

MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 11, 1853.

THE BANNER is still suffering and weeping over the New York appointments. They appear to give its editor more trouble than any other occurrence of the day. Indeed, General Pierce, in making these appointments in the manner in which they have been given to the country, has been particularly cruel to such whig leaders as our neighbor of the Banner. Now, the Banner and its friends expected to make something "right smart" out of these New York appointments. They looked to them as the indubitable source of great perplexities and misfortunes to the democratic party at large. They considered their satisfactory adjustment as beyond the power of the most skillful and bold statesmanship. They, in fact, formed the rock upon which the new administration was to be wrecked before it was fairly at sea. To deal fairly and squarely with the entire party of the State—to give the original compromise men an earnest that the administration was with them heartily—to give the other wing of the party evidence also that they were not to be proscribed as long as they adhered, in good faith, to the terms of union upon which the party agreed in 1851—to maintain the union of the democratic party for the sake of the Union—to do these things was simply and absolutely impossible, in the estimation of the Banner and its friends. Judge, then, of the surprise, rage, mortification, disgust, &c., of these disinterested patriots when the President unfeelingly destroyed their air-built castles and high-wrought expectations. Not Apollon, when foiled by the angel Gabriel, was more wrathful or malicious. In their rage, they say all kinds of naughty things—talk about the compromise and free soilers, just as if their party had passed the former, and was not composed chiefly of the latter. Now, we advise these disappointed patriots to be quiet. The world sees through their patriotism, for it is very thin, and correctly appreciates their motives in making this outcry about the New York appointments. They have been foiled in their unrighteous expectations, and if they have left a single drop of real patriotism, they will hereafter rejoice over their present discomfiture. "It is an ill-wind that blows no one any good," and what has been so disastrous to us as politicians, will be of great benefit to their country. If this does not ultimately prove to them sufficient consolation, then is their case beyond the power of remedy.

At a meeting of the democracy of Henderson County, on the 28th ult., the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the Democratic State Convention: Jesse Franklin, W. F. Homes, Stephen Hamlett, James Gardiner, John H. Buckley, William J. Hart, Griffith L. Ross, Dr. John D. Smith, Wilton Massingill, Richard Barnham, J. G. Carver, Michael Joiner, Brooks Beal, Thomas H. Green, Thos. Peeler, D. H. Williams, William Morgan, Joseph Parker, Charles L. Love, Churchill Andrews, Jesse McTibbs, Jesse P. Wingate, Edwin Gault, Jonathan Duke, Robert Canada, Blunt Andrews, A. Graves, D. F. Spain, and Bobt. Cooper.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we have witnessed with pride and pleasure the favorable mention of several of our distinguished West Tennesseans as suitable persons for Governor of Tennessee, and it would be very gratifying to us our section of the State to be honored with the nomination. But should the compromise be chosen, it is another division of the State, we will cheerfully acquiesce and mutually support the nominee. But, by way of preference, the democracy of Henderson would mention as their first choice, the Hon. F. P. STRATTON, of Shelby, as their standard-bearer for the nomination of Governor.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The court was engaged on Friday evening and Saturday morning, in the trial of the case of ELI ARMSTRONG, who is charged with the murder of RICHARD JACKSON. The Counsel of the Defendant place the defence on the ground of self defence, as it is contended that the killing was done without malice and under fears for his personal safety. The Attorney General contended that there are no circumstances in the case to mitigate the crime and that he should be found guilty of either murder in the first or in the second degree, or of manslaughter.

MARKET.—There was nothing offering on the street, and no transactions in warehouses. No change in the feeling. Speculators are ready to buy at current rates, but holders are disposed to wait for an advance. TOBACCO.—Sale of hogs on Saturday at 4000 05. No change in the grocery market. NEW ORLEANS, April 9.—Cotton in Friday was more active—sales 5000 bales—prices firm since reception of the Arctic's news. Sales for the week 15,000 bales. Middling 95 1/2. Increase in receipts at all ports 300,000. Freight to Liverpool 9-16. Sterling exchange 10 1/2.

MR. LANE'S Liver Pills, have now become the great Specific for Hepatitis or enlargement of the liver, in its most complicated forms. This medicine has done an immense amount of good in curing this fearful disease, so common throughout the United States, and as evidence of its efficacy, we will state that it is superseding every other remedy. The demand for this certain cure is unprecedented. Orders are coming in from all quarters, and every mail something of the following tenor: CARRISBRO, Ohio, Jan. 1851. Messrs. J. Kidd & Co.—We are nearly out of Mr. Lane's Pills. It would be well to keep us supplied, as there is a great demand for them in our State. OGDEN & CLARK. For sale at all the principal Drug Stores in Nashville and vicinity.

PUBLIC MEETING AT WOODBURY.

