

MOUNTAIN SENTINEL.

EBENSBURG, PA.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 2, 1849.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER,
JOHN A. GAMBLE,
Of Lycoming.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY NOMINATION
FOR ASSEMBLY,
Dr. Wm. A. SMITH,
Of Ebensburg.

FOR SHERIFF,
JOHN BRAWLEY,
Of Summerhill tp.

FOR CORONER,
P. S. MCLOSKEY,
Of Washington tp.

FOR TREASURER,
JOHN G. GIVEN,
Of Ebensburg.

FOR COMMISSIONER,
ANTHONY LAMBAUGH,
Of Jackson, tp.

FOR AUDITOR,
WASH. DOUGLASS,
Of Allegheny tp.

The Sentinel has much the largest circulation of any paper published in this county—and as an advertising sheet offers superior inducements to merchants and business men generally. Those desirous of making use of this medium for extending their business can do so by either sending their notices direct, or through the following agents:
John Crouse, Esq., Johnstown.
E. W. Carr, Evans' Buildings, Third st. Philadelphia.
Wm. A. Kinlor, Pittsburg.
George Pratt, 151, Nassau st., New York.

Thanksgiving.

Friday next is the day appointed by Gen. Taylor to be set apart as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, in view of the ravages made and being made by that awful scourge, the Cholera. We hope it will be duly and properly observed.

We are gratified to learn that they have succeeded in raising a volunteer company in our neighboring borough of Locton, under the provisions of the new Militia Law, and have already sent to Philadelphia for the necessary uniforms, &c. Success to them.
The Whig State Convention to nominate a candidate for Canal Commissioner will be held in Harrisburg on the 10th of August next. From the tone of the whig press generally one would judge that H. M. Fuller, of Luzerne county, will be the nominee. Well, it makes little difference who the whigs take up, as the democracy are determined to triumph in the approaching contest, and they will certainly do it. Will some one tell us who is the whig delegate from this county?

The Youngest Major General.

We are glad to learn that our esteemed friend Col. Brindle has been elected Major General of the Lycoming Division of Volunteers. The compliment was due to his qualifications and merits. The "Pennsylvanian" of the 28th ult. in noticing his election remarks that he is the "youngest Major General in the State." We apprehend that Major General HUMPHREYS, of this county, is the youngest Major General in this Commonwealth. He is some years the junior of Gen. Brindle, and earned the distinction he has attained by hard service in the tented fields of Mexico. He has proven himself a daring soldier, and will make an accomplished commander.

Some fellow, over the signature of "Corporal Scratch," occupies several columns of the last Johnstown News with a tirade of abuse against Dr. Smith, and the democracy of this county in general. He appears desirous of taking a "Jack Downing" part in the approaching contest, but as he has neither the wit nor the sarcasm of that distinguished writer, of course he signally fails. His article altogether is "stale, flat and unprofitable," and we would advise him to pay more attention to Blackstone, about whom he knows a little, and not attempt to enlighten the people of this county on matters concerning which he knows nothing. Being a young man and destitute of sufficient patriotism to go to Mexico himself, he should be the last man to grumble at others who did not go because their duties to their families required their attention at home.

We have been credibly informed that Robert Gageby, the Whig candidate for Sheriff, is electioneering on grounds which should never be occupied by a high minded man and a Christian. We give him fair warning that if we find that what we have heard in relation to his course is true, we shall expose him to the gaze of an indignant public.

The town of Danville is rapidly improving. A Methodist Church and upwards of a dozen brick buildings are now in course of erection.

John Fenlon and the "News."

The last Johnstown News has a long article urging the election of John Fenlon, because, forsooth, the editors of the Philadelphia Daily News declare that he is a "faithful whig," and therefore recommend him to the favorable consideration of the people of this county. There is certainly "something rotten" in the whig ranks when they are compelled to seek foreign aid to help them along in their electioneering campaign. We think that we, the people, are capable of judging for ourselves as to who is most capable of representing our interests, and that we know whom to trust in Harrisburg without any dictation from persons residing in Philadelphia. This the editors of the News will find out on the second Tuesday of October next, when the people of "Little Cambria" will pass judgment of cob nomination on Mr. Fenlon's course in the Legislature regardless of any recommendations he may receive from abroad.

The News concludes its article by calling our candidate the "Flunked-out Doctor," and promises in a short time to give a comparison between him and Mr. Fenlon relative to their claims for the office for which they are candidates. We can only account for the application of this epithet to Dr. Smith, by the editors of the News, to their superlative ignorance concerning the facts out of which they are endeavoring to create a little political capital. There is an old adage, that those "who live in glass houses should not throw stones," which is peculiarly applicable to the editors of the Johnstown News and the whig party of this county, whilst they are endeavoring to manufacture political capital out of the fact, as they say, that Dr. Smith backed out from going to Mexico along with the company from this place. They know, or ought to know, that John Fenlon put his name down on the roll as a volunteer to Mexico, from which solemn agreement he flunked out, when the time had arrived for the departure of the company. For proof of this fact, we have only to refer any person interested to the roll of the "Cambria Guards," now in the hands of Capt. C. H. Heyer of this place.

What will the Johnstown News say to this? We defy any person who has any regard for truth to contradict this charge. Perhaps the News will include this fact in its promised comparison between the two candidates.

