NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC. The checks drawn by the Democrat Publishing Company on the Merchants' National Bank will be paid at the Fort Worth National Bank.

AND the subscribers and the ballots, they come rolling in.

WEST TEXAS will never suffer from drought and hard times as long as jack-rabbits are plentiful and the county treasuries hold out.

BEN BUTLER would make a good Farmers' Alliance candidate for president, with his ability to look in two directions at the same time.

ONE scholarship in Hardin college was so good a thing that THE GAZETTE had to get another and double the amount of happiness in Texas.

WITH Cleveland and Sherman on one stump and Hill and Foraker on another, there will be very little farm work done in Ohio this summer.

THE Dallas Republicans demand that subordinate officeholders shall not be subject to civil-service rules. They want a chance at the leaves and fishes occasionally.

Up to date, only $9.35 has been raised for to carry Kentucky, and the state will be lost to them for lack of the remaining $100.65.

DOG MEAT is eaten in Munich, Germany, on account of the scarcity of pork and beef. The singular thing about this is that it is eaten as dog meat, and not as bologna.

THE GAZETTE didn't print copies enough yesterday by at least 1000. Hereafter there will be enough for people in town and out of town, if we have to buy a paper mill's stock.

A "REFORM PRESS" editor is under arrest for publishing a lottery advertisement. This would be nothing worthy of remark had it been an unformed editor, for little better is looked for from them. But a reformer himself, when the salt has lost its savor, what shall we do to save the unsalted?

NOTWITHSTANDING the adverse ruling of the San Antonio city attorney, the supreme court's decision still stands, and the contesting alderman is in office. And notwithstanding the contrary opinion of the Waco Day, the attorney-general's interpretation of the constitution is accepted, and Whitley holds on to his office. These are discouraging times for largeness of intellect.

IN the Bible parable, while the good husbandman sowed, the wicked sowed tares among his wheat. Modern wickedness has improved upon the slowness of old times. While the good Alliance husbandmen were sleeping in a wagonway in Gainesville, whither they had gone to hear Tracy talk about the sub-treasury, their wicked neighbors came in and despoiled their pockets of large sums of national bank notes.

THE G. D. News should come out of its shell and realize that people are neither blind nor deaf. It boasts that it leads and others follow. People with memories know that THE GAZETTE was the first paper in Texas to adopt the quarto form and to paste and trim its pages, and they also know that THE GAZETTE was the first to make a specialty of the Sunday issue, and that the News is excellent only by virtue of competition.

THE San Francisco Hotel Gazette says: "According to THE GAZETTE of that rustling and growing city, a fine hotel is needed in Fort Worth, Tex., more than any other one thing. With the advantages offered of location, future growth and greatness of the city, and liberal patronage, hotel capitalists should make a rush for the place. From personal observation and knowledge of Fort Worth we can vouch for it being one of the most desirable interior cities of the 'Lone Star' state."

FORT WORTH is all right. The only fight is between those who think the town is big enough and those who believe it ought to have 100,000 people. Nine years ago the same fight began. There were men in those days who believed 8000 people were enough and some men thought the town ought to have 25,000. The latter won, and will win now. Here are the trunk lines and there is the West—backpackers may delay, but they cannot prevent.

LIVESTOCK dealers and raisers will find the daily livestock reports of THE GAZETTE invaluable to them. Actual sales are reported daily from St. Louis and Chicago by wire. These sales reports are sent to THE GAZETTE with special reference to Texas, and names of sellers, number of cattle and prices realized are all given. Livestock men should examine THE GAZETTE's reports.

THE Republicans of the "Left" have had a gathering in Dallas and called upon the president to appoint Republicans to office in Texas. If the matter were in their hands for decision, the crowd of "Lefts" would hold that no man was a Republican who changed his shirt offener than once a week. Harrison will pay little heed to their complaint and demand. The office-holders now in Texas are for him, and that makes them good enough Republicans for every-day needs.

PROPHET FOSTER foretells an early and unusually severe winter in the South, and says "the cotton states will miss it if they count on more than 7,000,000 bales, and they should push their cotton picking early in the season." If the cotton crop does not go beyond 7,000,000 bales, somebody else will "miss it," and they are the future gamblers who are selling December and January cotton at 7 to 8 cents. A crop of 7,000,000 bales means 10 to 12 cents for cotton in January.

SPEAKING in eulogy of ex-President Cleveland, Governor Russell of Massachusetts exclaimed: "Massachusetts believes in a sound currency. She will not lend her aid to any movement, whatever may be its source, and however honest may be its purpose, which in its results would debase our currency or impair values and give to labor in depreciated money less than its just dues." That is good doctrine. We all believe in a sound currency. The West believes in a sound currency as well as Massachusetts, and in plenty of it. Therefore the West, with the South to assist, will demand that silver shall be made as sound a currency as gold by the enactment of laws to put it on an equality with gold. And the West and the South will have something to say in the running of this country hereafter.

OF NATIONAL MOMENT. The contest now to be open in Ohio is not merely for the election of Campbell or McKinley—not to settle the question of who shall draw official salaries from the state treasury. It is a trial of strength between the partisans of a tariff for the sake of protection, and the supporters of a tariff for revenue with incidental protection. It is the national contest narrowed to Ohio. A state that is naturally Republican in a division upon the questions that have divided parties since the war, is now to be contested for by the partisans of questions of to-day. The advantage of prestige lies with the Republicans. We say that Ohio is naturally Republican because it has been carried by that party in every presidential election since the war. Whenever the Democrats have carried it, their success has been owing to Republican inactivity, and not to an excess of Democratic votes. Actuated by the old lines of thought, there are more men in Ohio who will vote the Republican ticket than will vote the Democratic ticket.

But the old lines of thought are getting too old. The questions of present moment call for action. The people of Ohio are not now to vote in settlement of the question of slavery or of state's rights. They are to say whether they will cling to a system that taxes the greater part of them to put money in the pockets of the few, or adopt a system that puts all on an equal footing as far as law can do so. They are to say whether the coinage of the country shall be limited to gold for the advantage of the owners of gold, or extended to silver, for the advantage of all the people. The issues are sharply defined on national questions. This is what has nationalized the contest. Let McKinley win, and the Republican leaders will feel encouraged to set no bounds to the demands of their party for protection, even if it reaches the point of positive exclusion. Let Campbell win, and the cause of a revenue tariff will be set forward so that nothing can put it back.

The ablest men of both parties will engage in the fray. Democratic and Republican campaign speakers from other states will be called to Ohio, and from about the 1st of September until the day of voting the whole state will be a vast audience of listeners to the merits of the contending parties. When the vote is counted we will know whether the force of habit has been able to keep Ohio in the Republican party, or if the voice of reason has been able to attach her to the cause of progress.

"TELL THE TRUTH." The Fort Worth GAZETTE is now very anxious for an extra session. It has found its position upon the fence somewhat wearing to the "back" to their respective parties in every live town in the country. Hit 'em again.

THE Scholarship Contest. The contest for the Hardin college scholarship, offered by the Fort Worth GAZETTE, is exhibiting interest all over the state. Any Texas girl can enter for the prize, and the enthusiasm of the public has reached such a point that the successful candidate will also receive a town lot with a brick house, and also jewelry, dresses, hats and numerous other articles. The second and third on the list will also receive lots and houses and other valuable presents, the gallery of Texas promptly committing the matter to the girls "who get left" whilst almost successful. No candidate has been entered from Texas, and for that reason, probably, the enthusiasm of the public has reached such a point that the successful candidate will also receive a town lot with a brick house, and also jewelry, dresses, hats and numerous other articles.
