

Northfield.

PEOPLE in this town don't seem to appreciate the convenience of the new postal notes, only three being sold last week. FRANK HODGSON, who has been with H. E. Clayton at Montpelier, is now in the employ of G. H. Richmond as traveling salesman. SUBSCRIPTIONS to the fund for repairing the Center church and for the purchase of a new organ have been continuing to be interesting and well attended. SETH JONES is at Burlington this week to drive "Jennie D." and "Surprise," the former being entered in the thirty-five and the latter in the forty-five mile race. JAMES CARPENTER'S health is very much improved. He spent a few days in Burlington recently and has driven to Montpelier several times. He is now able to attend to business as usual. E. F. DERRING went to Boston next week to enter the employ of Edward Chapin, produce dealer. His many friends will regret his departure and wish him success in his new position. A TEAM belonging to Charles Adams ran into a post in front of Mr. Crane's house on Main street last Saturday and took the rim off from a forward wheel of the wagon, breaking every spoke. ELLIOT SMITH, Esq., of New York, who is stopping at Dr. Nichols', got a very bad sprain in one ankle last Wednesday by falling down stairs. It is feared he may be laid by some time in consequence. FROM the amiable editorial of the last Christian Messenger it appears that either the editor of that paper, the editor of the News or the correspondent of THE WATCHMAN is guilty of falsehood. We leave it for people to draw their own conclusions. H. B. THAYER came from Chicago last week to be present at his sister's wedding. He left Friday for New York where he takes the position of manager of the New York office of the Western Electric company, with which he has been connected at Chicago. THE militia went to the muster at St. Johnsbury last week, starting on Hall's train Tuesday morning and going by Essex and Cambridge Junctions. The camping arrangements were good. The pleasant time with the exception of one young fellow, who, not liking the nightly disturbance of his slumbers at camp, walked a mile and a half to a hotel in the village and there had to sleep on a "shaker" bed. It is feared he may be laid by some time in consequence. THE following account of the farmers' festival at the camp ground August 29th misrepresents and was received too late for publication last week. The attendance was good, from four to five hundred. The estimated number of the solid yeomanry of central Vermont, with their wives and daughters. The meeting was presided over by Joseph Gold, master of Pomfret grange. The address was given by Charles D. Averill, Esq., consisting of several essays by D. T. Averill, Esq., Mrs. Charles Dewey, and recitations by Mrs. Bacon of Williamstown. Music under the charge of Charles Dewey of Berlin; literary exercises were varied, and the address was given by D. T. Averill, Esq., Mrs. Charles Dewey, and recitations by Mrs. Bacon of Williamstown and Mrs. Flint of Brookfield; address by Colonel Franklin, master of state grange. His estimate of the Vermont yeomanry. Brief remarks were made by others. THE case of Northfield Savings Bank vs. Charles L. Ellis and Jonas G. Sanders came before D. T. Averill, Esq., August 31st, and Mr. Ellis went to the bank to borrow $25, and a note for that amount was given, which he signed and took away for the purpose of getting other names. When Mr. Ellis came back with the note, the name of Mr. Sanders had been written below his and with red ink. Supposing all to be right, the bank took the note and advanced the money. As Mr. Ellis could not pay, Mr. Sanders was called on to do so, but declined on the ground that he never signed a note with red ink, and denied the signature, but admitted signing a note for $25 with Ellis in favor of the bank, but signed in pencil. As he failed to appear to deny the signature, or furnish any proof regarding the same, the justice could not do otherwise than decide for the plaintiff. An appeal was taken to the county court. George M. Fisk for plaintiff, James N. Johnson and Zed S. Stanton for defendants. THE double "social event of the season" came off, as announced, last Wednesday evening. Both churches were well represented, and were filled at an early hour. The delay at the Congregational church permitted many to witness both ceremonies. At the Episcopal church the bridal party arrived at exactly eight o'clock and the ceremony was directly to the residence on Elm street where a quiet reception was given to the relatives and a few intimate friends of the family. The wedding presents