CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY

Glass Company Officials and Architect Pleaded Not Guilty Today

SUBSTITUTION CLAIM-ED AT NEW BEDFORD

In Connection with the Erection of the Classical High School Building—Glass for Marble and Warden to Receive $2000 Alleged.

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—William G. Soule, local manager, and Frank E. Soule, assistant manager of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company, and Herbert L. Warden, a Boston architect, pleaded not guilty to an indictment today charging conspiracy to defraud the city of New Bedford in connection with the erection of the classical high school building there.

The indictment also names two prominent Pittsburgh men, and alleges that the original plans for the building called for marble fittings in the toilet rooms, but that Warden changed the plans, substituting certain kinds of glass made in Pittsburgh.

It is further alleged that the Pittsburgh Glass company was to furnish the glass at a certain price, in accordance with an agreement with Warden, and that the latter was to receive $2,000.

District Attorney Pelletier claims to have in his possession a letter from the glass company setting forth these facts.

WELCOME TO ROOSEVELT.

Showered with Flowers and Hailed as Greatest Pacifier.

BUENOS AYRES, Nov. 13.—Enthusiastic friendship was shown toward the United States at the banquet given here last night in honor of Col. Roosevelt, and the distinguished visitor was warmly welcomed and hailed as the greatest pacifier. The national hymns of the United States and the Argentine republic were sung, and hundreds of women in the galleries showered Roosevelt with flowers following the close of his speech, in which he expressed the fervent hope that independence and peace would exist throughout the world.

TWENTY-NINE DROWNED.

HARRY ENO TRIED FOR ALLEGED ASSAULT

Charged with Attempt to Rape 11-Year-Old Girl in Bellows Falls Forenoon of August 26.

At county court today the case of the state against Harry Eno of Bellows Falls, charged with assault on a girl 11 years old with intent to rape, was tried. The evidence for the state had been presented when the court took the usual noon recess. The alleged offense took place between 11 and 12 o'clock in the forenoon on August 26, Eno, it is charged, persuaded the girl and her two little cousins, aged five and three years, to follow him into the woods back of the cemetery on Saxtons River street in Bellows Falls.

The complaining witness in the case was visiting an uncle in Bellows Falls at the time, her home being in Milford, N. H. Witnesses called by the state included two drivers of teams, who said they had seen the children following the man in the direction of the woods at the time of the alleged assault, but one of them was unable to identify the respondent as the man he had seen at the time with the children.

The child's mother told of the story told her by the child, as did the aunt at whose home they were visiting. The child was not injured according to the testimony of the child and others.

The defense, which was started at the resumption of the court session this afternoon, put in George Frisette, who boarded at the home of the uncle of the respondent and who was present at the time Eno returned to the house. He declared that Eno's clothing did not present the appearance alleged by the state at the time in question. The respondent was expected to go on the stand later.

State's Attorney A. V. D. Piper conducted the case for the state and Attorney O. B. Hughes, who had been assigned by the court, appeared for Eno.

BANK CASHIER DEAD.

L. B. Harris Connected with Lyndonville Institution Since 1884.

LYNDONVILLE, Nov. 13.—Luther B. Harris, cashier of the Lyndonville National bank, of which T. N. Vail is president, dropped dead while at the bank yesterday. Mr. Harris is survived by two sons, William and Theodore, both of Lyndonville. He had been prominent in town affairs and had given a number of drinking fountains distributed about the town. He was a veteran of the Civil war. Mr. Harris entered the employ of the bank at the time it was organized in 1884.

CLEVELAND RECOVERING.

Rain of Assistance in Restoring Normal Conditions in City.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 13.—The rain is materially aiding the city in resuming normal conditions after being snowbound. The river is rising, but it is not thought that the danger point will be reached.

SENTENCE NOT IMPOSED

Foster's Attorneys Unable to Be Present in County Court Today

POSTPONEMENT UNTIL TOMORROW

Expected that Motion Will Be Made to Set Aside Verdict as Being Against Weight of Evidence—Alienation Suit Will Be Tried.

