flag of any nation over the stars and stripes, as was done in a street parade by the Mafia.

Even Republicans are condemning an extravagance that has led to a congressional appropriation of $1,000,000.

It is said that Edwin Booth will permanently retire from the stage this week.

On Monday the free sugar schedule went into effect. This may reduce the price, and if the advance in the price of cattle should affect the cost of trolley fare, we will cheerfully substitute chocolate cream for beefsteak.

enment "must" amend its constitution to suit the taste of this elated chiffofner. If our minister had had the proper respect for himself and his position he would have given the secretary of foreign affairs to understand that our constitution suits us well enough, and if he didn't like it he had the privilege of swallowing his dislike.

WE ARE AGAINST HOLTERS. The Denison Herald's glibullibility leads it to express this opinion: The Fort Worth correspondent of the Dallas News says little interest is taken in the home election, the excitement all centering in the election in Dallas, and adds that the Fort Worth people favor Cole, because he is the regular Democratic nominee.

Mr. Connor has twice been elected mayor of Dallas, and he must have been as important in the affairs of that city then as he is now but there was nothing said about Fort Worth desiring his defeat on account of a willingness to get rid of a dangerous rival.

city, and the people are of the opinion that there is some motive beneath this investigation. To men who live away from Tyler, it has been amusing to watch the struggle over this receivership. There have been some jobs in the appointments, and hard struggles have been made to catch a bit of the plum; and it has seemed, to the outside public, that this receivership has lasted a long time. It has been a great boom for Tyler, as Col. Bonner's bank was the depository for both the Cotton Belt and International and Great Northern notes. These two receiverships pulled into Tyler an average of $50,000 per month, and it was deposited in Col. Bonner's bank which, it is said, has transacted more business for the last two years than any bank in the state.

What-Not—"What do you think of Receiver Campbell's move in discharging Mr. Herndon?" Mr. Kruth—"I understand that he has discharged Judge Duncan, associate attorney, and Mr. T. N. Jones, claim agent, and that Col. Bonner refused to ratify the act. I know this much and no more; but there may be a large sized interest in sugar matters. I do not think any of the gentlemen discharged by Mr. Campbell were guilty of a wrong act, and suppose that a simple-minded man, in a hurry to get the receivership adjudicated by the court without the pernicious inquisition of an investigating committee."

REALLY AND BUILDING. SOME OUTSIDE MONEY INVESTED YESTERDAY. Work to begin on the Big Coopers Works at Once—A Vermont's View of the Situation—Transfers.

There is but one opinion in regard to the outlook for Fort Worth, and that is that everything looks well and that a period of great prosperity is at hand. Judge Edging, a prominent citizen of Vermont, is in the city, and said yesterday that he saw no reason why Fort Worth for the next ten years at least should not grow faster than any Texas city. He considers the outlook and business great indicators for Fort Worth, and says every enterprise that from its very nature will pay is a good thing for the town.

Every day brings better and better news about the splendid outlook for the grain crops. The cattlemen are in high feather over the increase in prices and say this thing will do Fort Worth great good. Real estate sales yesterday were fair. Several thousand dollars of outside money was invested here, as shown by the records.

Plans to build a summer opera house are maturing. The residence of J. M. Hartsfield, on East Weatherford street, to cost $20,000, will be completed next week. Work on the big coopers plant will begin at once and in the course of four or five months the plant will be in operation. Twenty men will go to work from the first.

As soon as the council knows what the outcome of the charter amendments will be, it is expected that the operations will begin on a city hall. There is a move on foot to provide Fort Worth with a central park near the heart of the city. Work has begun on the fourth story of the six-story Handrick building which will be the finest business structure in Texas.
