

THE DAY IN THE CITY.

HOW PEOPLE IN THE NORTHWEST REGARD TEXAS.

Mr. J. E. Roche of New Orleans, in which city the happy couple will make their future home, has just returned from a tour of inspection in the Northwest. He reports that the people in that section are generally favorable to Texas, and that they are looking for an opportunity to visit the State.

Expressions of Two Men Who Came Down With the Excursionists.

Hon. Eric Johnson of Omaha, chief clerk of the Nebraska house of representatives and correspondent of the Omaha Bee and the Standard Journal, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Johnson is quite a hotel immigration worker, and is an interesting talker on the South Texas coast country with a view of locating a number of settlers in this section. His father was among the first to settle in the Texas coast country, and he has a number of relatives who have followed him to Texas.

Mr. W. H. Walker, formerly of Lincoln, Neb., but now a resident of this city, has recently visited Nebraska and came down with the excursionists now in the city.

Mr. W. H. Walker says that a great deal of interest in Texas is being manifested in the Northwest. He says that the people in that section are looking for an opportunity to visit the State, and that they are generally favorable to Texas.
