

Mr. Calhoun cautions his fellow citizens to watch and determine first whether that territory is to be the scene of political justice or the spoil of sectional rapacity, before they irrevocably pledge their means for the establishment of a communication with it. It is indeed a new doctrine, worthy of the political philosophers who rule in Washington, that men are disunionists because they decline to subscribe to a Railroad from which they expect no advantages. So gross is the violence done to the meaning of words in the conclusion drawn by the Republic, that it admits of but one interpretation. This particular letter of Mr. Calhoun is assailed because it is the only thing that has been written since the Administration was installed, and no time was to be lost denouncing an enemy, a Statesman conspicuous among the champions of the South, and thus in the most marked manner repudiating all sympathy in her cause.

From the New York Sunday Times. Late from California.

The long hiatus in the correspondence of our special and exclusive epistolary agent in California, led us to fear that he had been lynched or had died suddenly of some other disease common to newly settled countries; but we were pleasantly disappointed last week by the reception of the following letter, under his own hand and seal. We had some difficulty in deciphering the original, which appears to have been written with tobacco juice; and had it not been for the gold dust used by the writer, instead of common sand, and which in some measure illuminates the dingy manuscript, the communication would have been wholly illegible. It will be seen that the statements of our correspondent, upon whom the most implicit reliance may be placed, more than confirm the most favorable accounts heretofore received:

VALLEY OF THE SACRAMENTO, May 20, 1849.

Eddytors of the Sunday Times: When I wrote before, spades was trumped—now it's diamonds. These precious stones are found in brilliant profusion on the brow of the Sarah Nevada, and several as large as fenix eggs has been seen in a mounting of gold, discovered last week, near the Sam Joking; and when the snow melts it is supposed that many of the first water will come down with the current. Seed diamonds is remarkable plenty, but a law has been made against gathering them, because it spoils the fater crop. None is allowed to be gathered under the size of a piece of chalk. Emeralds abound, but nobody is green enough to pick 'em up when they can get diamonds. Other jewels is a drug. Beyond the plains, on what they call a plate of the mountains, bushels of little pieces of silver has been dug up, which is very convenient for small change, and stream runnin' into Feather River; and particularly rich in gold, has recently been discovered by a German kumpony, and they have skivered the joint ownership by threatening to knife any one they catch poaching on their fork. In honor of some outlandish Dutch water privilege, they call it the River Rhine-o. Some of the exploring associations which has gone far into the interior, sends word that the site there is all gold, set with rubies, but nobody believes these out-lying parties.

The depth of the odiferous sands on the Sacramento is forty-eight feet eleven inches and three quarters. Wherever we find traces of gold, we sink shafts and draw it up with horses. The land is so tarntion heavy it puts the mustangs to their metal, I tell you; but there's no help for 'em; they must hang on with all their might and maner or down they go, and then it's all up with 'em.

Menso quantities of gold, at the very least, has been sent to St. Francisco for some time back, and as fast as it is turned to ignis. Thieves cannot exist at the diggings—being hung on the slightest suspicion. Grub is moderate; floods of a spiritus natur very dear. All kinds of food provisions is sold for a song; the tavern keepers 'most givin' 'em away in order to promote thirst. Salt pork is five dollars a hoghead, and brandy ten dollars a half pint. However, as gold is plenty, every Jack has his gill.

This points me in mind of the news by the steamer California, that a shipload of young wimmin was scumming out on a marrying speckle-shan, with one Mrs. Farnham as shnopercargo. We look for the same anxiously. What is gold; what is preshus stuns without wimmin? Nothin but vanity and vexashun of spirit. Solomon says—I read it 'tother day on a page of proverbs I was a-goin to use for waddin—Solomon says, a wurtshun 'oomanis more preshus than roolies, and in a kuntry without a pettycoat one feels the force of the remark. When a man has wealth he wants hares to leave it to; and in course, no wives, no hares. I wouldn't want me out one, could you? I mean I, not a hare. If she's sum pined with the small pox even, I wouldn't care. The ordinarist goods is valuable when there's none in the market. There's dozens I wouldn't look at in the States, that 'ud now be thankfully received, and no questions axed. You can say, and truly, that I'm worth more than my weight in gold, for I've got a quarter of a tun of it in store at St. Francisco, besides a sprinkling of diamonds.

We have a sort of make-shift government here (no allusion to the pacycaff above,) got up extrampantly as one may say, that assures purty well for a new kuntry. Gen. Smith ain't nobody. He's a clever chap, and a spunky, no dout o' that; but he haint got no more authority than a child in arms, if there was such a thing in the settlement. He issues general orders and proclamashuns and such truck, and the people read 'em, perlitte literator bein scarce; but when they read 'em, they lart and shet one eye and go and do just as they d—n please. It's allus so in no kuntries.