According to previous notice, a very large portion of the citizens of Cannon County, irrespective of party feeling, met at the Court-House, in the town of Woodbury, on Monday the 4th day of April, 1853, to take into consideration the almost unlimited traffic in Spiritual Mediums. Whereupon, on motion of the Rev. M. G. Ekins, J. J. Fare was appointed President of said meeting, and Samuel N. Barger, Secretary.

Whereupon, on motion of Benjamin Fagitt, the following preamble and resolutions were read by the President, who addressed the meeting in support of the resolutions. Whereupon, A. Barger, Esq., moved to strike out the 3d resolution, and Mr. Barger and Mr. Webster, of Coffee, addressed the meeting in support of the motion, and C. B. Davis, Esq., in support of the resolution. Said motion to strike out the 3d resolution, was lost, and thereupon, the preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

DEATH OF MRS. RIVES. We extract the following paragraph from the Washington correspondence of the Louisville Courier: Yesterday our nation mourned with Mr. Fillmore for the loss of his kind, benignant, and truly excellent wife, to-day this city, at least, unites in condolence with Mr. John C. Rives, of the Globe, for the loss of one who was to him almost as the light of his existence. Mr. Rives had passed the period of middle age when he realized the fact that he was nearing the end of his earthly career, and he determined that he should be first thought of as a husband, and then as a father, and then as a citizen. He was a man of high moral character, and his death is a great loss to his country.

THE WHIG CANDIDATES FOR THE LEGISLATURE. As your names have been presented to the public, as seekers of political favor, I deem it right and proper to submit for your consideration a few questions of general interest. An American was once in conversation with a King, who, addressing himself to the American, said—'you have no sovereign in your country. The American replied—'Sir—you are mistaken, we are all sovereigns. The people there being sovereigns, claim the right of interrogating you, who would fain be public servants.

STEAMBOAT REGISTER. ADMIRALTY.—Cape May, Paducah, DEPARTED.—Nashville, New Orleans, River receding slowly. FOR MEMPHIS.—The U. S. MAIL PACKET, EMERSON, will leave Nashville for Memphis, on Monday next, at 4 o'clock, P. M. For freight or passage, apply at the U. S. Mail Office, April 11. A. L. DAVIS, Agent.

COUGHS, INFLUENZA, &c.—Why is it that so many neglect a COUGH for a long time, and then wonder that they have a CONSUMPTION? How much suffering and death would be prevented if they could cure their Cough at once by taking that infallible remedy, DR. C. WILLIAMS' PULMONIC BALSAM or WILD CHERRY AND WOOD NATURAL, which is becoming so universally popular. See advertisement in another column. [April 11.—] Notice.—R. P. CANSWATER says—My wife was cured of what was pronounced by the most eminent Physicians to be "Consumption of the Lungs," by the use of Dr. C. B. BENT'S SODA-COATED PILLS, which I gave as a last resort. She was given over to die by her Doctors, but after a few doses of Dr. Smith's Pills, according to the directions, I discovered that she seemed to improve and the cough to lessen. The disease appeared to come to the surface, and the whole abdomen broke out in running sores, and the spitting of blood continued, but in a few days it ceased, and she was cured, and she has been enjoying good health ever since. R. P. CANSWATER, March 17th, 1853. Depot Agent, Wartrace, Tenn.

THE BANNER is still suffering and weeping over the New York appointments. They appear to give its editor more trouble than any other occurrence of the day. Indeed, General Pierce, in making these appointments in the manner in which they have been given to the country, has been particularly cruel to such whig leaders as our neighbor of the Banner. Now, the Banner and its friends expected to make something "right smart" out of these New York appointments. They looked to them as the indubitable source of great perplexities and misfortunes to the democratic party at large. They considered their satisfactory adjustment as beyond the power of the most skillful and bold statesmanship. They, in fact, formed the rock upon which the new administration was to be wrecked before it was fairly at sea. To deal fairly and squarely with the entire party of the State—to give the original compromise men an earnest that the administration was with them heartily—to give the other wing of the party evidence also that they were not to be proscribed as long as they adhered, in good faith, to the terms of union upon which the party agreed in 1851—to maintain the union of the democratic party for the sake of the Union—to do these things was simply and absolutely impossible, in the estimation of the Banner and its friends. Judge, then, of the surprise, rage, mortification, disgust, &c., of these disinterested patriots when the President unfeelingly destroyed their air-built castles and high-wrought expectations. Not Apollon, when foiled by the angel Gabriel, was more wrathful or malicious. In their rage, they say all kinds of naughty things—talk about the compromise and free soilers, just as if their party had passed the former, and was not composed chiefly of the latter. Now, we advise these disappointed patriots to be quiet. The world sees through their patriotism, for it is very thin, and correctly appreciates their motives in making this outcry about the New York appointments. They have been foiled in their unrighteous expectations, and if they have left a single drop of real patriotism, they will hereafter rejoice over their present discomfiture. "It is an ill-wind that blows no one any good," and what has been so disastrous to us as politicians, will be of great benefit to their country. If this does not ultimately prove to them sufficient consolation, then is their case beyond the power of remedy.

