

MOUNTAIN SENTINEL.

EBENSBURG, PA.

Thursday, July 12, 1849.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER,

JOHN A. GAMBLE,
Of Lycoming.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY NOMINATIONS.

FOR ASSEMBLY,
Dr. Wm. A. SMITH,
Of Ebensburg.

FOR SHERIFF,
JOHN BRAWLEY,
Of Summerhill tp.

FOR CORONER,
P. S. McCloskey,
Of Washington tp.

FOR TREASURER,
JOHN G. GIVEN,
Of Ebensburg.

FOR COMMISSIONER,
ANTHONY LAMBAUGH,
Of Jackson, tp.

FOR AUDITOR,
WASH. DOUGLASS,
Of Allegheny tp.

THE SENTINEL, has much the largest circulation of any paper published in this county—and as an advertising sheet offers superior inducements to merchants and business men generally. Those desirous of making use of this medium for extending their business can do so by either sending their notices direct, or through the following agents:

John Crowe, Esq., Johnston.
E. W. Carr, Esq., Buildings, Third st. Philadelphia.
Wm. A. Kinsloe, Pittsburg.
George Pratt, 151, Nassau st., New York.

John A. Gamble.
This gentleman, having received the nomination from the Democratic State Convention, which assembled in Pittsburg on the 4th inst., we have hoisted his name to our mast head as the Democratic candidate for Canal Commissioner. As will be seen by the proceedings of the Convention which we publish to-day, his nomination was perhaps more unanimous than any one that has been made for several years, and this circumstance may be regarded as a most favorable precursor of his triumphant election in October next. The Convention could not have selected a man who would have been more satisfactory to the Democratic party or one more deserving the confidence of his fellow citizens. Being a practical engineer, and a man of good business habits, he is certainly eminently qualified for the office for which he has been selected by the democracy of the State.

Mr. Gamble has represented Lycoming county in the Legislature and was a member of the Reform Convention and his conduct in both bodies received the entire approbation of those whom he represented. He is well and intimately acquainted with the condition and business of our public improvements, and the experience he has acquired as an engineer and a contractor will recommend him to all who are desirous of having our public works properly conducted.

As a democrat, Mr. Gamble enjoys the confidence of his party throughout the State, the assent of a few interested persons to the "contrary notwithstanding." He is known to be sound to the core upon every principle of democratic policy, and uniform in his support of democratic men and measures. Taking everything into consideration, we cannot but regard the choice of the Convention as a most judicious one.

We can assure our friends throughout the State that Little Cambria will give him a larger vote than she ever gave any former candidate for the same office. And a united effort throughout the State will enable the democracy to give him a real old-fashioned majority.

A Recommendation.
In view of the ravages of that dreadful scourge the Asiatic Cholera, whose hand of death is now so severely felt in all the principal towns and cities, the President of the United States has recommended the first Friday in August as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer, to be observed throughout the Union. We cannot too highly commend this suggestion, and we sincerely hope our citizens will duly observe the day appointed. The following is the recommendation of the President.

A RECOMMENDATION.—At a season when the ravages of this dreadful scourge is still on the increase. It is making its appearance on both sides of us as near as Huntingdon and Pittsburg, and we learn from the Hollidaysburg Register that a death from Cholera occurred at Plane No 10, A. P. R. R. on Monday last. We are disposed to believe that some other disease was the cause of his death. The subject, however, is said to have been an intemperate man who had been indulging in his cups freely for several days. He was seized at 8 or 9 o'clock in the morning, and died about 3 o'clock of the same day.

We also learn that three fatal cases of cholera occurred at Alexandria, Huntingdon county, on Sunday last. The subjects were a contractor on the Central Railroad, and two of his workmen.

lic service on that day; and it is recommended to persons of all religious denominations to abstain as far as practicable from secular occupations, and to assemble in their respective places of public worship, to acknowledge the Infinite Goodness which has watched over our existence as a nation, and so long crowned us with manifold blessings, and to implore the Almighty in His own good time to stay the destroying hand which is now lifted up against us.