Agneiter in California is purty much left to nature. It sticks in folks' crop to be seeing corn when they can dig gold, and so they all go to the placers to make hay while the sun shines. This is the monster deposit bank of the unversal world, and we're all casheres and directors. Bring yer taters here if you want 'em dug, we can't take the trouble to raise 'em. The only vegetable we cultivate is the root of all evil, and if you'll send us the frutes of the airth, you can have that in exchange.

The rainy season bein over, the weather is settled. I blovee the heat has; been below 99 for a week, which, with bac' run, has proved fatal to some constiothens. Emigrants of all kinds and kuntries keeps pourin in by land and by water, and the populashun is very promiscuous. We Mericans keeps the upper hand of the furniners so far, but it takes considerable powder and ball. Col's pills is very fine for mutiny. The bottle causes a good many musses, but the barrel stops 'em. I shall probably ship my pile by the California, next trip; and if I escape the Cholera, the injuns, and the yaller fever, going through Mexico, you may 'spect to see me before very long, and perhaps sooner. Yours, &c.,

TO THE EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS OF THE UNITED STATES.—M. Vattomere wishes to place in the "American Library," which is now being formed in the City Hall, at Paris, "A COLLECTION OF AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS, PRESENTED TO THE CITY OF PARIS, BY THE JOURNALISTS OF THE UNITED STATES. JULY 4th, 1849."

He will thank all editors and publishers to send to the "Boston Daily Bee" (the editor of which has undertaken to form the collection) a copy of their paper published on the Fourth of July, 1849, with a copy of each semi-weekly and weekly which they may issue during the first week in July. Papers published in other American nations, and old or rare newspapers will also be thankfully received. Acknowledgments will be made thro' the Bee of all donations received.

Editors will please "copy" the above notice, and bear it in mind on Independence Day.

AN AFFECTING INCIDENT.—It is long since a funeral in New Orleans has occasioned more sincere sympathy than did that of the lamented Gaines on Thursday. Many a heart felt the pang of grief, and bled with unaffected sorrow, all unknown to the outward world—unnoticed by the vulgar gaze! An incident of an affecting character occurred while the body was being taken to the lake, going to demonstrate that, under the rough exterior, the finest feelings of our nature lie concealed. When the coffin, with its sable drapery, was placed on one of the cars, an old man approached it, and laying his hand upon it, exclaimed, with much emotion: "Farewell, old friend! I was with you at Fort Erie!" and, turning away wept like a child. This example was followed by one who wore the habiliments of humble life.—Laying his brawny hand upon the coffin, he, too, with feeling said: "Farewell, old friend!" while the tears of grief run down his sun-burned cheek. Who can tell what these hearts felt!—N. Orleans Picayune.

GEN. SCOTT, at the capture of the city of Mexico, seized and brought home some five thousand volumes of historical works in the archives of Mexico, all in the Spanish language. Some of these are three hundred years old, and contain a perfect history of that country from its origin.—It is the intention of this Government to extract from this library all that may be necessary in forming a complete history of the possessions which we have acquired by the treaty to be retained in our own archives, and the books will then be sent back to Mexico. The right to bring the books away is perhaps undoubted, but it evinces liberality in this Government to return them.—N. Y. Tribune.

SUPPOSED FEMALE MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT.—A person was recently buried some few miles from Edinburgh, under very singular circumstances. The death and attendant ceremonies were duly chronicled at the time in our paper. The individual had sat for some time as a member of Parliament for an English borough, and was well known as a highly respectable landed gentleman. Now, it would appear, in consequence of certain disputes amongst the heirs at law, that the title of the party to the male character is doubted, and that, notwithstanding the difficulties connected with the peculiar kind of interment chosen by the deceased, the body is to be disinterred, in order to prove the sex of the defunct, M. P.

A report has reached this place, that the Ojages and Camanches are going to join together to intercept, attack, and rob the Fayetteville mining company that lately re-embarked at the Falls. It is said that Mr. Charles Cooley of Fayetteville has gone on to overtake the Company, to give them information of the intentions of the said Indians. We shall feel considerable solicitude until we hear further on the subject.—Cherokee Advocate, May 14.

I. O. O. F.—This beneficent Order shines out in conspicuous and beautiful hues, amid the desolations of distress and affliction. The papers of Cincinnati and New Orleans pay a deserved tribute of praise to the benevolent Order of Odd Fellows in those cities during the prevalence there of the Cholera. Strangers dying without any friends have been cared for by the Odd Fellows, and the bed of the sick is provided with medical attendance and nurses, when it would otherwise be desolate.—Carolinian.

Hon. John Young, the Assistant Treasurer, was sworn in as Sub-Treasurer at New York, on Tuesday, having given the requisite securities. The amount of the bonds required by Government is $400,000.

The contract for the superstructure on the first division of the Charlotte and South Carolina Railroad, has been let to Messrs. W. S. & L. Pelsler, at $360 per mile.

