J. E. MANN

BRATTLEBORO LOCAL.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church will hold its regular monthly business meeting in the league room Wednesday night. A social hour will follow.

The J. E. Hall class of the Baptist Bible school will hold a business meeting and social at the home of Mrs. Enos White, 4 Forest street, tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

As Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Booth and baby of Wallbridge, N. H., were driving near Westminster Station Saturday afternoon about 5 o'clock a New York automobile of the racing type passed them, frightening their horse, which threw them out on the ground. All were shaken up and bruised, and a bunch was raised on Mr. Booth's head. The car came towards Brattleboro.

The annual meeting of the Vermont Christian Endeavor union will be held in Bethany church, Montpelier, beginning to-night and closing Wednesday night. Miss Florence M. Hemenway-Wells and Miss Emily R. Clapp left this afternoon to represent the Centre Congregational society. D. W. Felch is the representative from the First Baptist society. Miss Wells will have a part in the program tomorrow forenoon in the missionary conference, showing how to conduct a mission study class.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Johnson were given a surprise party Saturday evening in their home, 7 Cottage street, by a few relatives and invited guests, the occasion being the 25th anniversary of their marriage. Their son, Harold Johnson, who is engaged in agricultural work, and daughter, Miss Helen Johnson, who teaches school in Guilford, were present. Mr. Johnson's Sunday school class, the Mary Giddis class of the Methodist church, sent a beautiful bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. They received several gifts from other friends. Refreshments were served.

FOR JUSTICES OF PEACE.

Joint Ticket Named by Republicans and Democrats.

In the joint caucus of the Republicans and Democrats for the purpose of nominating candidates for justice of the peace only two changes were made. C. M. Miller was nominated to take the place of the late Kittredge Haskins on the Republican ticket and Daniel E. Riley was nominated by the Democrats to succeed Charles F. Mann, who had been appointed by the Governor to succeed M. J. Moran when the latter became postmaster.

The nominees of the Republicans are: Robert C. Bacon, William R. Daley, J. G. Estey, C. S. Hopkins, F. B. Pier, C. M. Miller, A. F. Schwenk, F. D. E. Stowe, E. J. Waterman and Harold E. Whitney.

Following are the Democratic nominees: C. A. Boyden, Edgar H. Davenport, Harry B. Haus, Daniel F. Riley and W. A. Shumway.

CHANCEY S. FARR DEAD.

Springfield, Mass., Resident Was West Chesterfield Native.

Chancey Snow Farr, 70, died in his home in Springfield, Mass., early Sunday morning, after an illness of three months. Mr. Farr was born Oct. 30, 1845, in West Chesterfield, N. H., and had been a resident of Springfield 25 years, going there from Hinsdale, N. H. He had been employed by the Wason Mfg. Co. ever since. He was a lifelong Universalist and a member of St. Paul's church, a charter member of Sheridan post, G. A. R., of Hinsdale, and recently joined E. K. Wilcox post of Springfield as his old post had disbanded on account of its few surviving members.

He was mustered into Company F, 14th New Hampshire regiment, Dec. 29, 1863, and was taken prisoner at the battle of Cedar Creek and confined in Salisbury (N. C.) prison nearly five months.

He was twice married, first in 1872 to Elizabeth H. Woodbury of Salem, N. H., and second in 1888 to Evelyn A. Holman of Spofford, N. H., who survives. Besides his wife he leaves one son, Herman G. Farr, by his first marriage; two grandchildren, Elizabeth W. and Bertha G. Farr, and three sisters and one brother, Olin R. Farr of West Chesterfield.

Funeral services will be held in the home tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The burial will take place in West Chesterfield, N. H., after the arrival of the train due in Brattleboro at 11:15. Golden Rule lodge, F. and A. M., of Hinsdale, of which Mr. Farr was a past master, will conduct the burial services.

Have Kept Racial Blood Pure.

The San Blas Indians, who occupy the north coast of the Republic of Panama from a point a few miles west of the Gulf of San Blas to Cape Tiburon, on the Colombian frontier, are well known to dwellers in the Canal Zone, which they frequently visit, but are by no means inclined to receive visits in return. They have retained their independence, preserved their territory from foreign exploitation, and kept their blood and racial characteristics pure. J. G. Steese, of the American Geographical Society, says that they have kept up the custom of requiring the traders who visit their coast to return to their ships at sundown.

Quality First

A FOOL THERE WAS

A man makes a great big mistake when he thinks he can buy an automobile with his face. When a man walks in and asks me the price of a car I tell him, and that isn't all, I SELL HIM. But when he comes in and asks me how much OFF he can get on the car, I let the other fellow sell him. The only time I cut prices is in my sleep, and then it's some nightmare.

You, who got that agent's discount, what have you saved? A few dollars at the start. But how much REAL FREE SERVICE have you received from him? How many cars have you passed on the bills? How does she ride? Is the finish all dull, or has it the same fresh lustre it had the day it was delivered to you?

With all said and done, who's the fool? The man who sold the car and then forgot all about the man and the PRICE, or the man that received the cut in price?

One of my customers went to Wilmington yesterday, on high gear, with five people in the car. This morning he was proudly telling the story to every man he chanced to meet. Each person he told said "Of course you can, you drive a CHALMERS."

Last December when a man saw a car SLIDING up South Main street ten miles an hour, he stopped and watched it pass. He wondered which it was—a Steamer or an Electric. This winter he knows. IT IS A CHALMERS 3400 R. P. M., and