Z. TAYLOR.
Washington, July 3, 1849.

Our Court.
Is still sitting, and will probably not adjourn until near the end of the week. The great number of Commonwealth cases presented to this term has occupied a large portion of the time that is allotted to the settlement of disputes. In fulfillment of the promise given in our last number, we give below a brief synopsis of some of the most important cases, and what was done with them. It may be interesting to those who were not in attendance at Court.

Commonwealth vs. P. S. McCloskey and John Humphreys.—Patrick Regan, Prosecutor. Indictment for Libel. A true bill as to P. S. McCloskey, and ignoramus as to John Humphreys. P. S. McCloskey sentenced to pay twenty dollars fine and costs of suit.

Commonwealth vs. Joseph McGeary.—Patrick Regan Prosecutor. Libel. Ignoramus, and prosecutor to pay costs.

Commonwealth vs. Peter Clawson, Jr., Joseph Miller and James D. Hamilton.—J. B. Wilkinson, Prosecutor. Indictment for resisting, assaulting and beating collector &c. Ignoramus and J. B. Wilkinson sentenced to pay costs.

Commonwealth vs. Mary McKeever.—Indictment for Insanity.—Verdict not guilty.

Commonwealth vs. C. G. Cramer.—Alexander McVicker, Prosecutor.—Indictment for rescue. Verdict of guilty, and defendant sentenced to pay one dollar fine and costs.

Commonwealth vs. James Pendle and John Rees.—Alfay. John Rees one of defendants sentenced to pay costs.

Commonwealth vs. John Earhart.—James Ross, Prosecutor. Assault. Verdict of guilty and defendant sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar and costs.

Commonwealth vs. John Earhart.—James Ross, Prosecutor. Larceny. Verdict of not guilty.

Commonwealth vs. J. B. Wilkinson.—Peter Clawson, Prosecutor. Assault and battery. Ignoramus and prosecutor to pay costs.

Commonwealth vs. Haden Smith.—Daniel Melhorn, Prosecutor. Larceny. Verdict, not guilty.

George N. Smith vs. Jacob Ritter.—Slander. Verdict of guilty and defendant sentenced to pay a fine of two hundred dollars and costs of suit.

Military Election.
In our last we neglected to give the result of an election for Major General held in this place on the 2d inst., by Major John Linton and Gen. Joseph McDonald. Capt. Joun Humphreys, of the "American Highlanders," received ten votes, being the entire support of those entitled to vote in this county. We were much pleased at this result, as no man is better entitled or more deserving of this flattering mark of esteem and confidence than Capt. Humphreys. What has been the result in the other counties composing this district we have been unable to learn. If there has been no concert of action, however, between any of them, we are of the opinion that Capt. Humphreys is elected.

Celebration of the 4th of July at Loretto.
In pursuance of a previous arrangement, quite a number of the citizens of the county assembled at Loretto on the 4th inst., for the purpose of celebrating in a becoming manner the natal day of American Independence. We had not the pleasure of being present on the occasion, but from what we have heard of the proceedings we are satisfied that the affair went off creditably.

The Declaration of Independence was read by Mr. James Kaylor, after which he addressed the assembled crowd at some length. Peter Kaylor, Jr., also favored the assemblage with some very pertinent remarks. Lieut. W. W. Ivory, of the Summit, was called on to address the meeting, to which call he responded in a very suitable way. His remarks were greeted with hearty cheers. After these ceremonies several parties of our young friends amused themselves by tripping the "light fantastic toe," to the merry sound of music.

At the next celebration of the 4th at Loretto, may "we be there to see."

Our friend of the Hollidaysburg Register need feel no uneasiness in relation to the success of our ticket. The division in our ranks at which he hints has no existence, and we can assure him that it is the intention of the democracy of this county to act "fairly and honestly" in their support of the regularly nominated ticket, the doubts of the editor of the Register to the contrary notwithstanding.

The proceedings of the Democratic State Convention held on the 4th inst., at Pittsburg, which we publish in a condensed form in today's paper, have excluded our usual variety of news.

