

each other, and a term of one year to those who dwell in the interior to arrange their business and transport their effects wherever they please with the safe conduct necessary to the ports of destination, and their arrival at the ports designated for their embarkation, and all women and children and scholars of every faculty, cultivators of fields, artificers, mechanics, manufacturers, and fishermen, unarmament and inhabiting fortified towns, villages and places in general, and all others whose occupations are for common subsistence and benefit of mankind, shall be allowed to continue their respective employments and shall not be molested in their persons nor their houses or goods be burned and otherwise destroyed, nor their fields wasted by the armed force of the belligerent, in whose power, by means of war, they may happen to fall, but if it be necessary, that anything should be taken from them for the use of such belligerent, the same shall be paid for at reasonable prices; and it is declared that neither the provisions of this article shall be construed to be a declaration of war, nor shall they be so construed as to be a declaration of hostilities, which is hereby prohibited, as the most acknowledged obligation in the law of nations.

G. A. R. SILVER ANNIVERSARY.

W. S. Parnell Post No. 4, G. A. R., Department of Texas, to Celebrate the Day.

The following programme in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the Grand Army of the Republic will be given at Hullman hall on Monday evening, April 6, 1891, commencing at 8 o'clock sharp:

Reading of order and circular letter, by the post adjutant.

Prayer, by post chaplain.

Music, selected, by the Women's Relief Corps.

History of W. S. Parnell Post No. 4, by D. S. Brown, senior past post commander.

Recitation, selected.

Music, selected.

History and remarks on the Grand Army of the Republic, its past, present and future, by G. A. R.

Recitation, selected.

Music, selected.

Remarks.

Closing by music and benediction.

Special invitation is extended to the Sons of Veterans, the Women's Relief Corps, the Grand Army of the Republic, and all other patriotic organizations. All ex-soldiers are particularly desired to be present.

H. W. Nye, P. C.
Theo. Hitchcock, Adjutant.

MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING.

John Harley of the Fort Worth and Denver Shot in the Head.

A shooting that has an air of mystery about it, and which is being investigated by the Fort Worth and Denver, John Harley, a boiler maker, a good workman, and a well-to-do citizen, was shot in the head about 10 o'clock last night when out of the door came a flash, a loud report, and then a bullet plowed its way through the skin on one side of his head, and he fell to the ground. The men in the shop were attracted by the shot and hurried out to see what had happened. They found Harley bleeding from the wound inflicted, and at once sent for a physician, who came hurriedly and found the wound to be comparatively slight, and not at all dangerous. Others Moore and Cooper, who on the scene making such a statement as was possible, but could learn nothing. It is believed that the shooting was purely accidental and that the man who fired the shot hesitates to tell it.

SETTING THE PACE.

The Democrats at Work for the Ticket.

Rally Last Night.

That was a most Democratic meeting in the Third ward last night on the corner of Jones and Fifth streets. Fifty-500 voters were present, among them many new ones, and a fine time was had by all. The speakers were: J. H. Jackson, H. A. Chambers, and others. The meeting was a splendid success, and the Democrats are confident of a good showing at the polls.

BADLY HURT.

W. S. Day, the Real Estate Man, Thrown from His Bicycle.

At 7:50 yesterday evening W. S. Day and H. L. Abston, both well known real estate men, were riding down Main street when the former, who was riding a bicycle, fell from it and was badly hurt. Street cars and other bicycles were in the way, and the accident caused considerable delay. The injured man was taken to the hospital and is now recovering.

IT WILL BE CHEAP.

The Poorest can Have Ice Water During the Coming Summer.

A gentleman met C. H. Lilly yesterday, and he said that the original ice man of Fort Worth, which was "Wells, have will be here again."

"I don't know," said the other, "but I'll bet you'll want to serve this man."

"I'll bet you'll want to serve this man," said Lilly, "but I'll bet you'll want to serve this man."

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Secretary of War and party arrived at Los Angeles Wednesday and left for San Diego last evening.

The public schools of Council Bluffs, Iowa, will probably be closed on account of sickness prevailing. The complaints mostly are la grippe and measles, although there are reports of scarlet fever and diphtheria. One-third of the teachers are unfit for duty.

Thomas C. Baring, one of the partners in the famous house of Baring Brothers & Co., London, died at Rome yesterday of exhaustion following a surgical operation.

Remarkable Memories.

