Thank Offering Service.

The Woman's missionary auxiliary of the Congregational church met Friday in the church hall. A thank offering service was used and the offering taken, which amounted to $6.75. A solo, God Is Working His Purpose Out, was sung by Mrs. Beatrice Bemis, and $1 was voted to the A. M. A. as a birthday gift for its medical work in Porto Rico.

As an opening to the parts which followed the president gave the names of the four missionaries supported by the Vermont Branch, and of the two partly by the Christian Endeavor societies and Sunday schools of Vermont. Then the introductions followed.

Miss Carolyn Sewell of Tien Tsin, China, was represented by Mrs. Ruth Robinson. She called herself the children's missionary as, she said, every cent of her support was given by the children. She showed her to be a very busy life, also a happy one.

Mrs. Florence Allen impersonated Miss Stella Cook of Foochow, China, and was introduced as the newest missionary. She gave Shoreham (Vt.) as her birthplace, and having graduated from Middlebury college she taught four years. Then in November, 1914, she sailed for China to be in the Foochow girls' college. She said she was hard at work learning the language, spending many hours each day in this way, and having many plans to help the girls when she could be able to speak more freely. In closing she asked Mrs. Harrington, who was dressed in Chinese costume, to sing a Chinese hymn.

Miss Lila Kingsbury was next introduced as Miss Ellen, Catlin, of Harpoot, Turkey, and she told it an interesting way of how she came to be a missionary, how she would not choose her field, only asked to be sent where she was most needed. She spoke touchingly of some of her girls who have suffered so terribly in the past year.

Miss Edith Curtis of Nungta, Japan, was represented by Miss Mary Robinson, who told of the people of Japan, their homes, customs and dress, illustrating by a finely drawn chart. She told of their religion and the needs of something better, and finally of herself, how her parents were missionaries, and how naturally she became one. Her work is evangelistic and she finds for this no lack of opportunities.

Dr. Harriet E. Parker of Madura, India, missionary of the Christian Endeavor societies, was the last to be presented in the person of Mrs. A. E. Hartwell, who spoke of her hospital and dispensary, with its hundreds of operations and thousands of treatments, its Christian teaching and of the visits made in the outlying districts 100 miles in extent. She said for recreation she had her orphan children, kept in a little native house called the "birds' nest." At this point Mrs. Cooley, as a native helper, came in with little Marguerite and Eleanor Allen and Everett Hartwell in suitable address to represent the orphans which Dr. Parker called her birds.

Thanks were given to all who helped to make this such a unique and interesting meeting.

The annual meeting was then held. The secretary, Mrs. Luella Stark, reported 10 meetings held, with an average attendance of 27. Mrs. Livermore, the treasurer, showed the receipts of the treasury to be $12.92 and paid on appointments and special gifts $34.50.

The officers chosen were: Pres., Mrs. Lucy Kellogg; vice pres., Mrs. Florence Hartwell; sec., Mrs. Luella Stark; treas., Mrs. Clara Hamilton; director of teas., Mrs. Jennie Ballard. The tea, which was the closing feature, took the form of sugar on snow and was served by Mrs. Kellogg, assisted by Miss Edna Barnap.

BEWITCHING HAIR FOR EVERY WOMAN

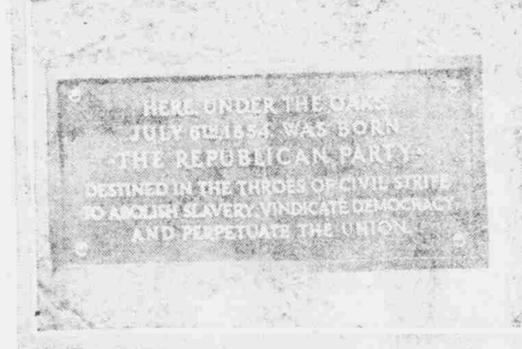

Hair That Radiates Healthfulness Always Compels Admiration.

Don't neglect your hair, girls; you'll be sorry later on if you do. Never mind about the things you have tried; never mind what people say.

Just remember this: Parisian Sage will make harsh, thin or faded hair soft, glossy and luxuriant. It quickly rid's the scalp of dandruff, stops falling hair and scalp itch, and imparts that refreshing and comfortable feeling or money returned.

It's a delicately perfumed liquid free from oiliness and as one woman remarked, "Parisian Sage puts the radiance of sunshine into my dull looking hair and makes it beautiful and lustrous." Wilfred F. Root sells lots of it and always guarantees it.
