

BARNARD, SUMNER & CO.

LADIES:—You will find the Fine Dress Goods Department in its new and permanent home on the south aisle, facing the Black Goods Department, both of which have at last quarters suitable to their importance.

We will tell you a good deal about these two great interests by and bye.

To-day we must talk to you about the more prominent and seasonable goods that are, we know, most often in your mind.

Twenty-five-cent Satines at 12 1-2 cts. are about as good goods to begin our little talk with as could be chosen.

There is a little story about these Satines worth the telling.

We found some exactly like them in a jobber's hands, yesterday, held as a bargain at wholesale for 13 1-2 cts.

Our price is 12 1-2 cts.

If you can tell them from the French Satines you will do better than we can, for we can not tell, when they are together.

We would like to believe that many merchants, earlier in the season, mixed them in with the French goods and sold them as French, and at the highest prices.

We sell them, as we sell everything, for just what they are—that is, an excellent 25-cent Satine, in the nicest possible patterns (in fact, seventy different patterns), at 12 1-2 cts. per yard.

Next come Challis at 6 1-2 cts., and others at 12 1-2 cts., that would be all right at 16 2-3 cts. per yard.

Sea Island Pongees that have the regular Pongee weave, and if you were to shut your eyes you would think that you were handling Pongee Silk instead of the finest Muslin.

Zephyr Gingham at 12 1-2 cts., that need no word of praise.

Angers Suitings at 12 1-2 cts. also; they suit many ladies better than the lighter qualities of summer goods.

Cream Crinkled Seersuckers are not easy to get just now. We have them at 8 cts. a yard.

Primrose Cloth, a beautiful cotton goods in very lovely colors, at 12 1-2 cts.

Outing Cloths that will give you nice service at 12 1-2 cts.

Printed Mohairs that are a surprise to everybody at 20 cts.

English Mohairs—we have yet to hear one lady say that she don't like them—in pretty checks, stripes and plaids, at 25 cts. A great bargain!

In Danish Cloth cream is the color this year. We can give you any other color if you want it; 12 1-2 cts. per yard.

When we tell you that we have an elegant dollar Striped Mohair for 50 cts. it sounds rather large, don't it? Well, the beauty of this statement, like all others of ours, is its exact truth. This Striped Mohair is worth a dollar per yard, and we sell it for 50 cts.

Seventy-five pieces Challis Beiges at 50 cts. per yard; mighty good they are, too.

American Gingham at 8 cts., 10 cts. and 12 1-2 cts.

The old standard Bates Gingham are doing wonderfully this year at 12 1-2 cts.

Indigo Percales at 10 cts. and 12 1-2 cts.; 30 inches wide.

Puritan Cambric in lovely dress styles, 36 inches wide, at 12 1-2 cts. per yard.

Printed Surahs, a lovely cotton fabric, in silk weave and finish, at 12 1-2 cts. per yard.

Tennis Stripes at 8 cts. and 12 1-2 cts.

And, ladies, here we are at the very bottom of this column, and we have three closely-written pages of price items in medium Dress Goods that we want to even mention; but can not to-day.

If you can not come to us, send for samples of anything. They will go to you at once.

BARNARD, SUMNER & CO., Worcester, Mass.

tribulation by the Methodists, the Congregationalists and Free Baptists contributed about twenty-six dollars. Leslie Gale's new two-tenement house near the stone-sheds is being pushed to completion. Not only is it to be a very pretty house, but it is to be a very healthy one, for beauty of plan and light and air are to be given to the occupants. With the high and slightly building-lots along the Brookfield road, on Mrs. Elijah Edson's place for sale, and other places for building here, would-be purchasers, here or elsewhere, ought to be able to find homes for themselves. There is room and welcome for everybody. Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hamblin returned last week from their vacation on Cape Cod. One can hardly imagine a more cheerful and ready man than Mr. Hamblin shows for his work, but there will doubtless appear a fresh season of salt in it from his recent rest and change. A welcome home to both! Frank A. Walker came home on Saturday, and left on Monday for Lynn, Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company. Miss Fannie, daughter of Denison Brown, now of Northfield, is with her sister, Mrs. Luther Walker, in Mass., where he has a situation with the Thompson-Houston Electric Manufacturing Company.