"Memory," said old Fuller, the author of the "Worthies," who himself possessed a wonderful power of reminiscence, "is the storehouse of the mind, wherein the treasures thereof are kept and preserved." It is unquestionably true that, as a rule, great writers have had memories of more than ordinary tenacity and range. The faculty of reminiscence feels the force of the imagination and keeps lucid and orderly the sequence of philosophic thought. How much Milton, for example, profited by his precocious and trustworthy memory is evident. Not only such poems as "Paradise Lost" and "Paradise Regained" are studded with translations or paraphrases of exquisite extract from the classics.

We are told that Pascal never forgot anything he had seen, heard or thought. Aeviana could repeat by rote the entire Aeneid when he was 10 years old, and Francis Suarez had the whole of St. Augustine in his memory. In three weeks Scaliger, the famous scholar, committed to memory every line of the "Iliad" and the "Odyssey."

Another scholar, Justus Lipsius, offered to repeat the "Iliad" of Tacitus without a mistake on forfeit of his life.—New York Ledger.

Discharged from Custody.

Orange, Tex., April 2.—Judge W. H. Ford came over from Beaumont today to hear the habeas corpus case of Robert Williams, charged with the killing of Emma Gaddison several weeks ago. After hearing the evidence Judge Ford ordered the prisoner discharged from custody.

Municipal politics is at fever heat and candidates are filling the land with eloquence.

PERSONAL.

W. B. King, city engineer of Waco, is in Fort Worth.

E. T. Yonk, a prominent manufacturer of Dayton, Ohio, is in the city.

N. T. Green arrived home last night after an extended trip over the state.

C. B. Mulvihy of San Antonio, proprietor of the opera house there, is in the city.

G. W. Richards and wife leave this morning for Paris, to be absent ten days visiting friends.

John M. Connor of Waco, well known in newspaper circles, was in the city yesterday.

R. L. Robertson, a prominent attorney of Arlington, T. X., made THE GAZETTE a pleasant call yesterday.

Philip Holmes of Houston is in the city visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Halsey on South Calhoun street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fortune will leave in a few days for Mexico for the benefit of Mrs. Fortune's health.

Frank Campbell, the daughter of Frank and Belle Campbell, at home to her friends. She lives on Wheeler street.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Dargatz will leave Fort Worth Wednesday to make this city their home. Yesterday they were made happy by the arrival of a baby.

J. E. Bolenbaugh, representing the Maylor manufacturing company of Lancaster, Ohio, and a very pleasant representative, too, made THE GAZETTE a visit yesterday.

Gustavo Kramer of New York and Herman Specht of Iowa Park are in the city. These gentlemen are interested in a great land project which will do much for the Panhandle.

Albert Stevenson, a prominent attorney of Westport, was in Fort Worth yesterday. He has many friends here, who remember his efforts in behalf of the Democracy of this country.

Richard Donovan, with the Fort Worth and Denver Express today for Chicago to bring his wife home. Donovan is a clerk but expects to re-appear soon when she reaches her Texas home.

LOCALETTES.

A man named Farrar was sandbagged on Two 1/2 street last night.

De Nye's laundry, son of D. W. C. Pendergast, broke one of his arms yesterday by a fall.

Fort Worth chapter Royal Arch Masons will meet Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock to confer degrees.

The sociable of the Christian church previously announced for tonight at the residence of Mrs. A. A. Texas, 1016 Lamar street, has been postponed.

At 8:45 last night, Rev. Dr. Lloyd of the First Methodist church performed the ceremony that united C. C. Leonard and Miss Cassie Murray in holy matrimony by a fall.

The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's father, 109 St. Louis avenue.

The Democrats of the Sixth ward will hold a rousing meeting at Jennings' avenue street car shed at 7 o'clock this evening, and will be addressed by D. W. Humphreys, T. J. Powell, Ross Bowlin, Thomas F. West, Dr. A. P. Brown and Capt. J. T. Clements.

The M. T. Johnson hook and ladder company held a meeting last night at the city hall. C. W. Hoezle was elected president; Henry Field, vice-president; H. V. Burns, secretary; W. L. Rushing, treasurer; W. Hoffman, foreman; A. O'Connell, assistant foreman; Frank Bishop, driver.

