Sporting Notes.
Columbia and the University of Pennsylvania went 15 innings yesterday to a 2-to-2 tie.
The Cleveland team won its third straight game from Detroit, Morton being the chief engineer.
Shore of the Red Sox was hit for 10 hits with a total of 18 bases which is substantial clouting of the ball.
The winning streak of the Cubs was broken yesterday by Doak, who allowed the Chicago team only two singles.
Mahan of Harvard had little difficulty in defeating Georgetown yesterday at Cambridge, 6 to 1. He allowed five hits.
Tesreau and Doyle were the heroes of New York's first home victory and the second of the season. Tesreau held Brooklyn to three hits and Doyle drove in both of the Giants' runs.
"Jack" Zeller, promoter of leagues, was in Greenfield, Mass., last evening and the impression he made on baseball enthusiasts there was so strong that there is now little doubt that Greenfield will join the league of which the other places are North Adams, Pittsfield, Northampton, Fitchburg and Leominster. A meeting of those interested in the league is to be held in Greenfield Monday.
Mountain climbing as a sport is one to which women today are devoting much attention.
Great Britain alone takes 500,000 tons of fish from the North Sea—22 pounds per capita.

WEST BRATTLEBORO

Mrs. Almira Winchester.
Mrs. Almira Winchester died April 30 in Lakeport, N. H., at the home of her son, H. H. Winchester. She was born July 13, 1828, and was married to Charles Winchester in 1848. She came at that time to his home in the west part of Brattleboro, which had since been her home, although for several years she spent the winter of each year with her son in Lakeport and the rest of the year at home with her son, D. A. Winchester, until the death of his wife several years ago. After that she remained with him most of the time until a serious illness about ten and a half years ago, which necessitated her going to her son's home in Lakeport to be cared for.
Her husband died many years ago. They had four children. The oldest, Charles, died at the age of about two, and the third, Frank, when about two. She was a faithful wife and mother, doing for the family all that love could prompt, also a kind and helpful neighbor, performing many acts of kindness whenever there was need to do so. Being very ambitious, she accomplished much in her long life.
The funeral will take place today at West Brattleboro, where her husband and two sons are buried.

Elmer Johnson has moved from E. Prouty's to the home of his aunt, Mrs. V. O. Johnson, on Western avenue.
H. F. Weatherhead will have an auction sale of some household goods and stock tomorrow, on his premises on Western avenue.
News has been received from Frank Prefontaine, who is in the Springfield city hospital to receive medical treatment, that he is comfortable.
H. E. Brown and family have moved from Newfield to Arthur Miller's farm. Mr. and Mrs. Miller and children are now living in their new home in Vernon.
The monthly missionary meeting of the Woman's association of the Congregational church will be held with Mrs. Luman Clark Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Subject, Korea and Japan.
Miss Myrtle Sargent will give up her tenement in L. E. Bond's house early in June and will furnish two rooms in the home of Mrs. Hannah Miner, where she will make her home.
The Baptist society will hold a rubber social Friday evening in the chapel. Admission will be by old rubbers. Refreshments will be served and a good time is expected. Everybody is invited to be present.
Miss Eva Reed was discharged yesterday from the Melrose hospital, where she had been a few weeks, and went to the home of Miss Amy Hines on Canal street, where she is employed as a housekeeper. Mrs. Charles Washer, who had been in the hospital following an operation for appendicitis, returned yesterday to her home on Orchard street.
