One good look at this Motor Coat made us buy it

When the makers of Wooltex first showed us this coat we bought it.

We saw in it the distinctive and exclusive Wooltex style lines — recognized the influence of the best fashion tendencies in its design, and felt at once that some of our best trade would be glad we secured it for them.

The material is a three-tone mixture of heavy, fine, close sheered zibeline or Mountain Breeze Cloth.

As to the quality, that is all taken care of by the Wooltex guarantee of completely satisfactory wear.

It surprised us when we were told we could get the coat to sell to you at