At a meeting of the democracy of Henderson County, on the 28th ult., the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the Democratic State Convention: Jesse Franklin, W. F. Homes, Stephen Hamlett, James Gardiner, John H. Buckley, William J. Hart, Griffith L. Ross, Dr. John D. Smith, Wilton Massingill, Richard Barnham, J. G. Carver, Michael Joiner, Brooks Beal, Thomas H. Green, Thos. Peeler, D. H. Williams, William Morgan, Joseph Parker, Charles L. Love, Churchill Andrews, Jesse McTibbs, Jesse P. Wingate, Edwin Gault, Jonathan Duke, Robert Canada, Blunt Andrews, A. Graves, D. F. Spain, and Bobt. Cooper.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we have witnessed with pride and pleasure the favorable mention of several of our distinguished West Tennesseans as suitable persons for Governor of Tennessee, and it would be very gratifying to us our section of the State to be honored with the nomination. But should the compromise be chosen, it is another division of the State, we will cheerfully acquiesce and mutually support the nominee. But, by way of preference, the democracy of Henderson would mention as their first choice, the Hon. F. P. STRATTON, of Shelby, as their standard-bearer for the nomination of Governor.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The court was engaged on Friday evening and Saturday morning, in the trial of the case of ELI ARMSTRONG, who is charged with the murder of RICHARD JACKSON. The Counsel of the Defendant place the defence on the ground of self defence, as it is contended that the killing was done without malice and under fears for his personal safety. The Attorney General contended that there are no circumstances in the case to mitigate the crime and that he should be found guilty of either murder in the first or in the second degree, or of manslaughter.

MARKET.—There was nothing offering on the street, and no transactions in warehouses. No change in the feeling. Speculators are ready to buy at current rates, but holders are disposed to wait for an advance. TOBACCO.—Sale of hogs on Saturday at 4000 05. No change in the grocery market. NEW ORLEANS, April 9.—Cotton in Friday was more active—sales 5000 bales—prices firm since reception of the Arctic's news. Sales for the week 15,000 bales. Middling 95 1/2. Increase in receipts at all ports 300,000. Freight to Liverpool 9-16. Sterling exchange 10 1/2.

MR. LANE'S Liver Pills, have now become the great Specific for Hepatitis or enlargement of the liver, in its most complicated forms. This medicine has done an immense amount of good in curing this fearful disease, so common throughout the United States, and as evidence of its efficacy, we will state that it is superseding every other remedy. The demand for this certain cure is unprecedented. Orders are coming in from all quarters, and every mail something of the following tenor: CARRISBRO, Ohio, Jan. 1851. Messrs. J. Kidd & Co.—We are nearly out of Mr. Lane's Pills. It would be well to keep us supplied, as there is a great demand for them in our State. OGDEN & CLARK. For sale at all the principal Drug Stores in Nashville and vicinity.

THE BANNER is still suffering and weeping over the New York appointments. They appear to give its editor more trouble than any other occurrence of the day. Indeed, General Pierce, in making these appointments in the manner in which they have been given to the country, has been particularly cruel to such whig leaders as our neighbor of the Banner. Now, the Banner and its friends expected to make something "right smart" out of these New York appointments. They looked to them as the indubitable source of great perplexities and misfortunes to the democratic party at large. They considered their satisfactory adjustment as beyond the power of the most skillful and bold statesmanship. They, in fact, formed the rock upon which the new administration was to be wrecked before it was fairly at sea. To deal fairly and squarely with the entire party of the State—to give the original compromise men an earnest that the administration was with them heartily—to give the other wing of the party evidence also that they were not to be proscribed as long as they adhered, in good faith, to the terms of union upon which the party agreed in 1851—to maintain the union of the democratic party for the sake of the Union—to do these things was simply and absolutely impossible, in the estimation of the Banner and its friends. Judge, then, of the surprise, rage, mortification, disgust, &c., of these disinterested patriots when the President unfeelingly destroyed their air-built castles and high-wrought expectations. Not Apollon, when foiled by the angel Gabriel, was more wrathful or malicious. In their rage, they say all kinds of naughty things—talk about the compromise and free soilers, just as if their party had passed the former, and was not composed chiefly of the latter. Now, we advise these disappointed patriots to be quiet. The world sees through their patriotism, for it is very thin, and correctly appreciates their motives in making this outcry about the New York appointments. They have been foiled in their unrighteous expectations, and if they have left a single drop of real patriotism, they will hereafter rejoice over their present discomfiture. "It is an ill-wind that blows no one any good," and what has been so disastrous to us as politicians, will be of great benefit to their country. If this does not ultimately prove to them sufficient consolation, then is their case beyond the power of remedy.

