A WEEK IN SOCIETY

The Opening of the Willoughby Club Last Week.

Delightful Entertainments During the Week at the Virginia, Country and Atlantic Clubs and at the Homes of Citizens.

Society was not at all gay during the past week and but for the coming and going of people you know there would be very little to chronicle and the society column would necessarily be a short one. The opening of the Willoughby Club last week was, however, an event of great importance. This club is situated at Willoughby Beach, and is most complete. The building is one of the finest of its kind in the South, and every member furnishes in his own taste the room which is his own particular domain. The doors of this hospitable club have already been thrown open on several occasions, and great anticipation is felt by those who are not fortunate enough to be in this club, and the hope is that they will be entertained at an early date at the charming and attractive place.

Mr. George Sanderson entertained a party most delightfully Tuesday. The fair was a luncheon and was given at the Virginia Club. Covers were laid for eight, and a tempting menu, consisting of the delicacies of the season, was served. Those who comprised this party were Miss Lucy McDonald, of New York; Miss Nani Snodgrass, of Harrisburg, Pa.; Miss Ida Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. William Camp, Mr. Frank Taylor, Dr. E. E. Field, and the host, Mr. Sanderson.

A very charming and delightful party was given at the Country Club Thursday evening by Mr. George Moser, in honor of Miss Loose, of Hagerstown, Md. The party of eight rode to the club on their wheels and then spent most of the evening in the bowling alley, playing the ever attractive game of ten-pins. Delightful refreshments were then partaken of, after which the party again mounted their wheels and started for home. Mr. Moss' guests on this pleasant occasion were Miss Loose, Miss Belle Irvine, Miss Florence Smith, Miss Miriam Williamson, Mr. Walter Bantox, Mr. Aaron Milhado and Mr. Tyler Smith.

One of the most delightful of the many delightful parties which have been given at the Atlantic Club was that to which Mr. William Camp invited a few friends Tuesday. The party went to the club in the afternoon and enjoyed a bath in the briny deep. They were then regaled with a delightful fish and crab supper, after which they were entertained until a late hour. Those who were present on this occasion were Miss Lucy McDonald, of New York; Miss Nan Snodgrass, of Harrisburg, Pa.; Miss Ida Gordon, Mrs. William Camp, Mr. George Sanderson, Mr. B.

Gray Tunstall, Major Nurse, U. S. M. C.; Mr. M. B. Crowell and Mr. Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Woodard entertained a party of friends very charmingly on Wednesday at the Willoughby Club. The party was given in Miss Ethel Pace's honor, and was a most enjoyable affair. The party came up from the beach on the morning train and repaired to the Ocean View depot, where they embarked for their destination. After enjoying a most delightful day the party returned to the beach on the 7:45 train. Mr. and Mrs. Woodard's guests on this day were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Biscoe, U. S. N., Miss Pace, of Richmond; Miss Emily Gibson, of Concord, N. C.; Miss Mary Vermillion, Miss Myra Vaughn, Miss Marquise Taylor, Miss Nellie Little, Mr. Pare Stiles, of Chicago; Mr. A. Brooke Taylor, Mr. Gustav Friebe, Mr. R. Worthy Smith, Mr. Richard Cooke, Mr. Junius Wilcox, Mr. John Ward and Mr. H. B. Goodridge.

Mrs. Helen M. Browne gave another of her delightful parties on Thursday. Mrs. Browne's guests, Mrs. Hatch, Miss Hodges, of Elliott City; Miss Taylor, of Washington, N. C.; Miss Woodside, of Baltimore; Miss Nannie Waddy, Miss Fannie Culpeper, Miss Ruth Wilson, Mr. Blamire, Mr. John Woodside, Mr. Temple Lichner, Mr. Lewis du Bordenave, Mr. Hugh Mercer, Mr. Victor Browne, Mr. Borum and Mr. Ernest Turner, left on the 5 o'clock Ocean View train for the Southern Pleasure Club, where they greatly enjoyed the remainder of the day. Bathing was indulged in, after which a delectable supper was partaken of, and needless to say, enjoyed. All repaired to the hotel after supper, where dancing was participated in until the late train.

Miss Bessie Doyle entertained a party of friends very delightfully on Thursday afternoon in honor of her cousin, Miss Isadore Kenney, of Baltimore, who is her guest. This party was given at the Willoughby Club, and was an exceedingly pleasant one. Bathing was the order of the day, and when evening closed in, an elegant repast was partaken of. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Doyle, and consisted of Miss Kenney, Miss Elise Stokes, of Richmond, and Miss Josephine Brewer, of Baltimore; Miss Jennie Gresham, Miss Lucy Baylor, Miss Bessie Doyle, Mr. J. Hunter Bell, Mr. Garnett Jordan, Mr. Washington Taylor, Jr., Mr. Tunstall Smith, Mr. George Sargeant, Mr. E. C. Hunter, Mr. Harry Jordan, of Smithfield, and Mr. John Doyle.

Mrs. Frank Hope entertained a few of her friends in a charming manner on Tuesday. The affair partook of the nature of a luncheon, and was given at the home of Mrs. Hope, on North street, Portsmouth. The table was prettily set, the decorations being white roses, and an elaborate menu served. Those who made up this select party were, Mrs. Thomas Owens, Mr. Alexander Hutton, Mrs. Frank A. Walke and Mrs. Hope.