were numerous and valuable, there being quite a number of solid silver. Mr. and Mrs. Rumbaugh enter upon their wedded life with pleasant prospects and the best wishes of a wide circle of friends. It was nearly half-past eight when the wedding party entered the Congregational church. After the ceremony a reception was given at the residence of Joseph Denny, Esq., on State avenue, which was attended by some two hundred people. Among many beautiful presents the most noticeable was an elegant gold watch presented to the bride by the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Cutting left for Saratoga on the morning express Thursday. They will return to Northfield before their home in Michigan. It is rumored that another wedding is soon to occur at the Episcopal church. MISS CLARA WEBB came East last week and is now visiting just across the Lake. She will come to this town next month. B. F. Arnold, chief clerk of the State, will be called to act as superintendent of schools the coming year. He will stop at Chicago on his way and will visit the schools in St. Louis before going to Cairo. Miss Howe has gone to Barre as a teacher in the high school. Mr. and Mrs. Watkins left Wednesday and will visit with friends in Lyndon and vicinity. Miss Truxton is visiting friends in town. Miss Duane of the Montpelier seminary, was at home over Sunday. She and Dr. Nichols is visiting at a chancery hearing at Watfield Friday and Saturday. RETURNED—Mrs. J. L. Moseley, from Massachusetts, Helen McCleary, from Montreal, Miss Badger from a six weeks' visit at Chicago, C. M. Davis from the West, East Randolph; Rev. W. S. Brown from South Royalton, where he has been at work on the railroad bridge. WATERBURY.—Mr. C. C. Davis, the principal of the school, was absent on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday night by the serious illness of his child. School in the high department was suspended, but Mr. Davis was enabled to return Tuesday and resume his duties. THERE was snow on the Hoag-banks Monday morning. MISS JULIA HENRY has begun a year's attendance at the Westboro, Mass. Normal school. Mrs. Henry, we are informed, will spend the winter with her brother, Mr. Charles Boyce, in Springfield, Mass. A RECEPTION of Company B Tenth Vermont Volunteers, and their families, was given at Waterbury, Vermont, in the afternoon and evening of October 19th next. As full an attendance as possible is desired. WATERBURY CENTER.—The school at the seminary has about one hundred and fifteen students now, and still they come. THE Free Will Baptists held their yearly meeting with the church at this place, commencing Thursday afternoon last, and closing Sunday evening. The attendance was good, delegates from all parts of Vermont were present, and the greatest harmony and good feeling prevailed throughout. The conference sermon was preached Thursday evening by Rev. A. P. Tracy of Barre, and was an able discourse. Sermons were also preached during the session by Rev. S. S. Nickerson from the New Hampshire yearly meeting; Rev. E. N. Hambley, financial agent for the mission societies; Rev. P. Parker, East Randolph; Rev. E. Owen, Lyndon Center; Rev. J. S. Staples, South Strafford; Rev. F. L. Wiley, Sutton; Rev. R. L. Preston of North Tunbridge, and all were exhorters. MISS WILLIAM M. BARNES and her daughter, Mrs. S. F. Stearns, have gone to northern New York to visit friends there and expect to be absent for about four weeks. Our merchant, G. A. Stockwell, returned last Saturday night from an extended trip West. WATSFIELD.—There was no preaching at the Methodist church last Sunday, as the pastor, Rev. C. P. Tappin, is away on short vacation. CLEMENS, son of D. O. Joslin, who was severely injured by falling from a cherry tree some time ago, has relapsed into a deranged state of mind. THE copartnership heretofore existing between Estor Brothers and the state fair, Melville goes to Hydepark, and Orville will continue in the hardware business in this place. NEXT week will be fall week and a great turnout is expected. This will be a fair of the privilege of showing and seeing the good things which farmers and mechanics can do and raise. Some fast trotting is expected. MIDDLETOWN.—At a meeting held September 4th to consider the subject of reorganizing the church, L. R. Wells was elected chairman, C. C. Graves secretary and a committee of three, consisting of Sylvanus Daniels, H. A. Sawyer and Stephen Herrick, was chosen to consult with the pew-holders, look up the records of the society, etc., and report to a meeting to be called at the discretion of the conference. EDWIN CHEEVER of the New England Farmer-Exchange has returned from the state fair, which L. M. Cameron wears these days, who would remark that it is a girl and weighs nine pounds. GAYVILLE.