But all this talk on the part of the whigs about electing John Fenlon, is mere gammon. They have not the power of electing any person to an office in this county, except through disaffection in our own ranks, and every body knows that John Fenlon would have been defeated last fall had it not been for the great aid he received from democratic votes. We are happy to be able to state that such disaffection no longer exists, and the democratic party of Little Cambria are heartily sick of permitting the whigs to reap the benefit of their private quarrels. It is the determination of every democrat in the county to come up to the work boldly and manfully, and give the whigs a Waterloo defeat.

Important!

As upon the next Legislature devolves the duty of districting the State for Senators and Representatives, and apportioning the representation among the several counties of the State, it is a matter of the highest importance to the democracy of this county and of the entire State, that men should be selected as Representatives upon whose democracy we can rely, and whose fidelity to their party and the interests of their constituents there cannot be a shadow of doubt. As we are almost surrounded by whig counties, it will most peculiarly be the interest of the people of Little Cambria to send a man to represent her in the Legislature upon whose devotion to democratic principles the people can place entire confidence, and whose character for sterling integrity is such that nothing will induce him to desert the cardinal principles laid down by his party. That Dr. Wm. A. Smith is just such a man, every person acquainted with him and his political course will be, in justice compelled to admit. No man dare accuse him of infidelity to his party, or the principles which he professes to entertain, and as to the qualifications for the office of Representative, they are known to be superior to any man in the county.

In relation to this subject, we take the following paragraphs from an able article in the last Harrisburg Keystone, and which so well expresses our ideas as to the duties which devolve upon democrats that we have adopted them as our own:

The people have no right to expect good legislation from bad legislators. When they are about to make a selection, they ought to inquire whether the persons named possess that degree of intelligence and known integrity, which would induce them to confide to their charge their own personal interests. Let this test be applied, and if the candidate is found deficient, he is certainly unworthy of the trust, and ought not to be selected. The people of every county are responsible to the people of the whole state, for the character, and competency, and fidelity of their representatives. One county has no right to expect that another will send a better representative than it does itself. Hence, the people of every county ought to reflect as to what kind of materials the legislature would be composed of, if it was made up entirely of such representatives as they send themselves.

When a man is named as a candidate for the legislature, the inquiry ought to be—Is he an honest man, who cannot be swayed from his duty by corrupt means? Is he a man of fair general intelligence, who cannot be made the dupe of the designing harpies that hang around the legislative lobbies? Is he a man of a judicious mind and sound judgment, such as would induce his neighbors to apply to him for advice and information, in matters of private business, and to whom they would entrust the adjustment of their own concerns? If he does not possess these qualifications, it strikes us that it would be the height of folly to select him to take care of the public interests.

It is most seriously to be hoped, that our democratic friends in the several counties, will make an effort to place their best men in nomination.—Sound, intelligent democrats, who can be relied on to carry out the principles and measures which they profess, under any and all circumstances.—Men who make professions of principles that they do not honestly entertain, merely to keep position in a party, are wholly unworthy of confidence, and any compromise with them for temporary purposes and conciliation, ultimately, never fail to injure and disgrace the party that elects them.

Anthony Lambaugh.

The Democratic County Convention were peculiarly fortunate in the selection of the ably named gentleman as the candidate for the office of County Commissioner. He is eminently qualified for the situation. His business habits, his integrity, his intelligence and sterling democracy, all point him out as the man best calculated to represent the citizens of the county in the office of Commissioner.

Mr. Lambaugh is among our oldest and most intelligent citizens. He is intimately acquainted with the different portions of the county, and this knowledge is indispensable to a County Commissioner. A man should go into that office prepared at the start to attend to business. The people do themselves great injustice when they select for this station a man of no experience or knowledge of the concerns of this county, who may have to serve two years under pay before he becomes qualified to discharge the duties of the office. In proportion to the increase of population in our county, and as her resources become more developed, the business of the County Commissioner advances in the same ratio. Intelligence, capacity and integrity are absolutely requisite to the members of the County Board.

In the person of Mr. Lambaugh the citizens of Cambria County have a candidate in whom the above requisites are happily blended. He deserves and will no doubt receive the united support of the party. The fact that Mr. Lambaugh's defeat will give the ascendancy in the County Board to the whigs, should of itself stimulate the democracy throughout all parts of the county, to the most vigorous efforts to place his election beyond all doubt.

"THE SECOND WASHINGTON."—A correspondent of the Boston Post, writing from Washington, says he had the curiosity to call on old Cincinnati, was introduced, and after explaining, to his surprise, that Nova Scotia was further down east than Boston—goes on to say—

"Well, general," I remarked to change the topic, I am happy to see you have recommended a national fast. Under the circumstances, it is very proper. "Fast—fast!" said the President—"No, I believe not—but what do you mean?" I explained. "Ah," said the President smiling, "that's some of Tom Ewing's work, I'll bet a negro. I never heard of it before, but the fact is, my secretaries bring so many papers for me to sign, that I can't tell what I do put my name to."

A Telegraphic despatch in the Pittsburg Post, dated New York, July 30th, states that the schooner D. C. Foster had just arrived with a report that a battle had been fought on the 8th of July, at Bealer, between the Mexicans and Indians, in which the former lost 500 men.