Lou A. Foster of Halifax, who Tuesday afternoon was found guilty of manslaughter by the jury that had heard his case at county court at Newfane, will not hear the court's pronouncement of his sentence until tomorrow morning. It was expected that sentence would be imposed today but the inability of either of his principal attorneys, Judge E. W. Gibson or Judge W. R. Daley, to be present today, caused the unexpected delay. State's Attorney A. V. D. Piper said this noon that their unavoidable absence, due to prior engagements, necessitated a postponement until tomorrow.

It had been partially arranged that the court would be in Brattleboro tomorrow to hear some chancery matters, but the alienation suit of Carmen M. Stowell against Fern Green, alias Minnie I. Green, has been set for tomorrow and will be heard at Newfane, so without disarranging the plans of the court it will be possible to sentence Foster tomorrow.

Both of Foster's attorneys will be present, and it would not be surprising if decided objections were expressed by the respondent as to the verdict of the jury, based on the ground that the verdict was contrary to the weight of the evidence.

RAILROAD MAN KILLED BY TRAIN

Harry Holmes Was Foreman of Bridges and Buildings Between New London and South Londonderry.

News was received here this morning that Harry Holmes, of New London, Conn., foreman of bridges and buildings on the Central Vermont road between New London and South Londonderry, had been struck by a train and killed near New London last night. He is well known in this section by railroad men and many others.

VERMONT WOMAN TO GIVE TRAVELOGUE

Wife of Universalist Minister in Woodstock Coming Nov. 19—Travelled 1,700 Miles in Carriage.

Mrs. Mary Grace Canfield's travelogue, "Seventeen Hundred Miles with Horse and Carriage," will be given in the Universalist church next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Canfield is a very interesting speaker, and a barely nominal admission fee will be charged to cover expenses, the lecture not being given as a money-making scheme.

Mrs. Canfield, whose present home is in Woodstock, with only her mare, Grace, and dog, Cedric, for companions, made this trip from Minnesota to Ohio and from there with another woman drove to Vermont. Her discourse gives her observations made during her journey and a Vermont paper describing the lecture says: "Her experiences ranged from an emergency which led her sleeping on a humble bed of hay-stuffed sack in the home of a widow with seven young and unwashed faces, to a charming afternoon with girls of her own college fraternity at the University of Wisconsin and a commencement reunion at her own college in Ohio. She describes people, places and scenery of her long journey, and brings to her hearers the breezy atmosphere of the bustling and hospitable middle West."

Mrs. Canfield is the wife of the Universalist minister in Woodstock.

MATILDA BROWN TO SPEAK FRIDAY NIGHT

Boston Woman Who Assists Immigrants at Wharves Will Address Meeting in First Baptist Church.

On Friday evening the meeting at the Baptist church will be addressed by Miss Matilda Brown of Boston, who has for a long time been in attendance at the wharves to meet and assist immigrants on landing. A year ago the Swedes of our town attended in large numbers to hear Miss Brown, who is also a Scandinavian, and that service was followed by one in their own tongue. It is hoped that they will avail themselves of another opportunity to meet and hear Miss Brown. Her story is thrilling and depicts a grand world that appeals to all but the scoundrels who would like to make merchandise of the unlucky immigrant who, but for the aid of such as she, would many times be led astray.

NO FOOTBALL HERE THIS WEEK SATURDAY

Vermont Academy and Middlebury High Will Go Against Brattleboro High Here Next Week.

Because Bellows Falls cancelled the game booked for Saturday at Island park against Brattleboro high and because it has been impossible to arrange a game with any other school team, in spite of long continued efforts over the telephone, there will be no football game here Saturday.

Vermont Academy will be here either Tuesday or Wednesday of next week, instead of Thanksgiving afternoon, and Middlebury high is to be here next week Saturday, which will make the games next week instead of one this week Saturday and another a week later.