—The village school commenced last Monday. Addie Smith teaches the primary and Charlotte Tarbell the higher department. MRS. MARY C. PACKARD, occupant of the farm on the north side of the G. A. R. hall, has raised a pumpkin that measures four feet and eleven inches in circumference. WASHINGTON.—But little damage has been done to the crops of the past week. GENERAL STEPHEN THOMAS, Mrs. Newcomb, Ira Calef and Lucy Calef intend making the trip to the Shenandoah valley, starting on Saturday and remaining ten days. DR. CHARLES NEWCOMB, our only help in time of sickness, has been laid up with a cold, and is unable to attend the patients, we are glad to say, is now convalescent. Dr. Charley Chandler of Montpelier was in town Tuesday in attendance upon the patients of Dr. NEWCOMB. PROVIDENCE on a visit this week. A RHODE ISLAND "clam-bake" will be inaugurated here during his stay. Mrs. Alden Calef and little son from Boston, are on a visit to the farm here. Lester Titlow and wife have taken a trip to New Hampshire and the northern part of the state for a few weeks' stay. Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Huntington returned from a week's visit at Manchester, N. H., Saturday night.

Marshallfield.

THERE will be a Sunday-school concert at the Methodist church next Sunday afternoon. OUR base ball club came out ahead nine scores at Plainfield last Saturday with W. G. Nye as umpire. D. B. WOODRUM and the Vermont Farm Machine company were busy here two days last week taking testimony. ELDER HEMAN LAMPHIER, who died in Barre last Thursday, lived in this town for several years on the place owned by A. P. Spofford on depot hill. M. C. CHILLIS has taken a span of horses to the city and Silas Carlton a cow. Some of our people will spend part of the week in Burlington. A. E. LAMBERTON is filling a car with potatoes off his farm and sending them to Boston. The species is called Beauty of Hebron. Ten of them picked from the field weighed fourteen pounds. THE sale of John E. Eddy's farm at public auction will occur the 27th of this month. Our readers will remember the advertisement in the WATCHMAN a few weeks ago, and will not miss the opportunity to buy a good farm, if they want one. S. R. FLETCHER has just completed a very nice buggy harness which is worth seeing. It is of hard rubber finish throughout and shows some nice stitching. Considering that Mr. Fletcher is sixty-five years old, the harness is hard to beat in town or city. WE are informed by Mr. George A. Putnam of Fargo, Dakota, that he is now using butter made by Levi W. Pitkin of Marshallfield, which was made nearly a year ago, and is now fresh and of fine quality. This is a good endorsement of Mr. Pitkin's skill as a butter maker. COLONEL F. V. RANDALL will deliver a lecture on the "Battle of Gettysburg" at the Universalist church next Tuesday evening, September 18. The band will furnish music. Those who have heard him once will be glad of this chance to hear him again. A fee of ten cents will be taken to cover expenses. ELI EDSON and wife spent part of last week in Northfield, being present at the wedding and reception of Jennie A. Moulton, a cousin of Mr. Edson's. Mrs. O. D. Cole is visiting her old home in Wolcott a few days. PLAINFIELD.—Henry Martin's boys—George, aged sixteen, Dwight, thirteen and Dean, eleven—milked his thirty-five cows one night in one hour. JOHN BANCROFT raised from one kernel of seed seventeen ears of sound corn measuring in all ten feet, six inches long. K. ALICE MERRIN began her fall term of school at the "Horn of the moon" district in East Montpelier on Monday last. A BLACK yearling colt, weighing 772 pounds, fourteen and three-fourths hands high, of Eastern Boy stock, was introduced to the village by George Lynde on Monday last. It is a beauty. O. L. HOYT was thrown from his carriage, being injured, on Monday morning while driving down the Bancroft hill. The horse stumbled and fell, breaking one shaft and the harness. A. N. GREENLEE and John Fowler have been putting granite curbing in front of J. M. Hatch's place on the Main street in Northfield. He complains that it is too close to the sidewalk, but the walk is as wide as ever. THE Plainfield boys got badly beaten by the Marshallfield nine at base ball here last Saturday. With the assistance of a pitcher and catcher from Sumner Hill, Montpelier, they were too much for our boys. We expect they will try to get it again. MORETOWN.