

ONE MORE DAY WILL TELL.

WHO WILL REPRESENT TEXAS AND THE GAZETTE AT HARDIN COLLEGE?

Hardin College Offers Eight Scholarships, to Include Full Collegiate Course and Course of Painting and Drawing, to the Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth Highest, Both in the Race for the Fort Worth and State Scholarships.

A CARD. To the Editor of this paper: I have so kindly given me the opportunity of this automobile contest...

On the morning the final result is announced THE GAZETTE will print an acknowledgment of all votes received and not previously acknowledged.

The voting yesterday and today and that left over from Saturday night will not be published until the final result is announced, which will be done as soon as the committee can investigate the work already done and cast up the ballots deposited yesterday and today.

The contest editor desires to return his thanks to those employees of the business office of THE GAZETTE who so willingly yesterday and Saturday night lent their aid and intelligent assistance in the performance of the onerous work made necessary by the heavy mail matter coming to this office.

To one and all of these: Mr. T. E. Littlefield, Mr. J. T. Orchard, Mr. R. W. Turner, Mr. H. G. Hendricks, Mr. Arthur Stolle, Miss Ida Magnus, and Master Harry Smith, the contest editor is grateful. Without their hearty co-operation the execution of the work would have been impossible.

The young ladies who go to Hardin will be known as "The Texas Girls." Now, young ladies, you know what that signifies—honor, responsibility and duty. THE GAZETTE will keep an eye on you while you are at Hardin, and be very proud of you.

FOR THE STATE SCHOLARSHIP. As the vote for the state scholarship is, of necessity, all by mail, THE GAZETTE will, of course, receive and record all such votes coming in to-day's mails, but the record of such votes will not be printed until the final result is announced.

All checks sent to pay for votes tomorrow or today should be certified to insure recognition by the committee.

FOR THE CITY SCHOLARSHIP. The last publication of the record was made yesterday. No votes will be received or recorded by THE GAZETTE today when brought to this office in person by the voter, the votes today being deposited in a box sealed and without lock or key.

Parties desiring coupon papers for voting on to-day can get them at THE GAZETTE office, but they will deposit such coupons in the sealed box provided for the purpose, instead of handing them to the contest editor, as has been done.

Press Notes. The Democrat-Reporter: The Fort Worth GAZETTE is certainly making a "good thing" out of the scholarship contest.

Marshall Messenger: Miss Carrie Dickson, of Fort Worth, who is leading in THE GAZETTE scholarship contest, is the daughter of a fireman, and the fireman's candidate.

Clarksville Enterprise: Miss Sallie Weltman, the ex-Confederate girl, is decidedly the prettiest contestant for the Fort Worth GAZETTE scholarship and the Enterprise and Clarksville people hope she will be the winner.

Willis Index: The Fort Worth GAZETTE's voting contest is the biggest thing of the kind on record.

Abilene Reporter: Voting for THE GAZETTE knew the heart of the people was with the famous contest.

GAZETTE scholarship at Hardin college, Mo., goes on at a lively rate. The girl that gets the largest vote will be wealthy, as everything in Fort Worth will give her a present.

Pittsburg News: The Fort Worth GAZETTE scholarship contest is becoming interesting in East Texas as well as other parts. Miss Carrie Dickson was in the lead yesterday with 48,819 votes for the Fort Worth scholarship.

Houston Press: In the Fort Worth GAZETTE scholarship contest many of the Grand Army of the Republic men are supporting the Confederate girl, Miss Sallie Weltman. This is a happy blending of the blue and the gray.

Paris News: The exhibition drill given by Phoenix fire department last night was a brilliant success.

It was a source of enjoyment to the hundreds of people who thronged the streets surrounding the public square, and the brave fire boys have reason to feel proud of the drill as stated in yesterday's News, was to raise funds for the promotion of Miss Carrie Dickson's great scholarship contest, and if the same enthusiastic feeling exists throughout the state in behalf of the young lady as was displayed in Paris last night, the victory is won, and the favorite of all the friends of the great state of Texas, Miss Carrie Dickson, will carry off the honors at the close of the contest.