The unexpected cancellation of the Bellows Falls game has forced this change, especially as the Proctor high school team, which was booked for next week Saturday has also abandoned the sport after an unsuccessful season. It was hoped to have the Proctor team come to fill the Bellows Falls date, but efforts to this end were unsuccessful.

GORMANS COMING NOV. 20.

Comedy Company Headed by Bob Ott Engaged for Three Days.

No matter how good a musical comedy may be in itself, it will never succeed unless there is a good chorus. That is what Max Gorman, the comedy producer, has found after years of experience, so he always aims to have the chorus in his many musical comedies one of the strong features of the show.

Good looking girls, good looking both in face and figure, are what has provided. But they do more than look pretty. They are able to sing, act and dance. With these four qualifications it is easily seen that a chorus in a German production possesses all the attributes needed.

Mr. Gorman has many companies on the road, but in none of them is the chorus any better than the company headed by Bob Ott, which will appear at the Auditorium for three nights and daily matinees, beginning Thursday, November 20. The young women of this chorus are the backbone of it and the most pleasing lassies seen here in a long time. In addition to the chorus, there are to be found in the company the comedians Bob Ott and the cleverest comedians on the stage, Joe Sullivan, Carl Cobey, Rose Reeves, Lillian Fernoye, Pearl Danforth and Carrie Engel, every one selected for his or her fitness to portray the role to which he or she has been assigned.

THE WEATHER.

Rainy Tonight, Unsettled Conditions Tomorrow Probably.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The weather forecast: Rain tonight; warmer except in the eastern portions of Maine; Friday unsettled; moderate south and southwest winds.

ULTIMATUM SENT HUERTA

Mexican President Told That He Must Not Recognize New Congress

NO MORE PARLEYING BY UNITED STATES

Gen. Huerta Has Made No Reply—Mr. Lind, Special Envoy, Prepared to Leave City of Mexico for Vera Cruz Last Night.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 13.—Gen. Victoriano Huerta tacitly refused last night to accede to the demands of the United States expressed in an ultimatum sent to him by President Wilson's personal representative, John Lind. Gen. Huerta was notified early in the day that unless he returned an answer by 6 o'clock last evening to the effect that he would prevent the newly-elected Congress from convening and, furthermore, make this action known to the members of the diplomatic corps by midnight, the United States would have no further parleying with the Mexican government.

Mr. Lind waited until 6 o'clock and received no answer. He then made arrangements for his departure on the train leaving for Vera Cruz at 8 o'clock. It was announced, however, that Gen. Huerta had no chance more—that if he took the action demanded by midnight the fact that he failed to reply to Mr. Lind within the time specified would be overlooked. Mr. Lind could see no good reason to suppose that Huerta intended to accede.

Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the charge, was the messenger who delivered the ultimatum. He was unable to get into personal touch with Gen. Huerta, but left the message at the president's office.

It was intimated last night at the palace that Gen. Huerta had not received the note in time to give it full consideration. This, however, did not appear to Mr. Lind a valid excuse for procrastination. The prevention of the convening of Congress has been one of the essential points in the negotiations conducted by Mr. Lind for two seasons, first, it was believed that the new Congress would lose no time in passing measures having to do with the oil concessions, and, second, because the convening of Congress would give an air of legality to Huerta's government.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 13.—An official notification was published here today under yesterday's date, ordering the Mexican senators and deputies elected Oct. 26, to assemble Saturday afternoon next to effect an organization.

John Lind, who reached Vera Cruz this morning, had received no reply from Huerta in answer to the demand of the United States that he dissolve the next Congress.

