For Burgess, E. E. BELL.

For E. B. BLACK, of the Fourth ward.

For Collector, W. DAVIDSON.

For A. H. JACK.

For D. L. BARNHART.

For J. F. McCLUNG.

Republican Primaries.

Butler twp—Saturday, 27th, at 1 to 7 p. m., at annual polling places.

Winfield twp—27th, 1 to 7 p. m., at Grand Hall.

The Republicans of Centre township will hold their nomination for township officers at the election house on Jan. 27 from 2 to 4 p. m.

For Justice of the Peace, JACOB KECK, of the Fifth Ward.

Subject to the Decision of the Democratic Primaries.

—New schedule on the Bessemer.

—How is that new leaf by this time?

—It isn't much of a task to swear off after all.

—Before you settle down for the year settle up.

—The roosters will crow in Creamery Hall, next week.

—You needn't look up the lawn mower for a while yet.

—The Greenview steel works got a $100,000 order last Thursday night.

—Nominations must be certified to the Commissioners by Thursday, Feb. 1st.

—Groundhog day, February 2nd, the next great national event, will soon be here.

—The real thing in winter arrived late, this time—Jan. 16th, but didn't stay long.

—Store walls a jail if Mine John is in, and wants out.

—The County Commissioners should offer a large reward for the man who does not catch John Miner.

—Of the $88,000 of Butler Borough School bonds outstanding the Board wishes to redeem $14,000 immediately.

—Ninety hundred dollars a foot front was paid by B. Pools to the Board for the front lot on Main St. or $10,000 for 30 feet.

—O. H. Nicholas is building a storage house and livery stable on the rear end of his lot facing S. McKean St.—lately the Hampshire lot.

—The Pittsburgh Leader is reported sold to Wamsnaker, and the real estate to the Mellons, and will support the Flinn faction in local politics.

—The front of the new Hotel Nixon has been exposed to public view, and it is a beauty. The terra-cotta ornaments look as well, if not better, than carved stone.

—The house of W. S. Douthett of Brown'sdale was entered and robbed, during the church hour, last Sunday, and that afternoon a crowd chased the thief to Waters station, and into the woods near Callery, when darkness set in and he escaped.

—The P. E. R. Co. should build a station or waiting room at Sarverville. The passenger and freight traffic at that point is considerable, and passengers have either to wait in an open shed at the track, or take their chances of getting down from the store in time to catch the train. Passengers for the down train often get lost there.

—An Ellwood City baker, going to his job at 4 a. m. the other morning, carried a better one on the police force of that city. He found two burglars preparing to open the postoffice "in the short way, omitting the usual ceremonies," when he opened fire, and after exchanging shots, drove the lot of them to their waiting rig out of town.

—The hen and a half, egg and a half and day and a half puzzle question is being reprinted. Nobody ever saw a hen and a half, a green monkey or a purple cow. The poet wrote:

I never saw a purple cow, But I'd rather see one.

But I can tell you, anyhow, I'd rather see than be one.

Your dollar will do double duty at Ritter & Rockenstein's great sale of men's and boys' wear.

Fires.

Three frame buildings in Karns City owned by E. E. Abrams were destroyed by fire, last Friday night.

Mrs. Mary Harward, who kept a boarding house, in one of them, went out at about 10 o'clock and discovered the story in flames and gave the alarm, but the old frames burned like a brush heap and an hour or so after the buildings occupied by H. L. Storey & Co., Mrs. C. Dieter, for groceries, a vacant building, the boarding house and the P. O. were in ashes. The Shira & Wallace hardware across the street was injured. The roof of the town worked hard to stay the flames, and fortunately there was no wind. Some letters were burned in P. O. The entire loss is about $10,000.

Butler County Sunday School Association.

At the call of the president, Prof. F. S. Penfield, the Executive Committee of the Butler County Sabbath School Association, will meet in the Y. M. C. A. building, Butler, Pa., Thursday afternoon, Jan. 18th, at 1 o'clock, to begin plans for the annual county Convention, and to attend to other business of importance. All members of the committee are most earnestly requested to attend.

COAL MINERS WANTED.

W. P. Hines vs. Manufacturers Light and Heat Co., trespass for $100 damages for laying a gas line through his farm in East Hill.

Ernestine Baer vs. August Baer, petition for divorce.

Harriet A. Richards of Butler vs. Bert Richards, petition for divorce, cruelty alleged.

J. E. Brennan vs. M. Finnegan, summons in assumpsit.

TRIAL LIST.

The suit of the Franklin Trust Co. vs. Mrs. J. K. White and A. J. White, defts and J. Berg & Co., garnishees, was continued until next term.

The last half of last week and first of this week were occupied by the trial of the case of H. A. Stauffer, receiver of the Standard Trust Co., which closed its doors in March, 1904, after doing business for the Foraker building for a little over a year, vs. C. D. Greenlee, the President of the company, to recover on notes for $20,000, judgment by Greenlee. The company was organized by Greenlee, R. W. Hervey, who bought the Marshall and Foraker farms, E. W. Wyle and J. W. Langstaff of Pittsburg, and C. A. Bailey of Butler, who was cashier. Capital stock to the amount of $101,000 was issued. When the bank closed the receiver found the Greenlee notes overdue, in the safe, and also cash for $10,000. Judgment was entered on both, and Greenlee contested payment, saying he had never received the money and value for the notes, but that they had been given at the request of Mr. Bailey to tide the bank over a tight place. Bailey and Stauffer claimed that they were given in payment for stock, and the certificates for the stock were found in the books made out to Greenlee, but never accepted by him. Against this it was claimed he had keys which gave him access to the vault.