ten days or a fortnight, having left town on Monday for Pawlet and elsewhere. EAST CORINTH.—George Prescott drives the stage from East Corinth to Bradford. John Smith of West Newbury took in wool here last week Tuesday. C. L. Kemp started last Saturday for Sunset Hill to plant corn. The orchestra. Miss Mabel Divoll of Lewiston, Maine, is in town visiting her mother, Mrs. Amanda Divoll. Several from this place attended the Fourth of July celebration at Bradford.

EAST ORANGE.—Rev. L. H. Elliot of Waterbury, agent of the Vermont Bible Society, preached here Sunday at half-past four. Rev. Lewis Dexter of Westport, Maine, is expected to preach next Sunday in exchange with Rev. C. E. Davis, who is to take Mr. Dexter's charge in Maine for several weeks. Miss Josie Eastman of Barre is visiting her grandfather, Orin Eastman. S. C. Hutchinson returned home from Syracuse, N. Y., last week, where he has attended college. Miss Lucina Jewell of Chelsea, Mass., is making her annual visit to Mr. and Mrs. William Jewell, her grandparents. Daniel White of Manchester, N. H., visited friends in town last week. C. M. Colby and S. C. Hutchinson spent the Fourth of July at home.

H. G. Simpson sold his horse while spending the Fourth in Barre. Mrs. D. R. Houghton and Ophelia Houghton of Orange were the guests of M. R. Hamilton last week. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Smith of Williamstown were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Paine last Wednesday. R. H. Blake went to East Topsham last week to work during holiday for Garland Carrier. Several went to West Topsham to spend the Fourth.

SOUTH RANDOLPH.—The Fourth was celebrated here by a ride to Williamstown Golf Springs. The members of the band and their ladies were entertained, free of charge, by Landlord Dunham, and in return they played a very pleasant time. All had a pleasant time. Mrs. B. A. Burnham, who is in poor health, is visiting in Waterbury. Dexter Chatfield, wife and children of West Randolph visited at John Hill's last week. The funeral of Mrs. D. B. Root was attended by Rev. S. A. Parker at her late home on the 28th ult. For many years she had been an invalid, waiting patiently for the time to come when she should lay aside the mortal coil. She was a kind, devoted mother and a devoted wife, and was loved by all who knew her. The rocks in the new road near C. L. Kelsey's are being blasted out by a party from Stratford Mines. Mary Prince and her little niece, Fanny Prince, from West Randolph, visited at J. F. Prince's last week. Joseph Derling died from the effects of a shock of paralysis week before last. The funeral was attended by Rev. Mr. Lewis of Randolph. Several parties who have been holding their wool for the last eight or ten years have recently sold their stock for twenty-five cents. William Harlow is making extensive repairs on his house. Mrs. Haselton and child of Boston are visiting at W. C. Wood's. Mrs. W. C. Wood, son Willie and daughter Gertrude, have been to Norwich to attend the funeral of Mrs. Camp's brother, Edward Swazey.

SOUTH STRAFFORD.—The post-office here changed hands last week. S. B. Buell taking the place of H. C. Gilkey, deceased. The new post-office is in the building at New Mexico, spent the Sabbath at the Barrett house. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Lorenzo Wood, and a lady friend.

