

MOUNTAIN SENTINEL.

EBENSBURG, PA.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1849.

The Sentinel, has much the largest circulation of any paper published in this county—and as an advertising sheet offers superior inducements to merchants and business men generally. Those desirous of making use of this medium for extending their business can do so by either sending their notices direct, or through the following agents.

John Crouse, Esq., Johnstown.
E. W. Carr, Evans' Buildings, Third st. Philadelphia.

Mr. JACOB CARTER, of Philadelphia, will deliver a Temperance Lecture this (Thursday) evening, in the Brick Church.

Through the neglect of those who have control of the mails, we have not received our regular exchanges this morning, and consequently have no returns of the late election. From what we can gather from waybills and rumors, we feel confident that Gamble is elected by an overwhelming majority. We think we shall be able in our next, to give our readers the vote in nearly every county in the State.

Nine Cheers for Cambria!!!

Democracy Triumphant.

Although we have not received full returns from all the townships in the county, we have sufficient to satisfy us that the whole democratic ticket, with the exception perhaps, of our candidate for County Commissioner are elected. As we predicted, little Cambria has come up to the work nobly. We have given Gamble about THREE HUNDRED majority, and elected our member for the Legislature, our Sheriff, County Treasurer, Coroner and Auditor, and perhaps the County Commissioner. This is certainly a most glorious result, and conveys the gratifying intelligence that the democracy of Cambria are once more united.

The democracy of Cambria have done their share towards redeeming the State from the thralldom of Federalism, and if our sister counties have acted equally as well, Gamble is elected by an overwhelming majority.

In another column will be found the returns of this county as far as heard from at the time our paper went to press.

P. S. Since the above was in type, we have received sufficient returns to place the election of the whig candidate for County Commissioner beyond a doubt.

Blair County.

The whole independent ticket is elected in this county. In order to understand what this independent ticket means, it may be proper to state that a portion of the whig party, being dissatisfied with the nominations of their county convention, got out a full set of volunteer candidates, and with the aid of the democrats who made no nominations, have succeeded in electing them. Thus it will be seen that the organization of the great whig party in Blair is knocked into three cocked hats.—What do our friends of the Whig and Register, who made such tremendous exertions in favor of Higgins, think of it?

Fuller's majority is reported at about 400, showing a falling off of about 400. Huzzah for Blair!

Gen. Taylor, accompanied by the Secretary of the Navy, leaves Washington to-day on his proposed northern tour. He will stay in Baltimore over night, and leave the following morning for Philadelphia. He will remain in Philadelphia until nine o'clock on Monday morning when he will leave for New York.

Glorious News from Maryland.

On the 3d inst., the democrats of this State achieved a glorious triumph. The last delegation to Congress stood two democrats and four whigs. The democrats have gained one member which leaves it a tie. But few returns relative to members of the Legislature have been received, but it is supposed that the whigs will have a majority in both branches as usual.

Indiana County.

From the returns we have received from this strong hold of Whiggery, it seems that the Whig majority has been reduced to about 500, a falling off of about 300 from the majority of last year.

All our exchanges are filled with "rallies," and matters relative to the election. We are, consequently almost without news, or anything of interest to the general reader. By next week, however, the excitement will be over and everything will again return to its proper channel.

POSTSCRIPT.

The following is an extract from a letter from a gentleman in Hollidaysburg to his friend in this place, and can be relied on as correct:

Hollidaysburg Wednesday Night 9 o'clock, P. M.

DEAR SIR: I have just received a despatch from Harrisburg, in which I am informed that the democrats have elected a majority in both Houses, and that Gamble is elected—majority over 15,000; it may reach 20,000, or even exceed it.

Berks has beaten Lancaster, and Westmoreland has beaten Allegheny—majority in Westmoreland 1,800—Hugus and Graham elected by 1,000.

The entire volunteer ticket elected in Blair—Fuller's majority less than 400.—The whigs have carried Bedford by 140. In Philadelphia City, the Independent ticket elected. The Democratic City and County ticket elected. The Democratic members elected in the county. Whig majority in Huntingdon 500.

A serious riot occurred at the Polls in the City of Philadelphia: lives said to be lost.

This is all the news up to this time.

Your friend,

Georgia!

This state is all right. Towns, the democratic candidate for Governor is elected by a majority of about 3000. The democrats have a large majority in the lower House, and the Senate may be Whig. The democrats have a majority on joint ballot.

The O'Briens—Rebel and Knight.

The Tribune says, a short time since, Wm. Smith O'Brien, an Irish gentleman of rank and family, Thomas F. Meagher, of Waterford, Terrence Bellew M'Manus, Patrick O'Donohue, the courageous and honest John Mitchell, John Martin, and Kevin Izod O'Dogherty, were despatched to Van Dieman's Land, the Botany Bay of England, branded as traitors, and injured in their standing and prospects, by a government which oppresses their country with a degree of cruelty unknown in any other civilized community. They resisted unbearable oppressions, for the love they bore to Ireland, and from an anxious desire to obtain for it that justice which England steadily refuses. The Queen was asked by thousands to forgive them for that, but both parties in England decidedly opposed the extension of mercy to the injured.

At length Her Majesty took a trip with her court and nobles to Dublin, where it was moved in the Municipal Council, that now was the time to ask her to "pardon" the Irish patriots; and so it was: but the idea was exceedingly distasteful to her English courtiers, and the motion, therefore, was lost by a majority of one, and that one was Mr. Smith O'Brien's name-sake, the Dublin Mayor.

Mayor O'Brien seems to have known what he was about; he was at once admitted into the ancient order of British Barons, as Sir Timothy O'Brien, while the Mayors of Cork, Belfast, &c., were merely knighted. The Dublin Mayor prevented an honest expression of the wishes of Ireland's capital from being conveyed to the sovereign; and was rewarded with hereditary rank; the other Mayors rendered less service to party, and got a very inferior reward.

Cuba.

Havana papers to the 10th September have been received by the Baltimore Sun. After quoting from the Charleston Courier the answer made to the demand of Lieut. Totten at Round Island, the Gaeta de la Habana, in a few amusing comments, expresses itself to the effect, that the treatment by these (so called) buccaneers and pirates, was better than they deserved, as being out of the pale of all law; and threatens them, in case they attempt to carry out their criminal projects, with the dire vengeance of a nation whose flag has always been a terror to pirates. This nation is, of course, the Spaniards! "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"

From Minnesota.

We are in receipt of papers from St. Paul, Minnesota, to the 15th of September. The Legislature was in session. Mr. H. B. Sibley had sent to the Legislative Council a slab of marble to be forwarded to Washington, as the contribution of the new Territory, to the projected monument to Washington. Notice has been given of a bill to incorporate an Historical Society. The weather at St. Paul was said to be as pleasant as May. There had been no frost there, although in Galena, 900 miles southeast, there had been frost enough to kill vines, &c.

The Lancaster Bank is calling in its old Ten, Twenty, and Fifty dollar notes, and is replacing them by a new issue from a different plate. The new plate is one of the prettiest specimens of bank note engraving that we have ever seen.