The revival meetings at the First Methodist church continue to draw large crowds of attentive and seemingly serious people. The meetings have accomplished much good, and it is proposed to continue them indefinitely, but after this week it is probable that they will be transferred to Mulkey Memorial church, where the First Methodist is today at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

The frame and the old high school building is offered for sale. An advertisement in special column on fourth page.

Car Beaters.

Business property for sale. I have for sale a new two-story brick building located on Houston street. One of the most desirable locations in the city. It will net 10 per cent to the purchaser and above taxes, insurance, repairs, etc. This is one of the best bargains in the city.

Plains T. Foreman.

Telephone B. L. W. 1000. If you want articles, call on me.

Buyer's gold watch, chain, fob, chain and money bag, all in M. C. on back. Rewarding return to the Gazette office.

ASSAULT ON MURDER.

He Was Called "Camp" by the Boys.

The young man of Lancaster, O., where Sherman lived with Senator Ewing when a boy, were found loitering about the store and listening to the stories of the older loafers. The boys always called William Teunisch "Camp," and one of them says he was among the latest of them, and that he could not be found in the store of an evening. "He was a different fellow," says this gentleman, "from John, who was a great reader and a sort of a plodder. 'Camp' had a great idea of going to West Point, and he talked of it continually. I shall never forget the day his uncle finally got him his appointment. He was so happy he could hardly contain himself, and he almost walked on the air for several days."

Sherman began to command those about him at a very early age. His first recorded order was issued at the time of his baptism, which, though his father and mother were strict Presbyterians, was not observed. He was a few months old when he said to his father, who had just been reading a tract, "When his name was given to the preacher he objected to baptizing a youth by the name of a heathen Indian (Teunisch). He wanted to call the boy simply 'William.' But the boy would not have it so. He stopped the ceremony. Said he, 'I don't care for the name of the heathen, but I'll call him 'Camp' if you insist on it. I'll have none of your baptism.' The preacher waived the point and the ceremony went on.

Many great men are absent minded, and the general was not free from this failing. An incident tells this story:

An incident happened at Pine Mountain, Georgia, the evening that Gen. Sherman sent his famous dispatch, "Hold the fort; I am coming," to Atlanta, Oct. 3, 1864. The general received a fresh cigar from some one, clearly being a Scotchman, and he lit it and lit it. He then threw the lieutenant's cigar away. A broad smile displayed itself all around. The general was thinking of those million rations that he had sent to the front, and he was almost laughing at the thought of the lieutenant.

Just before the election of 1838 a New York political club decided to serenade the general. A committee saw him about it beforehand to learn if it would be agreeable.

"If all right, boys," he answered, "I shall feel honored by the serenade. I won't make much of a speech, but if you care to have a few of my hand remarks I will make them; but I insist upon one condition. Your band must not play 'Marching Through Georgia.' It is a good air, and all that, but for just about a quarter of a century no band of music ever made me quite so happy as when I heard it. That has become monotonous, don't you see, and I feel as though I couldn't possibly stand another note of it."

B. L. Waggoner, telephone 100, will take your order for ice delivered anywhere in the city.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC WORK.

It Will Shortly Make Schedule Time on the Short Line to the Mississippi.

Houston, Tex., April 2.—Trains on the Southern Pacific are now transferred at the break in the Mississippi, and are expected to shortly make regular schedule time. An order has been issued requiring the cars to be run on the regular schedule, and all freight cars now being received and put straight through. The Southern Pacific has done a great deal of work in this matter, building two inclines and several miles of track in a short space of time.

Students in a Horse Car.

It is seldom that one student so successfully gets the best of another in public practical joking as did a senior in a Fair horse car. Two devoted chums joined in the car when the latter, clear to the door, was vacant. To the amusement of the spectators, each eloquently but vainly endeavored to persuade the other to accept the vacant place. Finally they decided to play a punny to settle the matter, stipulating that the loser should sit down and hold the other in his lap. With student-like deliberation the clear and clean one, and after the pun-up both calmly sat down on the single seat. Soon the car stopped, and at the door appeared a handsomely young woman. Instantly the man who had won the tosser contest of a moment before saw his opportunity and made the most of it.

"Won't you please to accept my seat?" he said softly in his most polite manner to the maiden, gracefully uncovering his head and slowly rising.

"I thank you," said the young woman blushing, and apparently pleased by the student's marked attention, she proceeded to take the seat.