At a meeting of the democracy of Henderson County, on the 28th ult., the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the Democratic State Convention: Jesse Franklin, W. F. Homes, Stephen Hamlett, James Gardiner, John H. Buckley, William J. Hart, Griffith L. Ross, Dr. John D. Smith, Wilton Massingill, Richard Barnham, J. G. Carver, Michael Joiner, Brooks Beal, Thomas H. Green, Thos. Peeler, D. H. Williams, William Morgan, Joseph Parker, Charles L. Love, Churchill Andrews, Jesse McTibbs, Jesse P. Wingate, Edwin Gault, Jonathan Duke, Robert Canada, Blunt Andrews, A. Graves, D. F. Spain, and Bobt. Cooper.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we have witnessed with pride and pleasure the favorable mention of several of our distinguished West Tennesseans as suitable persons for Governor of Tennessee, and it would be very gratifying to us our section of the State to be honored with the nomination. But should the compromise be chosen, it is another division of the State, we will cheerfully acquiesce and mutually support the nominee. But, by way of preference, the democracy of Henderson would mention as their first choice, the Hon. F. P. STRATTON, of Shelby, as their standard-bearer for the nomination of Governor.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The court was engaged on Friday evening and Saturday morning, in the trial of the case of ELI ARMSTRONG, who is charged with the murder of RICHARD JACKSON. The Counsel of the Defendant place the defence on the ground of self defence, as it is contended that the killing was done without malice and under fears for his personal safety. The Attorney General contended that there are no circumstances in the case to mitigate the crime and that he should be found guilty of either murder in the first or in the second degree, or of manslaughter.

MARKET.—There was nothing offering on the street, and no transactions in warehouses. No change in the feeling. Speculators are ready to buy at current rates, but holders are disposed to wait for an advance. TOBACCO.—Sale of hogs on Saturday at 4000 05. No change in the grocery market. NEW ORLEANS, April 9.—Cotton in Friday was more active—sales 5000 bales—prices firm since reception of the Arctic's news. Sales for the week 15,000 bales. Middling 95 1/2. Increase in receipts at all ports 300,000. Freight to Liverpool 9-16. Sterling exchange 10 1/2.

MR. LANE'S Liver Pills, have now become the great Specific for Hepatitis or enlargement of the liver, in its most complicated forms. This medicine has done an immense amount of good in curing this fearful disease, so common throughout the United States, and as evidence of its efficacy, we will state that it is superseding every other remedy. The demand for this certain cure is unprecedented. Orders are coming in from all quarters, and every mail something of the following tenor: CARRISBRO, Ohio, Jan. 1851. Messrs. J. Kidd & Co.—We are nearly out of Mr. Lane's Pills. It would be well to keep us supplied, as there is a great demand for them in our State. OGDEN & CLARK. For sale at all the principal Drug Stores in Nashville and vicinity.

THE BANNER is still suffering and weeping over the New York appointments. They appear to give its editor more trouble than any other occurrence of the day. Indeed, General Pierce, in making these appointments in the manner in which they have been given to the country, has been particularly cruel to such whig leaders as our neighbor of the Banner. Now, the Banner and its friends expected to make something "right smart" out of these New York appointments. They looked to them as the indubitable source of great perplexities and misfortunes to the democratic party at large. They considered their satisfactory adjustment as beyond the power of the most skillful and bold statesmanship. They, in fact, formed the rock upon which the new administration was to be wrecked before it was fairly at sea. To deal fairly and squarely with the entire party of the State—to give the original compromise men an earnest that the administration was with them heartily—to give the other wing of the party evidence also that they were not to be proscribed as long as they adhered, in good faith, to the terms of union upon which the party agreed in 1851—to maintain the union of the democratic party for the sake of the Union—to do these things was simply and absolutely impossible, in the estimation of the Banner and its friends. Judge, then, of the surprise, rage, mortification, disgust, &c., of these disinterested patriots when the President unfeelingly destroyed their air-built castles and high-wrought expectations. Not Apollon, when foiled by the angel Gabriel, was more wrathful or malicious. In their rage, they say all kinds of naughty things—talk about the compromise and free soilers, just as if their party had passed the former, and was not composed chiefly of the latter. Now, we advise these disappointed patriots to be quiet. The world sees through their patriotism, for it is very thin, and correctly appreciates their motives in making this outcry about the New York appointments. They have been foiled in their unrighteous expectations, and if they have left a single drop of real patriotism, they will hereafter rejoice over their present discomfiture. "It is an ill-wind that blows no one any good," and what has been so disastrous to us as politicians, will be of great benefit to their country. If this does not ultimately prove to them sufficient consolation, then is their case beyond the power of remedy.