—Jennie Mayo is attending school at Northfield. KATHI PRENTISS is teaching school in Fayston. NETTIE LOVEJOY is teaching school in Duxbury. JENNIE EVANS has been visiting friends in town. Mrs. A. C. CHILD is much better and able to ride out. Mrs. ANNIE MARSTON is working for Mrs. Barnes of Stowe. GEORGE THOMAS and daughter are visiting friends in the West. THE people of this village have been repairing the road near L. D. Robinson's. THE village school commenced September 3, with Misses Dale and Porter for teachers. Mrs. LINCOLN KNIGHT has been visiting friends in town, but has returned to Worcester, Mass. BARRE.—There will be both forenoon and afternoon services at the Methodist church next Sunday. A NUMBER of our citizens are attending the state fair at Burlington this week. THERE were about one hundred tickets sold at this station last Thursday to excursionists going to Weirs. THE Catholics held a service here Sunday, partaking of the Eucharist in the morning and at four o'clock in the afternoon about sixteen persons were present. HEMAN LAMPHIER died last Thursday; he had been sick most of the time for the past two years, being able to be around most of the time, but quite feeble. He was out around and down in the business part of the village on Monday, and he died at his home in Barre. His funeral was attended at the house Saturday afternoon, Rev. H. Webster of Chelsea conducting the services. WARREN.—The school in district No. 1 commenced Monday, with Julia Crain as teacher. The schoolhouse has been thoroughly repaired and painted and the ground graded. MR. and Mrs. CURTIS are stopping in town at present. Judge Riford has been visiting with the family at the home in St. Johnsbury. Mr. Williams from Danvers, Mass., is visiting friends in town. Mr. and Mrs. James Edridge have spent the past week in St. Johnsbury. Mrs. Nichols is visiting with her neighbors and friends in town. PHILIP RIFORD and William P. Harmon have greatly improved the looks of their houses by painting, etc. George Putnam from Gardner, Mass., who has spent the past few weeks in town, returned home last week. Samuel Austin has left town; destination, not reported. WATSFIELD.—There was no preaching at the Methodist church last Sunday, as the pastor, Rev. C. P. Tappin, is away on short vacation. CLEMENS, son of D. O. Joslin, who was severely injured by falling from a cherry tree some time ago, has relapsed into a deranged state of mind. THE copartnership heretofore existing between Estor Brothers and the state fair, Melville goes to Hydepark, and Orville will continue in the hardware business in this place. NEXT week will be fall week and a great turnout is expected. This will be a fair of the privilege of showing and seeing the good things which farmers and mechanics can do and raise. Some fast trotting is expected. MIDDLETOWN.—At a meeting held September 4th to consider the subject of reorganizing the church, L. R. Wells was elected chairman, C. C. Graves secretary and a committee of three, consisting of Sylvanus Daniels, H. A. Sawyer and Stephen Herrick, was chosen to consult with the pew-holders, look up the records of the society, etc., and report to a meeting to be called at the discretion of the conference. EDWIN CHEEVER of the New England Farmer-Exchange has returned from the state fair, which L. M. Cameron wears these days, who would remark that it is a girl and weighs nine pounds. GAYVILLE.—The village school commenced last Monday. Addie Smith teaches the primary and Charlotte Tarbell the higher department. MRS. MARY C. PACKARD, occupant of the farm on the north side of the G. A. R. hall, has raised a pumpkin that measures four feet and eleven inches in circumference. WASHINGTON.—But little damage has been done to the crops of the past week. GENERAL STEPHEN THOMAS, Mrs. Newcomb, Ira Calef and Lucy Calef intend making the trip to the Shenandoah valley, starting on Saturday and remaining ten days. DR. CHARLES NEWCOMB, our only help in time of sickness, has been laid up with a cold, and is unable to attend the patients, we are glad to say, is now convalescent. Dr. Charley Chandler of Montpelier was in town Tuesday in attendance upon the patients of Dr. NEWCOMB. PROVIDENCE on a visit this week. A RHODE ISLAND "clam-bake" will be inaugurated here during his stay. Mrs. Alden Calef and little son from Boston, are on a visit to the farm here. Lester Titlow and wife have taken a trip to New Hampshire and the northern part of the state for a few weeks' stay. Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Huntington returned from a week's visit at Manchester, N. H., Saturday night.