The other college man had been absorbed in thought, and to quickly and unobtrusively the action taken that he had not realized his companion's joke until he found the young lady innocently attempting to appropriate the place in his lap. Then with a "suave" and "take mine, too," that started and at first appalled the third party in the joke, he darted from his seat just in time to save the young lady from complete embarrassment. Among those who seemed most highly amused by the joke, however, was she who unconsciously had participated in it.—New Haven Cor. New York Times.

LOCAL WATER REPORT.

Corrected daily by J. P. Nicks.

At 7 a. m.	41	Clear.
At 8 a. m.	39	Clear.
At 9 a. m.	38	Clear.
At 10 a. m.	38	Clear.
At 11 a. m.	38	Clear.
At 12 m.	38	Clear.
At 1 p. m.	38	Clear.
At 2 p. m.	38	Clear.
At 3 p. m.	38	Clear.
At 4 p. m.	38	Clear.

Indications.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—A t. m.—Forecast for 24 hours: For Eastern States—Fair, clearing on coast, northerly winds, colder.

Labrador's Lofty Waterfall.

Though inner Labrador is inadequately known, we are aware that it is a vast table land whose limits are quite clearly defined. In the southeast the descent from the table land is quite sudden, and almost immediately after leaving the plateau a level is reached that is very little above sea level, and that the waters of Grand river have a perpendicular descent of about 2,000 feet.—Goldsworthy's Geographical Magazine.

Subscribe for the Webster's Dictionary.

PERSONAL.

W. B. King, city engineer of Waco, is in Fort Worth.

E. T. Yonk, a prominent manufacturer of Dayton, Ohio, is in the city.

N. T. Green arrived home last night after an extended trip over the state.

C. B. Mulvihy of San Antonio, proprietor of the opera house there, is in the city.

G. W. Richards and wife leave this morning for Paris, to be absent ten days visiting friends.

John M. Connor of Waco, well known in newspaper circles, was in the city yesterday.

R. L. Robertson, a prominent attorney of Arlington, T. X., made THE GAZETTE a pleasant call yesterday.

Philip Holmes of Houston is in the city visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Halsey on South Calhoun street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fortune will leave in a few days for Mexico for the benefit of Mrs. Fortune's health.

Frank Campbell, the daughter of Frank and Belle Campbell, at home to her friends. She lives on Wheeler street.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Dargatz will leave Fort Worth Wednesday to make this city their home. Yesterday they were made happy by the arrival of a baby.

J. E. Bolenbaugh, representing the Maylor manufacturing company of Lancaster, Ohio, and a very pleasant representative, too, made THE GAZETTE a visit yesterday.

Gustavo Kramer of New York and Herman Specht of Iowa Park are in the city. These gentlemen are interested in a great land project which will do much for the Panhandle.

Albert Stevenson, a prominent attorney of Westport, was in Fort Worth yesterday. He has many friends here, who remember his efforts in behalf of the Democracy of this country.

Richard Donovan, with the Fort Worth and Denver Express today for Chicago to bring his wife home. Donovan is a clerk but expects to re-appear soon when she reaches her Texas home.

HILL DECLINES.

And Tells in Unmistakable Language Why He Does So—Jeremiah Simpson of Kansas.

New York, April 2.—There was a free trade meeting under the auspices of the single tax club at Cooper Union to-night to hear Hon. Jeremiah Simpson of Kansas. There were many letters from men invited, the most notable being from Governor Hill, who wrote in part thus: "I cannot attend the meeting, because of other engagements, but I have no objection to my name being used for the purpose. I had supposed that my opinions on the tariff question had been so frequently expressed in public that nobody could expect me to consistently attend a meeting intended to promulgate the doctrine of free trade. As a Democrat I must respectfully decline to support any movement, no matter by what name it is called, having for its purpose the adoption of any such radical policy as it is sought to be promoted by the meeting to which you have invited me."

This letter was stamped with hills. Reference to ex-President Cleveland's free trade views was met with violent applause.

Simpson's address contained no utterances varying from those already heard elsewhere.

LOVERS OUTDONE.

The Youthful Pair Who Attempted to Elope at Galveston Got Together Again, But Are Intercepted.

Special to the Gazette.

HALVESTON, TEX., April 2.—Sidney Thrash, the youth who attempted to elope with Miss Brown, the fourteen-year-old school girl, was arrested late to-night on a charge of abduction sworn out by the mother of the girl.