At a meeting of the democracy of Henderson County, on the 28th ult., the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the Democratic State Convention: Jesse Franklin, W. F. Homes, Stephen Hamlett, James Gardiner, John H. Buckley, William J. Hart, Griffith L. Ross, Dr. John D. Smith, Wilton Massingill, Richard Barnham, J. G. Carver, Michael Joiner, Brooks Beal, Thomas H. Green, Thos. Peeler, D. H. Williams, William Morgan, Joseph Parker, Charles L. Love, Churchill Andrews, Jesse McTibbs, Jesse P. Wingate, Edwin Gault, Jonathan Duke, Robert Canada, Blunt Andrews, A. Graves, D. F. Spain, and Bobt. Cooper.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we have witnessed with pride and pleasure the favorable mention of several of our distinguished West Tennesseans as suitable persons for Governor of Tennessee, and it would be very gratifying to us our section of the State to be honored with the nomination. But should the compromise be chosen, it is another division of the State, we will cheerfully acquiesce and mutually support the nominee. But, by way of preference, the democracy of Henderson would mention as their first choice, the Hon. F. P. STRATTON, of Shelby, as their standard-bearer for the nomination of Governor.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The court was engaged on Friday evening and Saturday morning, in the trial of the case of ELI ARMSTRONG, who is charged with the murder of RICHARD JACKSON. The Counsel of the Defendant place the defence on the ground of self defence, as it is contended that the killing was done without malice and under fears for his personal safety. The Attorney General contended that there are no circumstances in the case to mitigate the crime and that he should be found guilty of either murder in the first or in the second degree, or of manslaughter.

MARKET.—There was nothing offering on the street, and no transactions in warehouses. No change in the feeling. Speculators are ready to buy at current rates, but holders are disposed to wait for an advance. TOBACCO.—Sale of hogs on Saturday at 4000 05. No change in the grocery market. NEW ORLEANS, April 9.—Cotton in Friday was more active—sales 5000 bales—prices firm since reception of the Arctic's news. Sales for the week 15,000 bales. Middling 95 1/2. Increase in receipts at all ports 300,000. Freight to Liverpool 9-16. Sterling exchange 10 1/2.

MR. LANE'S Liver Pills, have now become the great Specific for Hepatitis or enlargement of the liver, in its most complicated forms. This medicine has done an immense amount of good in curing this fearful disease, so common throughout the United States, and as evidence of its efficacy, we will state that it is superseding every other remedy. The demand for this certain cure is unprecedented. Orders are coming in from all quarters, and every mail something of the following tenor: CARRISBRO, Ohio, Jan. 1851. Messrs. J. Kidd & Co.—We are nearly out of Mr. Lane's Pills. It would be well to keep us supplied, as there is a great demand for them in our State. OGDEN & CLARK. For sale at all the principal Drug Stores in Nashville and vicinity.

THE BANNER is still suffering and weeping over the New York appointments. They appear to give its editor more trouble than any other occurrence of the day. Indeed, General Pierce, in making these appointments in the manner in which they have been given to the country, has been particularly cruel to such whig leaders as our neighbor of the Banner. Now, the Banner and its friends expected to make something "right smart" out of these New York appointments. They looked to them as the indubitable source of great perplexities and misfortunes to the democratic party at large. They considered their satisfactory adjustment as beyond the power of the most skillful and bold statesmanship. They, in fact, formed the rock upon which the new administration was to be wrecked before it was fairly at sea. To deal fairly and squarely with the entire party of the State—to give the original compromise men an earnest that the administration was with them heartily—to give the other wing of the party evidence also that they were not to be proscribed as long as they adhered, in good faith, to the terms of union upon which the party agreed in 1851—to maintain the union of the democratic party for the sake of the Union—to do these things was simply and absolutely impossible, in the estimation of the Banner and its friends. Judge, then, of the surprise, rage, mortification, disgust, &c., of these disinterested patriots when the President unfeelingly destroyed their air-built castles and high-wrought expectations. Not Apollon, when foiled by the angel Gabriel, was more wrathful or malicious. In their rage, they say all kinds of naughty things—talk about the compromise and free soilers, just as if their party had passed the former, and was not composed chiefly of the latter. Now, we advise these disappointed patriots to be quiet. The world sees through their patriotism, for it is very thin, and correctly appreciates their motives in making this outcry about the New York appointments. They have been foiled in their unrighteous expectations, and if they have left a single drop of real patriotism, they will hereafter rejoice over their present discomfiture. "It is an ill-wind that blows no one any good," and what has been so disastrous to us as politicians, will be of great benefit to their country. If this does not ultimately prove to them sufficient consolation, then is their case beyond the power of remedy.

