

IN THE REALM OF SOCIETY

Chronicles of Entertainments During the Past Week.

FOR THE MONUMENT FUND

Delightful Yacht and Tug Parties—Entertainments at the Atlantic, Chesapeake and Country Clubs—Young Daughters of the Confederacy—A Birthday Party—Movements of Society People.

The older people have not been at all gay during the round of days which went to make up the week which has just flown, but the younger element keep society whirling and far surpass the "grown ups," both in number and excellence of their functions. Card parties, tug parties, beach parties, dancing parties, and, in fact, parties of all kinds follow each other in quick succession, one continual round of pleasure. The people about town are beginning to leave for the summer, and gradually, one by one, they depart, until the stay-at-home get lonesome and feel that the fort is theirs. Of course, the beach is teeming with people today, all on pleasure bent, seeking a cooler climate wherein to spend their Fourth, and strolling about the verandas and lobby of the Princess Anne one comes upon some old acquaintance whom, perhaps, they have not seen for many years, and so the time passes on, amid laughter and gaiety.

Miss Addie Pigman entertained her friends very charmingly Monday at her home at Fort Norfolk. The spacious parlors had been previously decorated for the occasion in flags and bunting, the bright colors set off by a background of green. The lawn was lighted with lanterns which reminded one of Fairyland, and offered great inducements for a stroll between dances—for dancing was the feature of the evening. The refreshments were of the most delightful nature were served during the evening and greatly enjoyed. It was at a late hour that good-nights were said, and the car was boarded for home. Among Miss Pigman's guests on this delightful occasion were Misses Katherine Newell, Carolyn Cohn, Mary George Payne, Nancy Freeman, Mary and Fannie Royster, Melissa Payne, Byrd Page, Alice Williams, Lucy Hardy, Baynie Taylor, Lottie Hodges and Lella Hobson, Messrs. Davis Jordan, Eugene Payne, Randolph Cooke, Peyton Blaine, Carson Dobbie, Leurgus Smith, Allan Ferebee, Baldwin Myers, George Payne, Lloyd Freeman, Thomas Sheldon, Frank Murden, John Williams, Lane Kelly, Robert Hunter, Richard Burroughs, Richard Waldrop, Wickham Taylor, Thomas Hume and Fitzhugh Doyle.

Mr. George McIntosh entertained a party of friends Tuesday afternoon in a manner most enjoyable. The party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tallaferra, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell Hardy, A. J. Kelly, John N. Vaughn, Misses Bland and Pattie Taylor, Mr. Frank Taylor, Mr. Leighton Hubbard and Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh, boarded the 5 o'clock train for Virginia Beach, and on arriving at that attractive and popular resort, were driven to the Atlantic Club, where they spent the evening in a delightfully refreshing dip in the ocean blue was the highlight of the program, which was followed by a delectable supper of fish and crabs. After the feast had been partaken of, the famous "pleasures of the club" were indulged in until train time.

Due to the efforts of Mr. Roland Cullpepper, an enjoyable tug-party was participated in on Wednesday evening. The "City of Chester" left the N. Y. R. wharf at 8 o'clock, laden with the pleasure-seeking party, and after an hour's time were gaily dancing the minutes away to the inspiring strains of music from the Artillery School band, as played in the Hygeia ballroom. At 10 o'clock the whistle blew and soon the party was homeward bound. The chaperones on this occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cullpepper, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seabury, Mrs. Richard Wingfield and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wingfield.

Among those who were at this party were: Miss Annie Delk, Miss Edna Ryals, Miss May Taylor, of Washington, N. C.; Miss Charlotte Woodside, of Baltimore; Misses Daisy and Madge Drummond, Miss Annie Williams, Miss Roland Taylor, Miss Ethel Hardy, Miss Ella Doyle, Miss Mary Lou Gay, Miss Margaret Burruss, Miss Marion Reeves, Miss Sarah Harris, Miss Lucy Carr, Misses Emily, Ruth and Margaret Wilson, Mr. Tompkin Licklider, Mr. Brown, Mr. M. Agelasto, Jr., Mr. Garrett Smith, Messrs. Roland and Moore Cullpepper, Mr. Theodore Rogers, Mr. Green, of Boston; Mr. Yeaman Burroughs, Mr. Hunt Hannah, Mr. John Woodside, Mr. Horace Hogard, Mr. Cooke, Mr. Chas. Bowdoin, Mr. Harrison, Mr. Albert Burruss, Mr. Walter T. Priest, Mr. Torrence, Mr. Lightfoot Wormby, of Richmond; Mr. William Dey, Mr. Wentworth Nicholas, Mr. Otto Scott, Mr. William Gresham and Messrs. Louis and Sewell Smith.