Miss Brown, when placed on a street car by Officer Mealy, under promise that she would go home, was intercepted before reaching there by young Thrash and induced to accompany him. This fact was communicated to the police, and on the following morning a search was instituted for them throughout the city by the police, as well as by friends and relatives of the little girl. It became so warm that young Thrash became alarmed and sent Miss Brown home in a carriage. He was shortly after run down by Detective Cahill and brought into the police station. His father was notified of his arrest and came down and bail him out.

Young Thrash is about eighteen, and seems to be completely infatuated with Miss Brown, and she with him, but their plans this time have "gang agie."

Manufacture of Paper Pulp.

The manufacture of paper pulp under the sulphite process begins with taking the bark from the wood, hacking out the discolored or decayed parts, and cutting with knives across the grain of the wood at an angle of about 45 degrees, making thin chips. The chips are then elevated to the top of the mill and dropped into large drums made of metal, which are usually 14 feet in diameter and 24 feet long, and strong enough to sustain a pressure of from 75 to 200 pounds to the square inch. This drum is packed full of chips, and then filled with a caustic solution of sulphuric acid. The product, which comes out like cotton—as white as snow—is pressed dry and washed, then mixed with water again, rolled flat and cut into shape for bundling.

At this stage of the process the pulp is 60 per cent water and 40 per cent fiber. This bundle, if it is hastily forwarded to the paper mill, one cord of spruce makes 1,500 pounds of dry fiber. One cord of poplar makes 1,200 pounds of dry fiber. Dry fiber is worth at present $1.50 per 100 pounds, making the product from one cord of spruce sell at $22.50. Usually the price is $1 per 100 pounds delivered at paper mills. Freight must be paid on the water just the same as though it was material, and the only function it performs is to keep the fiber in a condition to mix over again quickly before it is used. If it were shipped dry to paper mills it would pack so hard it would be useless.—New York Telegram.

Advantages of Silk Underwear.

Silk gives so it never shrinks, never can shrink, and the traveling man who wrote that he meant to use it because the hotel laundries shrank his wool undershirts so he could not get the sweat out, as old-fashioned underwear does, and he could not wash it, so he bought silk. Consequently it has not the rapid scent which common clothing will acquire in warm weather when traveling without baths. It is not pretty, true, but it has all the other good qualities, and when it is washed it improves, taking the clean, white look of new cloth, and some look that wears vastly better than your cream and pink and blue silk frilly.—Squirely Dare.

Water Consumers.

Your water rent is now due and payable at the office of the waterworks, 249 Main street, opposite Post office. If not paid within ten days 5 per cent will be added, and if not paid within twenty days supply will be cut off and $1, charged extra for turning on again.

Mexican Appropriations.

CITY OF MEXICO, April 2.—The report of the budget committee, which was presented to congress to-day, asks for appro-

PARNELLITES DEFEATED.

Michael Davitt Gives the Result of the Sligo Election.

LONDON, April 3.—Michael Davitt, editor of the Labor World, has sent a dispatch from Sligo to paper saying that the polling commenced punctually at 8 a. m., and that the result was a victory for the Parnellites. The Parnellites admit that they are beaten and the Nationalists expect a majority of about 1000. The Tories, adds Davitt's dispatch, voted for Dillon, the Parnell candidate, in spite of the fact that the Conservative club advised them to abstain from voting. There are about seven hundred Tory voters in the constituency. Of that number it is expected that Dillon will have 500 votes. But for this support Colliery would win by nearly two thousand majority. The local Orange lodges have supported the Parnell candidate. No priest has been employed as agent for the home rule candidate, as the Nationalists are resolved to give their opponents ground for alleging that clerical influence was exercised at the polling booths.

Parnell Will Not Resign.

CORK, April 2.—The election for poor law guardians in Northwest Cork to-day resulted in a majority for the Parnell candidate of two to one. This result was supposed to be a Parnellite triumph. The result of the election will probably decide Parnell not to resign his seat in parliament by resigning and appealing to his constituents.

HILL DECLINES.

And Tells in Unmistakable Language Why He Does So—Jeremiah Simpson of Kansas.