At a meeting of the democracy of Henderson County, on the 28th ult., the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the Democratic State Convention: Jesse Franklin, W. F. Homes, Stephen Hamlett, James Gardiner, John H. Buckley, William J. Hart, Griffith L. Ross, Dr. John D. Smith, Wilton Massingill, Richard Barnham, J. G. Carver, Michael Joiner, Brooks Beal, Thomas H. Green, Thos. Peeler, D. H. Williams, William Morgan, Joseph Parker, Charles L. Love, Churchill Andrews, Jesse McTibbs, Jesse P. Wingate, Edwin Gault, Jonathan Duke, Robert Canada, Blunt Andrews, A. Graves, D. F. Spain, and Bobt. Cooper.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we have witnessed with pride and pleasure the favorable mention of several of our distinguished West Tennesseans as suitable persons for Governor of Tennessee, and it would be very gratifying to us our section of the State to be honored with the nomination. But should the compromise be chosen, it is another division of the State, we will cheerfully acquiesce and mutually support the nominee. But, by way of preference, the democracy of Henderson would mention as their first choice, the Hon. F. P. STRATTON, of Shelby, as their standard-bearer for the nomination of Governor.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The court was engaged on Friday evening and Saturday morning, in the trial of the case of ELI ARMSTRONG, who is charged with the murder of RICHARD JACKSON. The Counsel of the Defendant place the defence on the ground of self defence, as it is contended that the killing was done without malice and under fears for his personal safety. The Attorney General contended that there are no circumstances in the case to mitigate the crime and that he should be found guilty of either murder in the first or in the second degree, or of manslaughter.

MARKET.—There was nothing offering on the street, and no transactions in warehouses. No change in the feeling. Speculators are ready to buy at current rates, but holders are disposed to wait for an advance. TOBACCO.—Sale of hogs on Saturday at 4000 05. No change in the grocery market. NEW ORLEANS, April 9.—Cotton in Friday was more active—sales 5000 bales—prices firm since reception of the Arctic's news. Sales for the week 15,000 bales. Middling 95 1/2. Increase in receipts at all ports 300,000. Freight to Liverpool 9-16. Sterling exchange 10 1/2.

MR. LANE'S Liver Pills, have now become the great Specific for Hepatitis or enlargement of the liver, in its most complicated forms. This medicine has done an immense amount of good in curing this fearful disease, so common throughout the United States, and as evidence of its efficacy, we will state that it is superseding every other remedy. The demand for this certain cure is unprecedented. Orders are coming in from all quarters, and every mail something of the following tenor: CARRISBRO, Ohio, Jan. 1851. Messrs. J. Kidd & Co.—We are nearly out of Mr. Lane's Pills. It would be well to keep us supplied, as there is a great demand for them in our State. OGDEN & CLARK. For sale at all the principal Drug Stores in Nashville and vicinity.

THE BANNER is still suffering and weeping over the New York appointments. They appear to give its editor more trouble than any other occurrence of the day. Indeed, General Pierce, in making these appointments in the manner in which they have been given to the country, has been particularly cruel to such whig leaders as our neighbor of the Banner. Now, the Banner and its friends expected to make something "right smart" out of these New York appointments. They looked to them as the indubitable source of great perplexities and misfortunes to the democratic party at large. They considered their satisfactory adjustment as beyond the power of the most skillful and bold statesmanship. They, in fact, formed the rock upon which the new administration was to be wrecked before it was fairly at sea. To deal fairly and squarely with the entire party of the State—to give the original compromise men an earnest that the administration was with them heartily—to give the other wing of the party evidence also that they were not to be proscribed as long as they adhered, in good faith, to the terms of union upon which the party agreed in 1851—to maintain the union of the democratic party for the sake of the Union—to do these things was simply and absolutely impossible, in the estimation of the Banner and its friends. Judge, then, of the surprise, rage, mortification, disgust, &c., of these disinterested patriots when the President unfeelingly destroyed their air-built castles and high-wrought expectations. Not Apollon, when foiled by the angel Gabriel, was more wrathful or malicious. In their rage, they say all kinds of naughty things—talk about the compromise and free soilers, just as if their party had passed the former, and was not composed chiefly of the latter. Now, we advise these disappointed patriots to be quiet. The world sees through their patriotism, for it is very thin, and correctly appreciates their motives in making this outcry about the New York appointments. They have been foiled in their unrighteous expectations, and if they have left a single drop of real patriotism, they will hereafter rejoice over their present discomfiture. "It is an ill-wind that blows no one any good," and what has been so disastrous to us as politicians, will be of great benefit to their country. If this does not ultimately prove to them sufficient consolation, then is their case beyond the power of remedy.