OBITUARY.
DIED.
On the 22d of this inst., at Bivingsville, Mrs. SUSAN B. THOMAS, in the 23d year of her age. She professed the religion of Jesus Christ eleven years before her death, and attached herself to the M. E. Church. Though she was very young, when she acknowledged her Saviour, her consolation in believing was uniform, and raised her above the common amusements of her equals in age. As she increased in years, her example as a Christian increased in brightness; and, notwithstanding she suffered under declining health for several months previous to her departure from earth, it was her chief joy, whenever she was able, to attend the sanctuary of her God.
Her last illness was short, but accompanied with the most acute sufferings, through it she passed meekly, and without a murmur, upborne by her faith in Christ. She has left an affectionate husband and little daughter, a fond mother and brother to mourn their irreparable loss. To them, to the community is her memory precious, and will continue to be cherished by them with fondness and affection.
Her debt is paid, the loved one now is gone,
No more to suffer in this life of storm,
Midst realms of bliss, beneath God's holy ray,
She sees in Christ, the life, the truth, the way.
Weep not, thou friends, but be prepared to meet
Her, whom you loved, at the Redeemer's feet!
Look to yourself, her sufferings all are o'er,
And you shall meet her, when you'll part no more.

A RESCUE TO THE AFFLICTED.
THE CELEBRATED
JEW DAVID'S HEBREW PLASTER
A certain remedy for all fixed pains in the Side, Chest, Loins, Back, Bowels, Muscles, Rheumatism, and its various forms, Nervous Affections, Dropsy, and Liver Complaints, Spinal Affections, Female Weaknesses, &c. For the above complaints this Plaster has no equal. The great celebrity which it has already acquired, not only in the old, but in the new world—the extraordinary cures it has performed in the most extreme cases of suffering, have acquired for it such a reputation, that the proprietor has not—until recently—been able to supply half the demand.
The sales throughout every city, town and village in the United States, are without a parallel!
A circumstance not surprising, when the vast amount of human suffering relieved by its use is considered. In Spinal defects, the benefit usually is of the most decided character. In Nervous Complaints, nineteen cases out of twenty readily yield to the penetrating stimulus combined in this valuable preparation.
In Rheumatism, either in acute or chronic, the claims of the Hebrew Plaster have long since been universally acknowledged. Those who labor under weak backs, no matter from what cause the weakness may have originated—even if such persons have been misapplied in previous applications—in the use of the Hebrew Plaster they will find the affected part suddenly restored to its original soundness.
As a supporter in cases of constitutional weakness it will be found of great advantage. It is particularly recommended to Females who are suffering from sudden weakness, or general debility. In short, it embraces all the virtues which the most scientific mind was capable of composing from valuable substances found in the old world, and will be found entirely free from those objections which are a source of complaint with the numerous spread-plasters now before the public.
These plasters possess the advantage of being put up in eight boxes—hence they retain their full virtue in all climates.
Beware of Counterfeits and Base Imitations.
None genuine without the engraving of Jew David on the wrapper around each box. Price 50 cents per box. Each box contains sufficient to spread six or eight plasters. Sold Wholesale and Retail by Scovill & Mead, Chartres Street, New Orleans, General Agents for the South and West.
Sold at wholesale by A. Fitch, Columbia, S. C.; Haviland, Harwell & Co., Charleston; J. Barret, Augusta, Ga.; Sold by CAMPBELL & SEAY, Spartanburg, S. C. and W. H. Watson, Greenville, S. C.

DR. CULLEN'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PANACEA!!
The very best Preparation of Sarsaparilla in the world!
PREPARED by a new process, known only to the proprietor, by which all its virtues are extracted—the most being the case with any other, accounts for the number of positive and almost miraculous cures, made in this city, while other preparations of sarsaparilla make all their cures at a distance—MARK THIS! We invite attention; we call on all to sit, to examine, to visit our patients, and be some convinced of the truth of what we say; what other Alternative thus challenges investigation? None—Dr. Cullen's is also the cheapest sarsaparilla in the world. It is pure, concentrated, and unadulterated. One bottle goes further than three or four of other preparations.—It has cured, and will cure more cases of Scrophula, or King's Evil, Consumption, Bronchitis, Erysipelas, Obstructed Cutaneous Eruptions, Chloric Ulcers, Ring Worms, on the Neck, Scald Head, Chronic Ulcers, Mercurial Disease, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver Complaints, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Thus any other medicine ever discovered, and hence it is the best purifier of the Blood ever offered to the public. Call and get a pamphlet—a large pamphlet—containing full accounts of the different diseases which this medicine cures, take the case described, and visit the patients, and you will find what we say is true; positively true.
We will also give the names of patients cured of the most desperate forms of disease, and the names of Doctors, who in ancient prescribe our medicine, and the patients, and also of the credit of our discovery. Those who love truth and despise humbug, call and examine the testimony, and evidence we are prepared to give in favor of DR. CULLEN'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PANACEA.
For sale by Rowland & Walton, Proprietors, No 21 North Sixth Street Philadelphia, by Morgan & Woods Spartanburg, P. M. Cohen, Charleston, and all druggists generally.