New York, April 2.—There was a free trade meeting under the auspices of the single tax club at Cooper Union to-night to hear Hon. Jeremiah Simpson of Kansas. There were many letters from men invited, the most notable being from Governor Hill, who wrote in part thus: "I cannot attend the meeting, because of other engagements, but I have no objection to my name being used for the purpose. I had supposed that my opinions on the tariff question had been so frequently expressed in public that nobody could expect me to consistently attend a meeting intended to promulgate the doctrine of free trade. As a Democrat I must respectfully decline to support any movement, no matter by what name it is called, having for its purpose the adoption of any such radical policy as it is sought to be promoted by the meeting to which you have invited me."

This letter was stamped with hills. Reference to ex-President Cleveland's free trade views was met with violent applause.

Simpson's address contained no utterances varying from those already heard elsewhere.

LOVERS OUTDONE.

The Youthful Pair Who Attempted to Elope at Galveston Got Together Again, But Are Intercepted.

Special to the Gazette.

HALVESTON, TEX., April 2.—Sidney Thrash, the youth who attempted to elope with Miss Brown, the fourteen-year-old school girl, was arrested late to-night on a charge of abduction sworn out by the mother of the girl.

Miss Brown, when placed on a street car by Officer Mealy, under promise that she would go home, was intercepted before reaching there by young Thrash and induced to accompany him. This fact was communicated to the police, and on the following morning a search was instituted for them throughout the city by the police, as well as by friends and relatives of the little girl. It became so warm that young Thrash became alarmed and sent Miss Brown home in a carriage. He was shortly after run down by Detective Cahill and brought into the police station. His father was notified of his arrest and came down and bail him out.

Young Thrash is about eighteen, and seems to be completely infatuated with Miss Brown, and she with him, but their plans this time have "gang agie."

Manufacture of Paper Pulp.

The manufacture of paper pulp under the sulphite process begins with taking the bark from the wood, hacking out the discolored or decayed parts, and cutting with knives across the grain of the wood at an angle of about 45 degrees, making thin chips. The chips are then elevated to the top of the mill and dropped into large drums made of metal, which are usually 14 feet in diameter and 24 feet long, and strong enough to sustain a pressure of from 75 to 200 pounds to the square inch. This drum is packed full of chips, and then filled with a caustic solution of sulphuric acid. The product, which comes out like cotton—as white as snow—is pressed dry and washed, then mixed with water again, rolled flat and cut into shape for bundling.

At this stage of the process the pulp is 60 per cent water and 40 per cent fiber. This bundle, if it is hastily forwarded to the paper mill, one cord of spruce makes 1,500 pounds of dry fiber. One cord of poplar makes 1,200 pounds of dry fiber. Dry fiber is worth at present $1.50 per 100 pounds, making the product from one cord of spruce sell at $22.50. Usually the price is $1 per 100 pounds delivered at paper mills. Freight must be paid on the water just the same as though it was material, and the only function it performs is to keep the fiber in a condition to mix over again quickly before it is used. If it were shipped dry to paper mills it would pack so hard it would be useless.—New York Telegram.

Advantages of Silk Underwear.

Silk gives so it never shrinks, never can shrink, and the traveling man who wrote that he meant to use it because the hotel laundries shrank his wool undershirts so he could not get the sweat out, as old-fashioned underwear does, and he could not wash it, so he bought silk. Consequently it has not the rapid scent which common clothing will acquire in warm weather when traveling without baths. It is not pretty, true, but it has all the other good qualities, and when it is washed it improves, taking the clean, white look of new cloth, and some look that wears vastly better than your cream and pink and blue silk frilly.—Squirely Dare.

Water Consumers.

Your water rent is now due and payable at the office of the waterworks, 249 Main street, opposite Post office. If not paid within ten days 5 per cent will be added, and if not paid within twenty days supply will be cut off and $1, charged extra for turning on again.

Mexican Appropriations.

CITY OF MEXICO, April 2.—The report of the budget committee, which was presented to congress to-day, asks for appro-

$4.00 WITH WEEKLY GAZETTE.

$4.50 WITH SUNDAY GAZETTE.

$10.00 WITH DAILY GAZETTE.

THE CHEAPEST DICTIONARY IN THE WORLD.

—THE ORIGINAL—

1615 PAGES.

WEBSTER UNABRIDGED!

1615 PAGES.

Leather Binding. All the Words.

It also contains a table of 15,000 synonyms, 8 pages of a pronouncing vocabulary of Scripture proper names, 18 pages of a pronouncing vocabulary of Greek and Latin proper names, 38 pages of a pronouncing vocabulary of Modern Geographical names and Pictorial Illustrations.