Cholera.
The ravages of this dreadful scourge is still on the increase. It is making its appearance on both sides of us as near as Huntingdon and Pittsburg, and we learn from the Hollidaysburg Register that a death from Cholera occurred at Plane No 10, A. P. R. R. on Monday last. We are disposed to believe that some other disease was the cause of his death. The subject, however, is said to have been an intemperate man who had been indulging in his cups freely for several days. He was seized at 8 or 9 o'clock in the morning, and died about 3 o'clock of the same day.

We also learn that three fatal cases of cholera occurred at Alexandria, Huntingdon county, on Sunday last. The subjects were a contractor on the Central Railroad, and two of his workmen.

Patber Mathew.
As we stated in our last, Father Mathew the great Apostle of Temperance, has arrived in the city of New York. His reception was very warm and enthusiastic, and he was welcomed to the city in several speeches from the Common Council and the different temperance delegations. The following short address was delivered by Mr. Mathew before the Temperance Union, where a large audience had assembled.

Ladies and Gentlemen:—I thank you for your kind reception. The one I received yesterday, far exceeded all my expectations. I knew I had no merits of my own, and did not deserve such an expression. The cause of temperance in Ireland, has received the blessings of the Almighty. It is his own work. I know the difficulties I should have to encounter in undertaking the reformation of Ireland, but I resolved with the help of the Lord to oppose them before the people were beyond a remedy. I knew they were not wedded to intemperance, but only needed to be enlightened to be persuaded. In consequence of my labors, upwards of 5,000,000 of Irish took the pledge of total abstinence. Of them, I cannot learn that more than 1 in 500 have broken it, and I hope before I return, those here who have relapsed, will again return to the fold of temperance.

On the occasion of my reception yesterday by the municipal authorities, I was gratified to see my countrymen look so happy, and presenting such a respectable appearance. But I felt sad to think of the millions whom I have left behind to suffer in their penury, and wished they could partake of the plenty of this country. To hundreds of thousands the work houses have closed their gates. However, upon my return, I will acquaint them with my experience here, and I hope the conduct of those who leave for this country, may be such as to enable them to partake of the privileges enjoyed by those who have gone before them, without abusing them. At present, I shall content myself with thanking you for your kindness, and beg leave to offer my sincere acknowledgments for the reception I have received.

Cholera Intelligence.
The western papers are filled with accounts of the cholera in small towns. The Madison [La.] Banner records several deaths in that vicinity. At Bowling Green, Ky., three deaths had occurred. Four deaths had also occurred in Harrison county, Ia.

The Concordia [La.] Intelligencer says that on the "Gustine Place," owned by Lemuel P. Conner, at Rifle Point, on the Mississippi line, upwards of fifty persons had been attacked, and seven deaths had occurred.

At St. Louis and Louisville, the cholera is confined to particular localities; the latter principally in a district embracing 699 feet, and very dirty.

At Alton, Ill., the cholera has broken out badly; on the first day there were three deaths, and five were reported next morning. The disease is also raging at Collinsville, Ill., an inland and ordinarily healthy town.

At Cincinnati during the month of June, there have been 1,723 deaths, of which, 1,095 were of cholera.

The St. Louis Republican learns that the cholera had made its appearance at several towns on the Upper Mississippi. At Keokuk, Muscatine and Galena there had been several cases. The inhabitants in every place where it made its appearance were preparing to leave for the interior, and it was thought, if the disease should prevail to any extent, that most of the towns would be deserted.

Mrs. Madison, widow of James Madison, died on the 9th inst., at Washington city.—She was much advanced in age.

The news from the Sierra is very discouraging. It appears that Quiroz, in spite of the agreement that had been made, entered the town of Alaquinas without opposition, and afterwards marched to Tancanuitz, which he took. Ramirez, one of the insurgent chiefs, was between San Luis and Rio Verde, with from 800 to 1,000 men. General Guzman was at the hacienda of Augustura; east of San Luis. He had very few troops with him. El Universal says that in all parts of the country the war of castes is raging, and neither the general nor State governments have power to restore order.

In the state of Jalisco many towns have revolted. It is thought they are in communication with the rebels of the Sierra. San Juan de los Lagos wishes to separate from Jalisco and join itself to Guanajuato.

