Light Draperies and Hangings in all their pretty newness.

The early shipments of light-weight draperies are ready. The splendid-wearing Scotch Lace Curtains come in a host of new and very attractive patterns.

And, they have a decided improvement over the old style tape bound curtains. These new ones have patent over-lock corded edges. The edges can't fray out.

Full width and length. The prices are 75c., $1, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2, $2.50 and $3 the pair.

A word about the new stylish White P. Ks.

A great windowful of the season's most desired weaves in white cotton fabrics merely suggests of what the entire line is composed.

The swell P. Ks. are here in a variety of cords and welts far greater than in any other Norfolk store. These pretty P. Ks. will be worn as entire suits, separate skirts and waists.

Regarding the new Mattings and their cost to you.

The more the dealers complain the better we like it. We are not in business to please dealers—but, TO PLEASE YOU!

Mattings are sold here on the same basis as general dry goods. Why shouldn't they be? It's helpful to you to have us sell them. That's why we've got them.

IN SOCIETY'S REALM

joyed by the party, which consisted of Mrs. DeBree Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. John W. King, Mrs. Edward Williams, Miss Elizabeth Johnston, Dr. Burgess and Mr. Turner Johnston.

Miss Fannie Leigh gave her dancing class a soiree on Tuesday evening at the Masonic Temple, which was largely attended and greatly enjoyed by the younger set.

The two performances given by Crane and his magnificent company at the Academy of Music last week drew large houses, and the audiences were composed of the elite of the city.

The hospitable home of Mrs. Frank A. Ethy Walker on Grace street, was the scene of a delightful party Wednesday, given in honor of two of this season's most attractive debutantes.

One of the society weddings of the week was that of Mr. Robert W. Baldwin to Miss Elizabeth Deans Boykin in Baltimore. The ceremony was performed in the Church of St. Michael and All Angels' by Rev. Earnest C. Smith, assisted by Rev. A. S. Lloyd, of this city.

The opera "Prisilla" will be presented at the Academy of Music on Tuesday next for the benefit of the Girls' Home. This promises to be a great success and, it is hoped, will be well patronized.

by Miss Elizabeth Johnston. The consolation prize, which was also a picture, was cut for and won by Miss Mary Nash. Delightful refreshments were then served on the card tables.

The members of the Virginia Club will tender a reception to their lady friends on Wednesday evening, which is eagerly anticipated by those who will attend.

Mrs. Arthur P. Wilmer invited ten of her friends to her home Thursday to meet Miss Cox, of Richmond, and Miss White, of Abingdon. This matinee card party was a very enjoyable one.

The young Daughters of the Confederacy will hold their regular monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Frank Anthony Walker, on Grace street.

We had your welfare in mind when we bought this fascinating lot of Magnificent Black Crepons

Here's the story in brief. One of the ultra exclusive stores of New York city placed an import order for a quantity of Crepons to retail at $2.50 and $3.00 a yard.

Our resident buyer, ever on the lookout for just such opportunities, got wind of it. He made immediate overtures to the importer. The result is that a goodly portion of the repons are now on our counters

And instead of $2.50 and $3.00 we price them $1.75 and $2 the yard.

We think it is the handsomest lot of Crepons that ever came to Norfolk—assuredly so at these prices.

They have rich, lustrous silk face, measure 44 inches wide and come in magnificent stripe, set figure and all-over designs.

Of course, we have the lower priced Crepons, too. A splendid gathering at $1, $1.50 and $1.75 the yard.

Some New Silks are Ready.

Aside from our regular line we point with pride to these new additions that arrived just in time for this week's selling:

Rich Black Irish Poplin—a very sturdy perfect black. 50c. the yard. Handsome Black Armure—a trusty silk, in much favor for entire costumes, waists or skirts, 75c. the yard.

2 1/2-inch Soft Finish, extra fine Black Taffeta, 75c. the yard. And we desire to call your special attention to our line of all-silk Black Taffetas—by far the handsomest colorings and designs that we've yet shown—$1 the yard.

36-inch Taffeta, in all the newest colors—a great fabric for linings—75c. the yard. An entirely new line of Corded Stripe Taffetas—by far the handsomest colorings and designs that we've yet shown—$1 the yard.