At a meeting of the democracy of Henderson County, on the 28th ult., the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the Democratic State Convention: Jesse Franklin, W. F. Homes, Stephen Hamlett, James Gardiner, John H. Buckley, William J. Hart, Griffith L. Ross, Dr. John D. Smith, Wilton Massingill, Richard Barnham, J. G. Carver, Michael Joiner, Brooks Beal, Thomas H. Green, Thos. Peeler, D. H. Williams, William Morgan, Joseph Parker, Charles L. Love, Churchill Andrews, Jesse McTibbs, Jesse P. Wingate, Edwin Gault, Jonathan Duke, Robert Canada, Blunt Andrews, A. Graves, D. F. Spain, and Bobt. Cooper.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we have witnessed with pride and pleasure the favorable mention of several of our distinguished West Tennesseans as suitable persons for Governor of Tennessee, and it would be very gratifying to us our section of the State to be honored with the nomination. But should the compromise be chosen, it is another division of the State, we will cheerfully acquiesce and mutually support the nominee. But, by way of preference, the democracy of Henderson would mention as their first choice, the Hon. F. P. STRATTON, of Shelby, as their standard-bearer for the nomination of Governor.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The court was engaged on Friday evening and Saturday morning, in the trial of the case of ELI ARMSTRONG, who is charged with the murder of RICHARD JACKSON. The Counsel of the Defendant place the defence on the ground of self defence, as it is contended that the killing was done without malice and under fears for his personal safety. The Attorney General contended that there are no circumstances in the case to mitigate the crime and that he should be found guilty of either murder in the first or in the second degree, or of manslaughter.

MARKET.—There was nothing offering on the street, and no transactions in warehouses. No change in the feeling. Speculators are ready to buy at current rates, but holders are disposed to wait for an advance. TOBACCO.—Sale of hogs on Saturday at 4000 05. No change in the grocery market. NEW ORLEANS, April 9.—Cotton in Friday was more active—sales 5000 bales—prices firm since reception of the Arctic's news. Sales for the week 15,000 bales. Middling 95 1/2. Increase in receipts at all ports 300,000. Freight to Liverpool 9-16. Sterling exchange 10 1/2.

MR. LANE'S Liver Pills, have now become the great Specific for Hepatitis or enlargement of the liver, in its most complicated forms. This medicine has done an immense amount of good in curing this fearful disease, so common throughout the United States, and as evidence of its efficacy, we will state that it is superseding every other remedy. The demand for this certain cure is unprecedented. Orders are coming in from all quarters, and every mail something of the following tenor: CARRISBRO, Ohio, Jan. 1851. Messrs. J. Kidd & Co.—We are nearly out of Mr. Lane's Pills. It would be well to keep us supplied, as there is a great demand for them in our State. OGDEN & CLARK. For sale at all the principal Drug Stores in Nashville and vicinity.

THE BANNER is still suffering and weeping over the New York appointments. They appear to give its editor more trouble than any other occurrence of the day. Indeed, General Pierce, in making these appointments in the manner in which they have been given to the country, has been particularly cruel to such whig leaders as our neighbor of the Banner. Now, the Banner and its friends expected to make something "right smart" out of these New York appointments. They looked to them as the indubitable source of great perplexities and misfortunes to the democratic party at large. They considered their satisfactory adjustment as beyond the power of the most skillful and bold statesmanship. They, in fact, formed the rock upon which the new administration was to be wrecked before it was fairly at sea. To deal fairly and squarely with the entire party of the State—to give the original compromise men an earnest that the administration was with them heartily—to give the other wing of the party evidence also that they were not to be proscribed as long as they adhered, in good faith, to the terms of union upon which the party agreed in 1851—to maintain the union of the democratic party for the sake of the Union—to do these things was simply and absolutely impossible, in the estimation of the Banner and its friends. Judge, then, of the surprise, rage, mortification, disgust, &c., of these disinterested patriots when the President unfeelingly destroyed their air-built castles and high-wrought expectations. Not Apollon, when foiled by the angel Gabriel, was more wrathful or malicious. In their rage, they say all kinds of naughty things—talk about the compromise and free soilers, just as if their party had passed the former, and was not composed chiefly of the latter. Now, we advise these disappointed patriots to be quiet. The world sees through their patriotism, for it is very thin, and correctly appreciates their motives in making this outcry about the New York appointments. They have been foiled in their unrighteous expectations, and if they have left a single drop of real patriotism, they will hereafter rejoice over their present discomfiture. "It is an ill-wind that blows no one any good," and what has been so disastrous to us as politicians, will be of great benefit to their country. If this does not ultimately prove to them sufficient consolation, then is their case beyond the power of remedy.