One of the most delightful affairs of the Summer was the sailing party given on Tuesday by Mr. H. B. Goodridge. The party, most of whom are stopping at the Princess Anne Club, Norfolk on the 11 o'clock train, soon found themselves on board the "Vivian" and started off for a day's sail. A delightful luncheon was served and the day passed all too quickly. At 6 o'clock the party returned to the Princess Anne Club, where an elegant supper was partaken of. Those who accepted Mr. Goodridge's hospitality on this delightful occasion were: Mrs. Wood, of Washington; Mrs. P. L. Sandoz, Mrs. Margaret Woodward, Miss Spilman, of Richmond, in whose honor the party was given; Miss Fairfax Lovell and Grace Shields, of Richmond; Miss Gibson, of North Carolina; Miss Elise Harrison, of Petersburg; Mr. Joe Clay Hill, of Petersburg; Mr. Ernest Wood, of Norfolk; Mr. W. Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, of Norfolk.

Miss Taylor entertained a party of friends very delightfully on Wednesday evening. The occasion was Plain Silk and Satin Bows in every color, plain stripes, plaids and checks, exquisite styles, all for 25c. The Zaza Pulls are new, and a large assortment of rich, handsome stripes are here at 50c.

LACES—An extraordinary strong line for this week's selling. If in need of any, such prices will not stand in the way of your buying here. A fortunate purchase placed us in possession of the following, which we have marked at wonderfully low prices:

Narrow Val. Laces in a large assortment of styles, 13c., 19c. piece of 12 yards. A beautiful line of rich, dainty patterns, with neat edges, in Val. Lace, all widths, from 1/2 to 1 1/2 inches wide. 1 1/2 at 30c. up to 90c. for pieces of 12 yards. The better grades start at $1.00 and range in price up to $2.50 piece. These are acknowledged the handsomest in the city. Inserting to match. Imitation Torchon Lace, with inserting to match, very swell patterns, all widths are here. Prices start at 4c and range in price up to 25c. per yard. Imitation Torchon Lace, edged with neat beading, special at 5c and 10c yard. A dainty assortment of very select styles in Val Lace at 2c, 5c and on up to 49c yard. Point De Paris Lace is being used and we have a large line, all new patterns, inserting to match, all prices from 7c up to 25c. Val Beading is new and we have just received several new styles at 20c, 25c, up to 65c yard.

DRESS GOODS AND SILKS—There is decided satisfaction in trading where you can depend on what you buy as being as represented, no misrepresentation in advertising and prices always commensurate with legitimate merchandising. This being our policy, let us show you that Miller, Rhoads & Co.'s is such a place.

GRAY CHEVIOTS in the desirable shades are scarce, but not with us. An elegant quality in two different tones. This is the one that those handsome skirts are made of. 59 in. wide, $1.00. GERMAN SUITING, a lighter weight fabric, a clean cut and extremely stylish, making very genteel suits or skirts. 59 in. wide, 59c.

GRANITE OR GRAY MIXTURES. These are the favorites of the season, coming in cadet, tan, browns, greens, soft but clean finish. Perhaps this is just what you have been hunting for—a light wool skirt. Regular 75c. goods, 45 in. wide, at 59c.

CLOTH in navy blue, also much used for bathing suits. All wool, 52 in. wide, 50c.

BLACK GOODS.

FANCY MOHAIRS—Just a few pieces in neat patterns. Just the thing for an inexpensive skirt. 39 in. wide, regular 50c. quality, at 29c.

BLACK JACQUARDS—It is a rare thing to buy line black goods at a very small price, but here it is. Handsome designs, rich black, 50 in. wide, regular price 85c., now 49c.

GERMAN NOVELTIES—Very neat designs in wool and mohair, elegant finish, 42 in. wide; former price, $1.25, now 98c.

The second prizes, which were games, were won by Miss Mary Walea and Mr. John Jenkins. Refreshments were then served, and the table, surrounded by the smiling little faces, was a thing of beauty. Tiny flags formed the principal decoration, and a cake with seven candies was an important feature. Candies were suspended from the trees and softly lighted the lawn, and the little ones will long remember this day as a bright page in their life.

The Misses Moore, who have been visiting Mrs. M. A. Moore, on York street, left last week for their home in Richmond.

Miss Minnie Baker is the guest of Mrs. L. S. Adams, at Virginia Beach.

Lieutenant Charles S. Stanworth, U. S. N., left Thursday for Washington, where he has been assigned to duty.