An earthquake occurred at Mexico on the 21st, which lasted for several minutes. A project is in a considerable state of forwardness, which is to despatch an expedition to Sonora, for the double purpose of chastising and expelling the Apaches, and working the mines of that State.—The government is desirous that it be composed partly of French and partly of Mexicans. The idea was started by Frenchmen.

The means taken by the State of Vera Cruz for the protection of the roads have proved effectual. No robbery has been committed between Jalapa and Perote for some time.

The State of Vera Cruz is determined opposed to the late law directing the levying of contributions on the different States.

Gen. Carrera, says El Siglo of the 11th inst., having obtained some trifling advantage over his adversaries, had taken post at the town of Chiantia with 3,300 men. The government of Guatemala had sent two commissioners to him, offering to make a treaty very favorable to him personally.

If he accept the terms proposed, there will be an immediate peace in that republic.

El Siglo of the 11th says that 800 Indians from the Sierra were marching on Tampico, called thither by the annexationists. They were already at Tancanegui, and would soon be at Panuco.—Gen. La Vega had demanded 100 men from the authorities at Tampico, to assist in repelling the attack, and it was determined to make an example of the traitors within the walls.

Don Ramon de la Torre and Don Pablo Castillo had been set at liberty, as they were acquitted of complicity in the affair of 12th April at Tampico. Don Julian Dupart has been found guilty. They were charged with projects of annexation to this country.

The legislature of Guadalupe have taken off 15 per cent. from the duty levied on foreign goods imported into that State.

The deputies to Congress of the States invaded by the Indians were to hold a convention to adopt suitable measures for applying a remedy to the evil.

A New Republic.
The seven northern States of Mexico, comprising the Sierra Madre, have declared themselves free and independent. The declaration is in the precise words of our own declaration of independence, and gives nine reasons why they dismember themselves from the Mexican Republic.

Death of Col. James Duncan.
This morning's mail brings us the melancholy intelligence of the death of Col. James Duncan. Inspector General of the United States Army. He died on Friday last, in Mobile. He was one of the most distinguished officers of the American Army during the Mexican war, and Duncan's battery gained a celebrity almost equal to that of Capt. Bragg.

From Canada.
MONTREAL, July 10.
Some trouble is anticipated at the meeting of the British American League to-night, at Kingston.

The cholera is not making much progress here, as the number of cases and deaths reported are very few.

Cholera in Hollidaysburg.
We learn this morning that two cases of cholera occurred in Hollidaysburg on Tuesday evening last. The subjects were a woman employed in Mr. Bingham's family, and a child. The scourge has also made its appearance on the Central Railroad above Huntingdon.

Mr. Benton on Slavery.
The following extract is taken from Hon. Thomas H. Benton's great speech lately delivered at Jefferson City, Missouri.

My personal sentiments, then, are against the institution of slavery, and against its introduction into places in which it does not exist. If there was no slavery in Missouri to-day, I should oppose its coming in; if there was none in the United States I should oppose its coming into the United States; as there is none in New Mexico or California, I am against sending it to those territories, and could not vote for such a measure; a declaration which costs me but little, the whole dispute now being about the abstract right of carrying slaves there, without the exercise of the right. No one asks for the exercise of the right, and cannot ask it in the face of the dogma which denies the power to grant it."

Canada.
A telegraphic despatch from Montreal, dated July 4th, says: "All is gloom here, in consequence of the news from England, and there can be no question that the blow has been finally given to British connexion as far as the Saxon population are concerned. They feel bitterly the insulting reply to Sir Allan McNab, and the general tone of the English press."

A later despatch, dated July 6th, says: "A meeting of the British Club, to form a branch of the British League, was to be held to-night. There was a large attendance, and much dispute was anticipated. The Ministers directed the troops to be on the alert, but up to the present time all was quiet."

MARRIED.
On Tuesday last, by the Rev. Samuel Swan, Mr. ROBERT T. GIVEN to Miss ELIZA JANE LAWSON, all of Centreville, Indiana county.

Accompanying the above notice, we received a large and most delicious Poundcake. As such tokens of remembrance of the printer has become rare of late, we assure the happy couple that we highly enjoyed their treat. May our young friends glide down the stream of life together in the enjoyment of more happiness than is usually allotted to mankind.