At a meeting of the democracy of Henderson County, on the 28th ult., the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the Democratic State Convention: Jesse Franklin, W. F. Homes, Stephen Hamlett, James Gardiner, John H. Buckley, William J. Hart, Griffith L. Ross, Dr. John D. Smith, Wilton Massingill, Richard Barnham, J. G. Carver, Michael Joiner, Brooks Beal, Thomas H. Green, Thos. Peeler, D. H. Williams, William Morgan, Joseph Parker, Charles L. Love, Churchill Andrews, Jesse McTibbs, Jesse P. Wingate, Edwin Gault, Jonathan Duke, Robert Canada, Blunt Andrews, A. Graves, D. F. Spain, and Bobt. Cooper.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we have witnessed with pride and pleasure the favorable mention of several of our distinguished West Tennesseans as suitable persons for Governor of Tennessee, and it would be very gratifying to us our section of the State to be honored with the nomination. But should the compromise be chosen, it is another division of the State, we will cheerfully acquiesce and mutually support the nominee. But, by way of preference, the democracy of Henderson would mention as their first choice, the Hon. F. P. STRATTON, of Shelby, as their standard-bearer for the nomination of Governor.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The court was engaged on Friday evening and Saturday morning, in the trial of the case of ELI ARMSTRONG, who is charged with the murder of RICHARD JACKSON. The Counsel of the Defendant place the defence on the ground of self defence, as it is contended that the killing was done without malice and under fears for his personal safety. The Attorney General contended that there are no circumstances in the case to mitigate the crime and that he should be found guilty of either murder in the first or in the second degree, or of manslaughter.

MARKET.—There was nothing offering on the street, and no transactions in warehouses. No change in the feeling. Speculators are ready to buy at current rates, but holders are disposed to wait for an advance. TOBACCO.—Sale of hogs on Saturday at 4000 05. No change in the grocery market. NEW ORLEANS, April 9.—Cotton in Friday was more active—sales 5000 bales—prices firm since reception of the Arctic's news. Sales for the week 15,000 bales. Middling 95 1/2. Increase in receipts at all ports 300,000. Freight to Liverpool 9-16. Sterling exchange 10 1/2.

MR. LANE'S Liver Pills, have now become the great Specific for Hepatitis or enlargement of the liver, in its most complicated forms. This medicine has done an immense amount of good in curing this fearful disease, so common throughout the United States, and as evidence of its efficacy, we will state that it is superseding every other remedy. The demand for this certain cure is unprecedented. Orders are coming in from all quarters, and every mail something of the following tenor: CARRISBRO, Ohio, Jan. 1851. Messrs. J. Kidd & Co.—We are nearly out of Mr. Lane's Pills. It would be well to keep us supplied, as there is a great demand for them in our State. OGDEN & CLARK. For sale at all the principal Drug Stores in Nashville and vicinity.

THE BANNER is still suffering and weeping over the New York appointments. They appear to give its editor more trouble than any other occurrence of the day. Indeed, General Pierce, in making these appointments in the manner in which they have been given to the country, has been particularly cruel to such whig leaders as our neighbor of the Banner. Now, the Banner and its friends expected to make something "right smart" out of these New York appointments. They looked to them as the indubitable source of great perplexities and misfortunes to the democratic party at large. They considered their satisfactory adjustment as beyond the power of the most skillful and bold statesmanship. They, in fact, formed the rock upon which the new administration was to be wrecked before it was fairly at sea. To deal fairly and squarely with the entire party of the State—to give the original compromise men an earnest that the administration was with them heartily—to give the other wing of the party evidence also that they were not to be proscribed as long as they adhered, in good faith, to the terms of union upon which the party agreed in 1851—to maintain the union of the democratic party for the sake of the Union—to do these things was simply and absolutely impossible, in the estimation of the Banner and its friends. Judge, then, of the surprise, rage, mortification, disgust, &c., of these disinterested patriots when the President unfeelingly destroyed their air-built castles and high-wrought expectations. Not Apollon, when foiled by the angel Gabriel, was more wrathful or malicious. In their rage, they say all kinds of naughty things—talk about the compromise and free soilers, just as if their party had passed the former, and was not composed chiefly of the latter. Now, we advise these disappointed patriots to be quiet. The world sees through their patriotism, for it is very thin, and correctly appreciates their motives in making this outcry about the New York appointments. They have been foiled in their unrighteous expectations, and if they have left a single drop of real patriotism, they will hereafter rejoice over their present discomfiture. "It is an ill-wind that blows no one any good," and what has been so disastrous to us as politicians, will be of great benefit to their country. If this does not ultimately prove to them sufficient consolation, then is their case beyond the power of remedy.