Hardin Ladies College.

This college owes its existence to the liberality of Ex-Governor C. H. Hardin, whose contributions to it amount to $250,000.

The college is an accurate exhibit of the property of the college, valued ground and buildings, $250,000; endowment, $250,000; scientific apparatus, $250,000; steam heating apparatus, $250,000; library, $250,000.

Since the foundation of the college, eighteen years ago, its steady increase of patronage, year after year, from Missouri and from other states in the South and West is in the highest degree gratifying to its friends.

The college is located at Mexico, Mo., at the crossing of two great trunk lines of railroad, the Chicago and Alton and the Missouri Western.

A NEW THING IN NOVELS. SUNDAY : AND : WEEKLY : GAZETTE.

DOLLAROCRACY

An American Story of SOCIO-POLITICAL LIFE

NOT PARTY POLITICS.

DONE BY A NEW HAND.

WITH ORIGINAL ILLUSTRATIONS BY MR. VER BECK.

SUNDAY AND WEEKLY GAZETTE.

THE story is of a typical American. The hero illustrates in his own person the unique qualities and see-saw experiences of our ambitious public men. He is encircled by troops of friends, flatterers and foes, in society, in politics and in the press. The portrait and the ever-varying play of these characters around the central figure make up a comedy-drama of daily life as sparkling and faithful as anything now current in fiction on the stage.

The hero is a self-made man, who courts fortune in the realms of finance, politics and society. His career makes him as prominent a figure in the ranks of the titled aristocracy of England and the London Stock Exchange, as in the United States. He includes marriage into the British nobility as an important factor in his life scheme.

The titles of the chapters indicate the range of the story, which is written with marked vigor, it up with wit, humor, and pungent satire. Chapter I, Abandonment; II, Society; III, Business; IV, London; V, Aristocracy; VI, Love; VII, Politics; VIII, Diplomacy; IX, Campaigning; X, Journalism; XI, Dollarocracy; XII, Reciprocity; XIII, Suspense; XIV, Loss; XV, Murder; XVI, Exile; XVII, Revenge.

Will Begin Publication on July 19.
