

OF GREAT USE IN BREAKING UP COLDS

Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil is a Thing Long Desired.

Every one knows the value of castor oil in breaking up fall and winter colds, but most people have found it too hard to take.

Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil does away with this only objection. It is pure, simple castor oil without taste or odor.

In making castor oil tasteless, Spencer Kellogg & Sons of Buffalo have discovered a secret that had evaded chemists for 3000 years.

Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil works better than the old evil-tasting, evil-smelling kind. It operates pleasantly, without griping, and does not upset the stomach. Children take it easily.

Do not confuse Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil with prepared, mixed or flavored castor oils. It is the only true, pure, tasteless kind.

Made only by Spencer Kellogg & Sons, Inc., Buffalo, N. Y., refiners of vegetable oils.

WOMAN SUFFERED TEN YEARS From Nervousness Caused by Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Auburn, N. Y. "I suffered from nervousness for ten years, and had such organic pains that sometimes I would lie in bed four days at a time, could not eat or sleep and did not want anyone to talk to me or bother me at all. Sometimes I would suffer for seven hours at a time. Different doctors did the best they could for me until four months ago I began giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and now I am in good health."—Mrs. WILLIAM H. GILL, 11 Pleasant Street, Auburn, New York.

"Doctor's Daughter Took It." St. Cloud, Minn.—"I was so run down by overwork and worry that I could not stand it to have my children talk aloud or walk heavy on the floor. One of my friends said, 'Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I know a doctor's daughter here in town who takes it and she would not take it if it were not good.'"

"I sent for the Compound at once and kept on taking it until I was all right."—Mrs. BERTHA M. QUICKSTADT, 727 5th Avenue, S., St. Cloud, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be relied upon as the most efficient remedy for female ills. Why don't you try it?

NEWFANE.

Fair Netted About $20. The annual fair by the Christian Endeavor society Friday evening in the church parlors was very successful, netting about $20. Much credit is due Miss Mamie L. Platt and Miss Fray Ballou, the committee in charge, who were ably assisted by other members. The decorations exceeded all previous attempts. The Big Chinee, in costume made especially for the occasion, was the great attraction. Articles from his "landree" were sold by ticket at moderate prices, the demand being so great that not one was left over.

The booth of fancy articles was in charge of Miss Fray Ballou and consisted of many pretty articles made and contributed by members of the society. Miss Platt presided at the booth where a large collection of aprons and useful articles were sold, and Miss Arline Gray sold the home-made candy. In the dining room refreshments of cake, ice-cream, sherbet, etc., were served by the committee in charge.

Call Extended to Rev. T. C. Craig. Rev. T. C. Craig of Wethersfield, Conn., who preached here Sunday as a candidate, was very pleasing to all. A call has been extended him to accept the pastorate of the Congregational church.

Miss Olive Eager is assisting in the Moore free library. L. P. Martin and family of Londonderry visited a few days recently at the Spring farm in Brookline.

The stores in our village are prettily trimmed for the holiday trade and have a good assortment of useful and fancy articles.

Mrs. Lucy Hosley, who visited a few days as a guest of Mrs. Laura E. Johnson last week, returned to the Spring farm in Brookline Friday.

The dramatic entertainment and dance which had been arranged by the Odd Fellows for Jan. 2 has been postponed on account of the epidemic of whooping cough.

On account of so many cases of whooping cough in town the Christmas tree and the usual public celebration by the Sunday school will be given up this year, for the first time.

Mrs. John Whittaker and daughter, Florence, left Saturday to visit Mrs. Whittaker's aunt, Mrs. Nowlan, in Amherst, leaving there Wednesday to visit Mrs. Rugg of Ware, who was a summer guest at Grand View farm last summer. Mrs. Whittaker and daughter expect to return home the first of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Deane, who have been visiting his brother, Robert Deane, and relatives in Winhall, left the latter part of last week for their home in Berlin, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deane of West Townshend also were visitors in the home of his cousin, Robert Deane, one day last week.

Herman L. Eddy has returned from Londonderry and is settled in his home in this village. Mr. Eddy's mother, Mrs. Arvilla Eddy, came with him and will make this her home. Little Mildred, who formerly attended school here, will not enter until the quarantine for whooping cough has been lifted.

Will Organize Y. M. C. A. Group. A number of young men met in the parlors of the Northfield hotel Saturday evening in the interests of organizing a Y. M. C. A. group. They elected preliminary committees on membership, nominations, meeting place and program. A. P. Pitt will be the leader. Another meeting will be held at the same place this week Saturday evening, when officers will be elected.

At the session of Congregational Sunday school committees were chosen to have charge of the arrangements for the Christmas festival of the church.

The Unitarian society will hold its Christmas festivities Wednesday evening, Dec. 24. There will be exercises by the children of the Sunday school, and a tree with gifts for all.

Dr. G. A. Johnstone-Ross of Montreal was a guest of W. R. Moody Saturday and Sunday. On Sunday morning he preached in the Congregational church on "The Variety of the Grace of God." In the evening the congregation was invited to Sage chapel to the Christmas concert given by the Estey chorus and Vesper choir. Many ancient carols and hymns were beautifully rendered before an audience that filled the chapel. Dr. Johnstone-Ross gave an address on Christmas and the Christ. The beautiful harmony of organ, piano and violin was very impressive. W. R. Moody presided and Rev. Mr. Smith assisted in the service.
