASES.
The cases growing out of the death of Annie Phillips on March 18, 1904, were called for trial last Thursday. The charges of contempt against John Shanor for refusing to be sworn before Judge Atwell and his jury was the first taken up. The cases were agreed upon and the case left with Judge Greenleaf for judgment as to whether the offense was charged.
Miss Elizabeth Nailor of Cliff St. was then placed on trial for perjury. She was alleged to have told several neighbors that an operation had been performed on Annie Phillips, while there was no such operation.
Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Bushnell, Mrs. Hite and Mrs. Harter neighbors of Mrs. Nailor, swore she had told them so, and Mrs. John Hopkins, Thomas Phillips and John Phillips, the mother, brother and cousin of Annie Phillips, swore she had told them so.
The jury, after being out 20 minutes, returned a verdict of guilty. A motion for a new trial and for arrest of judgment was then made by her attorneys.
Because there were more cases on the June calendar than could be tried, the District Attorney and the attorneys for the defendants joined in asking the court to continue trial on the charge of perjury existing in the case against Mrs. Nailor, and of adultery against John Shanor until September, which was done.
In the contempt of court case, the attorneys could not agree on the facts after agreeing to agree, and Saturday afternoon Shanor was put on trial and convicted on the facts.
INQUEST ON ALEX MILLER.
A coroner's inquest held by Justice D. P. Boggs, with E. H. Hutchison, C. C. Latchaw, H. B. Wise, E. R. Boze, E. W. Kidd and A. D. Meyer as jurors, returned a verdict that Alex Miller, aged 35 years, came to his death at Harmony, June 17, 1904, from drinking chloral with suicidal intent.

In the case of Com. S. V. Kerr and J. Z. Martin, the jury returned a verdict of guilty and a fine of $100 and cost of $25, but pay the costs. The charges arose from the defendant's right of building a new building on the lot at Main and Jefferson Sts. The evidence was that they drove into Meads.
A motion for a new trial was made.
John Parado, a New Castle St. grocer, was put on trial, Friday, on a charge of larceny entered by Mike Petroff, who alleges Parado extracted $140 in $10 and $20 bills from a roll of money which he handed him to examine in the Standard Hotel last fall. Parado had saved the money to send home. Parado was found guilty and a motion for a new trial was made.
Squire Keck's office at the Court House was called after a plea in his behalf by W. Z. Martin and a statement on part of the prosecution by S. F. Bower, was sentenced to pay costs, a fine of $50, and to undergo imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for three years.
The execution of Frank Burness, who claims Butler as his home, and who killed a man in the West, was set for June 27. Burness says he will be glad to go to the electric chair, as he is tired of the delay in his case. Burness wants to sell his body to pay his debts.
Wm. Shout, a native of England, has petitioned for naturalization.