Greenlee claimed he subscribed for $5 and paid $5,000 for them, and the plaintiff claimed he subscribed for 25 shares. At a previous trial a settlement was reached by which Greenlee paid $8,200, enough to cover all the debts of the bank, the understanding was that the suit would be withdrawn. The receiver he asked the value of the State Banking Department, showing the facts, and asked for his discharge. He was refused, and he went to court to proceed and collect from Greenlee and Wyle, necessitating the opening of the suit. J. W. Lee of Pittsburg appeared for Greenlee, and J. H. G. Campbell for the Receiver. Judge Galbreath charged the jury Monday morning, and brought in a verdict for the defendant.

The assumpsit case of David McElwain vs. Evans City Coal Co. and Wm. Blair, receiver, went to trial yesterday afternoon.

The damage suit of Mrs. Annie Wilkes, whose husband, Engineer Wilkes was killed in the McAlmont wreck at Butler, E. R. & P. railroad, is to be tried today.

The case of Black & Baird of Pittsburg vs. Erie Coal & Coke Co. went to trial Tuesday. The parties made an agreement by which the Erie Coal & Coke Co. paid $100,000 for 1000 acres of coal, including the John A. Turner mines and holdings at Ferris. Black & Baird paid $25,000 for his property, 604 acres, and leased up 400 acres additional. They had to pay a year's royalty, amounting to $400, on the 400 acres and this is what they sued for. The Erie Co's defense was that any unpaid royalties were put to use in the $100,000.

The plaintiffs showed payment of the royalties was not in the original agreement and the jury returned a verdict of $600.19 for the plaintiffs.

The case of Butler County Poor District vs. Jas. M. Maxwell, for a balance of $620 and interest claimed to be due the Poor District on taxes for the year 1902 was tried Tuesday. The defense claimed that three auditors' reports showed nothing was due, but it also shown the auditors had not acted on the account, and under the Courts' instructions to try the case in favor of the plaintiff for $564.35.

Sylvanus Aggas, ex'r of Mary M. Flegler, dec'd., has been granted leave to sell the real estate of said dec'd. in Concord twp. for the payment of debts.

Clerk of Courts Christley was appointed guardian ad litem of four minor children of Jas. W. Barr, dec'd., of Summit twp.

PERSONAL.

John Greenet of Winfield twp. visited the office of the Citizen, Tuesday.

P. R. and J. C. Day of Clay twp. were in town on business, last Friday.

W. M. Ruby of Connoquessing twp. visited friends in Butler, last week.

Mrs. J. M. Hall of North Washington was 76 years young, last Friday.

C. M. Campbell and his brother, Joseph, were in town on business, Tuesday.

Misses Mary, Lezie and Ida Reiber of E. Jefferson St., left Tuesday for California.

F. N. House of Institute Hill is drilling for gas on T. W. Phillips in Jefferson county.

J. C. Elliott of Butler, David Heck and Geo. K. Marshall of Forward were among our callers, last week.

Chas. Reiber and wife returned from their wedding trip last Monday and are at home at 133 W. North St.

E. W. Strain and wife of Institute Hill have returned from Greenville, where they were guests of relatives.

Robert Hamilton came to see us last week and pay for his paper. Mr. Hamilton has been taking the CITIZEN for over half a century.

Charles B. Glasgow of Bradford was in town on business, Tuesday. Charles has been with the Westinghouse Co. there for some years, and likes it.

C. D. Cook of Hilliards represented the Lawrenceburg judge in the below conviction in Allegheny, last week, and J. K. Holland the Hilliards judge.

J. C. Brandon of Connoquessing and Miss Mary E. White of Dayton, O. were married, Jan. 9 at the home of the bride's brother, Charles H. White, in Dayton.

Rudolph Barahat of Connoquessing was in town on business, Monday. He thinks that their pretty little town will be on the new street car line from New Castle.

Dr. A. M. Noyman is safely recovering from injuries received several days ago, while running for an Institute Hill car. The Dr. fell and cut a bad scalp, which lacerated and broke two ribs, each in two places.

John G. Salt is in town to-day. The Salt Brothers are sawing street cars and will start the week on the John Gies. Fredrick and Charles Reiber, Jack Keiser is sailing on Henry Garner's farm, and Geisler brothers on the Mrs. Bowlers.

O. G. McCandless of Centre twp. is the selling agent for this section for the De Laval Cream Separators and dairy specialties, and his success in the sale of the last Legislature, he check the other day, one that pays his subscription ahead. It may be that his delight over that big boy that arrived at his house a few days ago had something to do with it.

All old friends here in Butler who know Dr. Charles B. Gillespie of Freeport, Pa. deeply sympathize with him in his present afflictions. Last week two sisters, one of them a twin sister, died in that place within a day or so of each other, and now we learn that he himself is lying quite ill. While up in years, yet until recently he was active and enjoying good health. We hope to hear of his speedy recovery.