NORTH THETFORD.—Mr. Blanchard, pastor at Orfordville, preached to us last Sabbath. George D. Wood of Saratoga Springs, this year and will enter Andover Theological Seminary in the fall. Mrs. Horace Hartson died on July 4, after a serious illness of six months. Her remains were interred in Pleasant Ridge cemetery last Saturday. Earle Smith, a student in college course in June. He will be head clerk at the Center house, Center Harbor, N. H., through the summer. Mary Adams from Springfield, Mass., has arrived at the Barrett house for the summer. Ellen Sawyer has started for Nebraska, where she is to be married and will hereafter reside. Mrs. Julia Murfey, with children and grandchildren, have come from the West to the old home, the Barrett house, on the 28th ult. Mrs. Bery is home from Chelsea, Mass., for her summer vacation.

WEST TOPSHAM.—The many friends of Miss Lou Bowen will regret to learn of her death, which occurred June 24th, after many months of suffering with that dread disease, cancer. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness.

WEST TOPSHAM.—The many friends of Miss Lou Bowen will regret to learn of her death, which occurred June 24th, after many months of suffering with that dread disease, cancer. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness.

WEST TOPSHAM.—The many friends of Miss Lou Bowen will regret to learn of her death, which occurred June 24th, after many months of suffering with that dread disease, cancer. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness.

WEST TOPSHAM.—The many friends of Miss Lou Bowen will regret to learn of her death, which occurred June 24th, after many months of suffering with that dread disease, cancer. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness.

WEST TOPSHAM.—The many friends of Miss Lou Bowen will regret to learn of her death, which occurred June 24th, after many months of suffering with that dread disease, cancer. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness.

WEST TOPSHAM.—The many friends of Miss Lou Bowen will regret to learn of her death, which occurred June 24th, after many months of suffering with that dread disease, cancer. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness.

WEST TOPSHAM.—The many friends of Miss Lou Bowen will regret to learn of her death, which occurred June 24th, after many months of suffering with that dread disease, cancer. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness.

WEST TOPSHAM.—The many friends of Miss Lou Bowen will regret to learn of her death, which occurred June 24th, after many months of suffering with that dread disease, cancer. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness.

WEST TOPSHAM.—The many friends of Miss Lou Bowen will regret to learn of her death, which occurred June 24th, after many months of suffering with that dread disease, cancer. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness.

WEST TOPSHAM.—The many friends of Miss Lou Bowen will regret to learn of her death, which occurred June 24th, after many months of suffering with that dread disease, cancer. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness.

WEST TOPSHAM.—The many friends of Miss Lou Bowen will regret to learn of her death, which occurred June 24th, after many months of suffering with that dread disease, cancer. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness.

WEST TOPSHAM.—The many friends of Miss Lou Bowen will regret to learn of her death, which occurred June 24th, after many months of suffering with that dread disease, cancer. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness.

WEST TOPSHAM.—The many friends of Miss Lou Bowen will regret to learn of her death, which occurred June 24th, after many months of suffering with that dread disease, cancer. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness. Her death was a great loss to her family. Her husband, Mr. Bowen, a devoted and kind man, was with her during her illness.

on the Fourth. Zed S. Stanton was at Barre on Saturday in the capacity of commissioner on the Barre railroad. Willis Cady has moved from Burnham's mill to the tenement over Tilden's store. J. H. Harris of St. Albans has bought a house at Bradford, Monday. WAITSFIELD.—Mr. J. J. Kelly, the stage-driver, will run a team to Montpelier on July 18, to carry all who wish to attend the drawing of prizes at the Grand Army fair, at one dollar for the round trip.

WATERBURY.—Principal Fernald and Miss Sumner have been secured by the school board for the coming year, and it is probable that the old corps of teachers will be hired throughout—an arrangement that will be extremely satisfactory to those interested in good instruction in our schools. The Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the beast as being a cross between the pterodactyl and the sea-serpent, with a slight resemblance to the sea-serpent. When pursued the creature took flight across the river, leaving tracks of wonderful magnitude behind. Wilbur Henry and wife of New York are on a week's visit to the Fenelon High School library, which tells marvelous stories of a large, white animal seen by a number of them several nights since. The various descriptions place the