Only $4 with Weekly Gazette. Only $4.50 with Sunday Gazette. Only $10 with Daily Gazette.

WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY

WEEKLY GAZETTE

For One Year for Only $4.

Who ever heard of such a magnificent offer! A book of 1615 pages, 8x10 inches, printed on fine paper, beautifully bound in full library sheep with 1500 illustrations, containing every word in the English language, 15,000 synonyms. This book is superior in every respect to any dictionary offered by any other newspaper. Just think of it! You never have had a Dictionary in your house! Why? Because they cost $10 or $12. You have always needed one! Now is your opportunity!

You want a good, clean, instructive newspaper: Something to keep you posted; to give you all the news; to furnish recreation for the mind; to educate the family. THE WEEKLY GAZETTE fills these requirements.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary

Sent with new or renewal subscriptions to the Weekly for only $4.00, with the Sunday for only $4.50 and with the Daily Gazette for only $10.00.

To every subscriber of the Weekly Gazette we will send the original Webster Unabridged Dictionary and paper one year for $4.00.

To every subscriber of the Sunday Gazette we will send the original Webster Unabridged Dictionary and paper one year for $4.50.

To every subscriber of the Daily Gazette we will send the original Webster Unabridged Dictionary and paper one year for $10.00.

The Dictionary will be sent by Express Prepaid to the Express office nearest the subscriber. Address all orders with the money to

THE GAZETTE,
FORT WORTH, TEX.

A MARVEL OF CHEAPNESS.

BELLEVUE, TEX., Jan. 8, 1891.
MRS. O. P. HOMMEL.

WELL WORTH THE MONEY.
WOLFE CITY, TEX., NOV. 14, 1890.
V. M. BROWN.

A MARVEL OF CHEAPNESS.
SAS SABA, TEX., MARCH 15, 1890.
CHAS. H. LOVELL.

MUCH BETTER THAN EXPECTED.
OAK HILL, ILLA., JUNE 8, 1890.
MISS JOHN W. COLEMAN.

WORTH DOUBLE THE MONEY.
SASVILLE, TEX., AUG. 29, 1890.

The Democrat Publishing Company, Fort Worth, Tex.
The Gazette's Webster's Dictionary is all you claim for it, truly a marvel of the bookmaker's art and equally as good for all practical purposes as the high-priced edition, at nearly every word that can come up in every day life is fully defined, and I would not part with mine for double the price if I could not get another.

CHAS. H. LOVELL.

WELL WORTH THE MONEY.
SAN ANTONIO, TEX., AUG. 18, 1890.

The Democrat Publishing Company, Fort Worth, Tex.
GENTS—I consider your Webster's Dictionary very well worth the money.
WORTH TWICE ITS COST.
HENRIK COLLIN COUNTY, TEX., AUG. 7, 1890.

Democrat Publishing Company, Fort Worth:
Gentlemen—I received your Unabridged Dictionary on time and appreciate it very highly. I would not take twice the money for it.
JAS. M. WELLS.

DESIRABLE TO THE FAMILY LIBRARY.
STARBUVILLE, TEX., MARCH 18, 1891.

The Democrat Publishing Company, Fort Worth:
Gentlemen—I could not expect for the price, and is a very desirable acquisition to the family library. Respectfully,
C. DEAN JR.

MUCH PLEASANT WITH IT.
EDDY, N. M., FEB. 19, 1891.

Democrat Publishing Company, Fort Worth, Tex.:
Gentlemen—I subscribed for your weekly and sent it North, where I thought it would do the most good, and received one of your Dictionaries. I am much pleased with the book and consider it worth just as much to the student as the original and best. Think I shall subscribe and obtain "Shakespeare." Resp.
MRS. S. F. JUDY.

MORE THAN IS CLAIMED FOR IT.
HICO, TEX., FEB. 13, 1891.
Gents—My paper and Dictionary came to hand in due time and in good order. The Webster's Dictionary certainly is all, and even more than is claimed for it. It is worth more than its cost of both regard THE GAZETTE as one of the most appreciable presents, concave time in view, kind towards the world of mankind, interesting, entertaining, newsy, and none the less so on account of an occasional piousness. Success to THE GAZETTE. With regards I am yours truly,
J. LEE SOBY.