The drill was announced by the rapid and loud clanging of the fire bell at 8:30, and no sooner had the first tap echoed on the still evening air than came the noise of the pounding of the great state of Texas, Miss Carrie Dickson, will carry off the honors at the close of the contest.

A Hat to Match. Editor Gazette: Believing that the successful candidate in the race for THE GAZETTE scholarship will appreciate a fine hat, we cheerfully contribute this article of apparel, which we guarantee will fully match and correspond with the elegant hat pattern to be presented by G. Y. Smith & Co. Most respectfully, REGAN & McDILL.

A Trunk for the Dress. Editor Gazette: Noting the interest in the contest for THE GAZETTE scholarship, and appreciating your spirit in offering this prize to the young ladies of Texas, I shall be pleased to furnish the winner with a handsome traveling trunk, worth $25, to be selected by the successful candidate, without cost to herself. Yours respectfully, W. H. TAYLOR.

A $25 Fan. Editor Gazette: The employees of W. H. Taylor will donate to the young lady receiving the highest number of votes in THE GAZETTE scholarship contest one fine pearl-handled white ostrich feather fan worth $25, on exhibit in our employer's show window. EMPLOYEES.

A Handsome Traveling Jacket. Editor Gazette: Will you please stimulate the contestants for THE GAZETTE scholarship by stating that we will present to the winner a very handsome traveling jacket of her own choice and selection, and much obliged, yours truly, E. BARNAS.

High Button, Oxford Ties and Slippers. Editor Gazette: Please state in your valuable paper that we will give the successful candidate one pair each of high button shoes, Oxford ties, and house slippers of the finest grade we carry. Yours truly, WELTMAN BROS.

A Diamond for the Winner. Editor Gazette: We desire to be in the procession, and hereby authorize you to offer, free of charge, to the winner of THE GAZETTE scholarship a $25 diamond ring, or gold watch of same value, or anything the young lady chooses to select from our stock to the amount of $25. Respectfully yours, H. TILLY & Co.

A Pint of Sweetness. To the Gazette: Noting and appreciating your very liberal and customary enterprise in offering a scholarship to any Texas young lady receiving the largest vote, we will gladly send by prepaid express, one pint bottle of our "Coca-Cola" brand, high quality (any desired color) to address of the successful contestant. Respectfully, PATRICK & KILPATRICK, St. Louis, Pa. Wallace Riviere, Manufacturers' Agent, Waco, Tex.

A Hand Satchel. FORT WORTH, TEX., July 18, 1901. Scholarship Editor Gazette: As a successful candidate of the Hardin college, and as my friends and I have already offered a house upon the lot for the lady winning the scholarship, the Fort Worth trunk factory will give free of charge either a fine ladies' hand satchel or traveling bag. Respectfully yours, JOHN H. HALKENS.

Plans for a House. FORT WORTH, TEX., July 18, 1901. DEAR SIR: I herewith offer to present to the successful candidate for THE GAZETTE scholarship a house upon the lot, with specifications and perspective view of a beautiful modern house, to cost $1500. Now, who is willing to present the lot, and let a subscription be started at once to raise the necessary $1500, and it can be accomplished with only a small individual tax. Who will speak first? Yours truly, S. B. HAGGART, Architect.

The Lot Donated. FORT WORTH, TEX., July 23, 9 a. m. 1901. Editor Gazette: DEAR SIR: Noting the very liberal offer of Architect Haggart to the successful candidate for THE GAZETTE scholarship, I accept the gentleman's suggestion and hereby donate the lot one to block 66, and commanding lot No. 1, block 66, to the successful candidate. Respectfully yours, R. B. ALLEN, Attorney and B. M. THIBBLE, Attorney.

An Elegant Lunch. To the winner of THE GAZETTE scholarship I will give an elegant lunch, consisting of all the delicacies of the season, so that the winner may fare sumptuously between Fort Worth and Mexico. C. C. LAWSON.

A Life-Size Free Hand Portrait Valued at Fifty Dollars. Bunnell & MacDonald, artists, Decatur, Tex., will furnish a life-size free hand portrait, valued at $50, for the young lady receiving the highest number of votes in the scholarship contest. Respectfully, BUNNELL & MACDONALD, Decatur, Tex., July 27, 1901.

