THE STRIKE ENDED

The Journeymen Signed Articles of Agreement Yesterday.

A Conference Board Appointed to Settle Future Misunderstandings—A Referee to Give Final Judgment.

The strike of Norfolk's Union journeymen plumbers that was inaugurated eight weeks ago was settled yesterday morning as was forecasted by the Virginian-Pilot.

Sunday evening the journeymen held a meeting at Bricklayers' Hall and discussed the compromise engineered by Secretary and Treasurer W. J. Spencer, of their National Union. Yesterday morning they met at Bricklayers' Hall and signed the agreement that had been signed on Saturday night by the master plumbers.

The requests of the journeymen were practically acceded to, and the new scale goes into effect October 1st. Under the new agreement the master plumbers can employ non-union men for a few days at any time. This is to allow the master plumbers to have labor enough in an emergency when enough union men are not obtainable, but will, of course, not be construed to permit the continued employment of non-union journeymen alongside of union men in any shop in Norfolk.

It is a well-known fact in union circles that union men are not allowed to work for any length of time in a shop where non-union men are employed.

A CONFERENCE BOARD. It was the desire of Secretary Spencer to settle this strike in such a manner as to prevent strikes in the future, as far as possible.

To this end a permanent Conference Board has been formed, consisting of two members from the Master Plumbers' Association and two members from the Journeymen Plumbers' Union.

In case of future misunderstanding or violation of the agreement on the part of either parties to it, the Conference Committee is empowered to adjust all disputed points, and should its members fail to agree, it is empowered to call in a fit person to act as referee, and the decision of this referee shall be final and binding on both parties.

THIRTY DAYS' NOTICE. A further agreement in the articles signed is that in case either party desires to annual or amend the agreement the other party to it shall have thirty days' notice of such desire.

The agreement gives unanimous satisfaction on all sides and was adopted unanimously by the men as well as the master plumbers.

Secretary Spencer will leave Norfolk to-day, going from here to Washington, D. C., and to Worcester, Mass.

There is a plumbers' strike on at Worcester, and Secretary Spencer will endeavor to adjust the differences there in a mutually satisfactory manner.

He and the local union, as well as the Master Plumbers' Association, are to be congratulated on his able work in Norfolk, for he took hold of the trouble here in a business-like way, smoothed out the tangles, and to-day the journeymen will all be back at work.

MACHINISTS ORGANIZE. LODGE NO. 7 ADOPTS CONSTITUTION AND ELECTS OFFICERS.

The Norfolk machinists have organized Norfolk Lodge No. 7, of the International Association of Machinists, and they thus again become affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

A meeting of machinists was held at Bricklayers' Hall last night at which the organization was perfected, with eighteen members. A set of officers was elected and the constitution of the International Association adopted. The lodge will make application to the national president at once for a renewal of its old charter.

There are a large number of machinists in Norfolk, and it is believed that the lodge will prosper and that it will be a welcome addition to the trades unions that have membership in the Central Labor Union.

The officers elected were: Walter Gaskins, president; John T. Casey, vice president; C. D. Walden, recording secretary; Walker Pearson, financial secretary; James Davis, treasurer; C. Fletcher Miller, conductor; John T. Whelan, inside sentinel.

The lodge will hold meetings on the first and third Monday nights of each month.

AT HIS OWN DOOR. MR. DEWES KNOCKED DOWN AND ROBBED OF $350.

A man by the name of Dewes, a store-keeper in Princess Anne county, was knocked senseless and robbed of $350 Sunday afternoon by a negro at his store.

Dewes' store is near Bonney's store, and while he was looking through his stock Sunday afternoon a negro came up and asked him to come outside, saying that he wanted to see him. Dewes went to the door and the negro felled him to the ground by a shower of blows from a heavy umbrella handle.

The negro then struck him with a four pound weight. The store-keeper had $350 in cash, and with this the negro safely got away, as no one was near. The Princess Anne county authorities are looking for the negro, as are also the Norfolk police and detective force, and it is believed that he cannot escape.

Steamer Subject. Take the handsome new steamer "Mobjack," of the Old Dominion Line, for a delightful all-day trip on the water she leaves Bay Line wharf daily, except Sunday, at 7:00 a. m. for Mobjack Bay and landings in Mathews and Gloucester counties. Fare only $1 for excursion trip to return same day. jy16-1f

LOST. LOST—IN ATLANTIC HOTEL WASH. room, Saturday evening, July 15th, a Gold Ring with cameo set. $5 will be paid at Atlantic Hotel office for its return. jy16-3t

COPED AND ROBBED.

BROOKLYN PAINTER AND FRES-COER STRANDED HERE.

Alex Selan, a white man, aged about 45 years, whose home is in Brooklyn, N. Y., but who has for the past several months been doing painting and frescoing in Raleigh and Durham, N. C., was doped and robbed of his watch and $10 in money in a dive over a saloon at the corner of Water and Church streets Sunday evening.

Selan arrived here from Raleigh Sunday morning and was induced by a negro to go to the dive to get a drink. He had not been there long before he began to feel drowsy and sleepy, and directly, when he became helpless, he said several negroes crowded around him and went through his pockets, even taking his shoes off. He told Justice Tomlin in Police Court yesterday morning that Henderson Williams, a negro who appeared to be the bar-tender, directed the other negroes while they robbed him. Henderson was the only one of the negroes arrested. Justice Tomlin gave him six months in jail.

Several Narrow Escapes. The squalls of the last few days have been the cause of several capsize and groundings on the shoals near Lambert's Point. A sloop sank there last Thursday. Saturday a large cat-boiler struck her and capsized, and Sunday evening a sloop followed suit. No fatalities have resulted, but several narrow escapes have been made. The latest of the capsize was the sloop yacht Lurline, in which the Fentress party, about whom the false rumor of a capsize was started Saturday, took their trip. They arrived home all right and another party had her later, and must have been the victims. They landed in Atlantic City. It is reported.

BOARD OF TRADE Messrs Geo. H. Dawes and D. J. Callahan Elected as Directors.

Messrs S. L. Foster, