

THE BUTLER CITIZEN.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1906.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTE—All advertisers intending to make changes in their ads, should notify us of their intention to do so not later than Monday morning.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

—Tomorrow a ground hog day.

—The first month of the year 1906 is gone.

—Butler has 2,664 school kids, and the county 12,134.

—The outlook for a crop of ice this winter is very poor.

—Zelenopis is to have a non-explosion powder factory, nearby.

—The residence of L. P. McCoy of Grove City was partially destroyed by fire, last Friday.

—People who professed that they were to have an open winter have the best of it so far.

—Next Saturday is the last day for filing applications for license, for the hearing on the 26th.

—Chickens were scarce in Butler, last week, and our dealers sent to Pittsburg, for a lot.

—Al Latchaw and son have opened a grocery in the new National Bank building in Zelienople.

—Ground was broken for the foundations for the car wheel foundry, on the car works grounds, Monday.

—Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, falls on February 28 this year, and Easter Sunday April 15.

—The Berg property at the corner of Main and Cunningham, 40 ft. on Main, is reported to have changed hands at $50,000.

—Remember that tomorrow is the last day for filing nomination papers for the February election for borough and township.

—A bunch of fat boys was found on the W. Penn street bridge, last Sunday. The owner will find them at the Krane barber shop.

—At Ormond, Fla., last Friday, a man ran an automobile over a mile track in 28 seconds at the rate of 132 miles an hour.

—The Pittsburg & Butler trolley line is to have a Westinghouse equipment that will run the cars at 45 miles an hour.

—The 8:40 a. m. and 3:30 p. m. trains on the West Penn run into the Union Station, Liberty street, Pittsburg, and return for Butler leave that station at 8:05 and 6:10 p. m.

—This promise to become known as the winter when it tried to snow. People who went to Florida and California for the climate spent their money uselessly this time.

—Charles Emory Smith, former editor of the Philadelphia Press, and Postmaster General, lectured on the High School Alumni course in the Majestic theatre, this evening.

—The police arrested a lot of thieves, mostly foreigners, at a shanty near Tarentum, last Thursday night, and recovered a lot of stuff stolen from the railroad, and from houses in that vicinity.

—All the B. & P. trains run into the B. & O. station on Smithfield St., Pittsburg, and do not stop between Butler and Pittsburg unless held up by signals or switched on the Butler branch to pass other trains.

—The Car Works here paid out $120,000 in wages and salaries, last Saturday, and the bars of Butler did a tremendous business that afternoon and evening.

—Butler is probably the best hotel town of its size in the world.

—The double tracking of the Bessemer and Allegheny, necessitates changing the channel of the creek to the north of the Kearns crossing, and the steam shovel is at work there. The location of the bridge, also, will be changed.

—People who send us money for the CITIZEN and Pittsburg Times will kindly settle their subscriptions to the CITIZEN to date or beginning of year, as that will simplify the keeping of their account. The club rate for the two papers is $4 per year.

—With every visit of the stork to his home, George Cramer, a farmer of Eldorado, Ia., gets a check for $1,000 from his father in Germany, and the stork has paid 12 checks. Although the stork has been more than ordinarily successful at raising crops, Cramer has cleared $12,000 raising babies.

Some witty railroader wrote "shop" on the door of the waiting room of the West Penn station. We hope he is a good prophet. "Shop" should have been marked on both Butler & railroad stations long ago. If the B. & O. spends $50,000 on a station in Butler it will not be more than the needs justifying.

—Three boys of this town, sons of respectable parents, and the eldest of whom is said to be but 11 years of age, have been having great fun, of late, slipping into houses and stealing things, but the police got "onto them" and stopped their fun. Thirty-one pocket-books, taken from different houses, were found under one Cliff St. stable.

—At a meeting of the Advisory Board and County Commissioners with Judge Galbreath, Wednesday, extensive alterations in the Court House—principal of which are the removal of the jury rooms directly connecting with the present court-room, and the changing of the enlarged room into two court rooms, and the enlarging of the Recorder's office by the removal of one of the front stairways—were decided upon. An architect will be employed, plans made, and the contract given as soon as possible, so that the changes can be made during the coming summer.

—Every seat in the theatre, excepting one, had a man in it, last Sunday afternoon. The other seat was, for a time, occupied by a woman, but she soon stood up and began talking, and she gave the men something to think about. Her name was Conklin, and she is one of the lecturers for the "White Cross" organization, whose obligations are:

1. To treat all women with respect and endeavor to protect them from wrong and degradation.

2. To endeavor to put down all in decent language and coarse jargon.

3. To maintain the law of parity as equally binding upon men and women.

4. To endeavor to spread these principles among my companions, and try to help my younger brothers.

5. To use all possible means to fulfill the command, "Keep Thyself Pure."