Williamstown.

JARAN NORRIS, one of our aged citizens, it is feared may not live long. SOME sixteen or more of our young people are away at school this fall. OCCIDENTAL Vermonters to be petitioning their congressmen to put to rest the question of the M. PALMER has much improved the appearance of his buildings of late by changes made. MESSRS. ORVILLE BRIGGS, Leavitt Hayward and Charles Hayward are to connect their telephones. MESSRS. JACKSON & TOWNSEND were fortunate enough to find a pair of "A. D. Abbott's" for a real handsome Oshkosh carriage, recently. THE Whitney Brothers, who rent the Alvin Flint farm this year, raised forty-five bushels of Lost Nation wheat from a little less than an acre of ground. REV. MR. SVRCS, who has supplied the Universalist church with the great acceptance of that society this summer, is about to return to his theological studies at Canton, N. Y. SANFORD DUTTON has a registered Devon cow, eight years old, that in seven days in June last gave two hundred and eighty-four pounds of milk, from which seventeen pounds and eleven ounces of butter were made. FIVE years have passed since the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Barnham, their friends feel that they would "wood" on Tuesday afternoon and evening of this week. It promises to be a very successful affair. WE heard that $300 would not purchase a yearling colt bought of Prentiss Walden last year for George Lynde. He thinks him as promising as the horse "Twinkle," mentioned in these items last week, for which $6,000 is said to have been paid. THE frosts of last week did damage to corn here, the season having been unfavorable to maturing the corn before the "bite." This, with the failure of a good sugar season last spring, makes it a little hard on some of our farmers. But they must have yielded to nature or earthquakes here in Vermont, nor anything like the western cyclones. ON looking at some ancient tomb-stones in one of our old cemeteries, recently, we found on one an epitaph on the wife of a clergyman, beginning thus: "Alas, my Sarah's left my bed, Under some stone, Kish-ah-ah, on high; Chariot of Israel and his horses fled, With the wheels of the chariot, etc." On another of these stones we found the name "Freegrace" given to a son. The boy died young. WE think we have found the place some of our townsmen will want to go to, if friend Melville will only consent to the purchase of a beautiful section of the South, writes that an opportunity being about to be given one of his neighbors to see an oran, the neighbor said that he thought it would be better to see it here, if he would be bound his children should see something. If all talk is to be taken at par, it would be paradise regained for some of our folks to go where there was such a dearth of this musical article. A NUMBER of our folks are making a flying visit in Illinois. Mr. and Mrs. Joel Shepherd were in attendance at the Free Will Baptist annual meeting at Waterbury Center last week. Mrs. Mary J. Spier of Neponset, Mass., is visiting with her friends here. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home here. We are sorry to lose her from our midst. Mrs. M. S. Seaver and Alma Trask visited the Manchester (N. H.) fair last week, stopping at the Weirs on the way. Mrs. Ellen (Katham) Morse of Manchester, N. H., came last week to visit with her friends here and hereabout. Her health is somewhat improved of late. Lora Bass returns West this week, after a sojourn of a year or more in her old home