It is assumed here by many familiar with the situation that the logical course to be pursued by the United States will be to recall Nelson O'Shaughnessy today unless Huerta frankly yields to the demands. It was stated late last night that Huerta had not personally received the communication and that the minister of finance had been unable to find him, either at the national palace, his home or places where he was accustomed to go.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 13.—Up to an early hour this morning no indications had been received from Provisional President Huerta that he intended to accede to the demands made of him by the United States government in regard to preventing the convening of the newly elected Congress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The proposals made to the Constitutionalists through William Bayard Hale and the final demand that the Mexican Congress be dissolved because of the question of legality, transmitted through John Lind, brought the Mexican situation forward another step today. The rejection by Gen. Huerta, who had not replied this morning, might involve the abrupt termination of all relations with him, including the possible withdrawal of the American embassy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—President Wilson prepared a formal statement on the Mexican situation with the purpose of issuing it today, but just before noon Secretary Tamm announced that it would be withheld for the present. Tamm made the announcement that Secretary of State Bryan had received long despatches from William Bayard Hale at Nogales and from Charge O'Shaughnessy at Mexico City, but whether the contents had to do with the sudden change was not announced.

CAPTURE OF TUXPAM.

Wireless Indicates that Rebels Will Get the City.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Nov. 13.—The capture of the Mexican city of Tuxpam under the command of General Gonzalo Aguirre is predicted in a wireless from the United States battleship Louisiana at Tuxpam, which was picked up by the naval wireless station here today. The message said the federal troops were about to abandon the city, and that several American women and children had taken refuge on the Louisiana.

100 SAILORS LOST LIVES

Six More Ships Believed to Be at Bottom of Lake Huron

TWENTY-NINE BODIES TOSSED UPON SHORE

Great Fog Banks Now Over the Lake and It is Difficult to Determine Definitely the Extent of the Disaster—Big Derelict Unidentified.

PORT HURON, Mich., Nov. 13.—Reports from more of the missing vessels in the recent storm on Lake Huron came in today, but the great fog banks settled down over the lake, and the secret of the number of vessels involved and their identities was far from being determined. The steamer John J. McGean, the loss of which was confirmed today, makes six ships which are thought to be at the bottom of the lake, and that a hundred or more sailors lost their lives seems almost certain. Twenty-nine bodies have already been tossed upon the Canadian shore. Life belts, boats and the water soaked cargo indicated that the steamers Regina, Charles S. Price, Wexford and James Caruthers were sunk, while an overturned derelict is still unidentified.

ACCEPTS CALL TO EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rev. Nelson Kellogg of Poulney Will Take Up Duties Here the Second Sunday in December.

Rev. Nelson Kellogg of Poulney has accepted the call tendered him to become rector of St. Michael's Episcopal church, and will begin his duties here on the second Sunday in December, which is December 14.

Rev. Mr. Kellogg came to Brattleboro Nov. 4 and conferred with the vestry and conducted prayer service that evening in the church, meeting many of the congregation. Since then he has been considering the call and his reply has just been received.

He is 32 years of age, unmarried, and a graduate of the New York Theological seminary. For a time after his graduation he was curate at St. Clement's church in Philadelphia and for the last five years has been pastor of St. John's church at Poulney. The local parish is highly pleased that he decided to accept the call.

CLEARED SCHOOLS IN RECORD TIME

Fire Drill Came as Surprise to Pupils—High School Building Emptied in Minute and a Half.

Some remarkably quick time was made in clearing the high school building and the Canal street school building this forenoon in response to a call for fire drill. In both cases the call came without warning to the pupils.

In the high school building, where there were about 500 pupils, including both the high school and the grades, there were pupils on all three floors and a sloyd class in the basement, but the building was cleared in a minute and a half, the sloyd class leaving through the basement door and the others going out through the front and rear doors on the first floor.

There are about 200 pupils in the Canal street building, on two floors, and while there are three exits the enrollment includes children who are smaller and naturally cannot get out of the building as quickly as those in the high school building. Yet the Canal street building was cleared in 50 seconds.

In both instances record time was made, although the pupils were not allowed to run, which is a testimonial to the efficiency of the drill.

GERMANS WARNED.