Surgical and Medical Attention. Editor Gazette: Noting the very liberal offer to the successful contestant for THE GAZETTE scholarship from members of the legal profession, we feel that ours ought also to be in it. We will donate any necessary medical or surgical attention for the next two years to the two (2) Fort Worth young ladies receiving the highest number of votes in the contest now pending. R. B. LAMPKIN, M. D. H. C. STEVENS, M. D.

Will Tune Her Piano. The young ladies scoring the highest number of votes will keep their pianos in perfect tune for one year. L. C. ROGERS, Piano Tuner.

Mr. Rogers is a piano tuner and we can recommend any work he may do on the piano in question. He understands his profession. COLLINS & ARMSTRONG COMPANY, E. ARMSTRONG, Treasurer.

A Fine Carriage to the Depot. Editor Gazette: I am directed by L. N. Cooper, owner of Cooper's news, fruit and confectionery house, 208 Houston street, to say that this house will present to the young lady who receives the highest number of votes for the scholarship in Hardin college the finest best of good things that is kept in a house of like character in the state. Mr. Cooper requests me to particularly say that he will give his personal attention in seeing that the usual and necessary amount of chewing gum is not overlooked. Very respectfully, JOE BARR, Salesman at Cooper's News, Fruit and Confectionery House.

A Corner Lot for the Winner. AMARILLO, TEX., July 23, 1901. Please add to the list of presents for the young lady winning the scholarship a corner lot in the Mirro addition to Amarillo. As all Texas is voting, the winner will of course be one of the most popular, and accomplishing her ambition, and as she will be crowned queen of votes, she should have a home in the Queen City of the Plains. The most popular lady should reside in the most popular city. Very truly, J. B. BUCHANAN.

A Box of Sweetmeats. FORT WORTH, TEX., July 18, 1901. To the Gazette: I am directed by L. N. Cooper, owner of Cooper's news, fruit and confectionery house, 208 Houston street, to say that this house will present to the young lady who receives the highest number of votes for the scholarship in Hardin college the finest best of good things that is kept in a house of like character in the state. She Must Have Good Teeth. Editor Gazette: We propose doing all the needed dental work for the successful candidate for THE GAZETTE scholarship before she leaves for Hardin college. Respectfully yours, MAYFIELD BROS.

A Jersey Coat for Her. FORT WORTH, TEX., July 28, 1901. Editor Gazette: We see Tom Shoemaker has quit the cat business and for the purpose of this contest gone to carpentering, and proposes to build a house for the young lady who receives the second highest number of votes. Not wishing to be behind a brother craftsman, we offer to the young lady receiving the highest number of votes one of our fine Jersey coats. Without our coats she can be no good housekeeper, and we want to see her go at it in style. Yours, PATK BROS.

Chill Tonic. SHEPHERD, TEX., July 27, 1901. Editor Gazette: We do not know that Mexico, Mo., is in a malarial district, we presume it is not, but for fear THE GAZETTE young lady might need it, and with the view of seeing her provided with the proper remedy, we offer to furnish her with all the Chittman's Tonic, a fine tonic, which may be had during the term of her scholarship. Yours respectfully, THE RICHMOND MEDICINE CO., By J. D. Smith, Agent.

Legal Advice. To the Gazette: Being unwilling that the legal profession which is so essential for the success of all shall be excelled in liberality by you and other departments of business, we hereby cheerfully tender to the successful candidate for your scholarship $1000 worth of legal services. This tender not only includes services in any legal complications that may arise as a result of her scholarship, but to the protection of her personal property, or in traveling on railroads, for damages on account of slanderous statements that may be made by played and defeated girls. Very respectfully, F. E. ALLEN, Attorney and B. M. THIBBLE, Attorney.

An Insurance Policy. FORT WORTH, TEX., July 22, 1901. Editor Gazette: Please announce that I will issue an insurance policy for one year in the Home Mutual insurance company of California, (which is a cash company and pays all losses without discount) on the house to be built on the lot in Dublin, Tex., for the young lady receiving the second highest number of votes in the scholarship contest. Yours truly, EARL E. WRIGHT, Agent.
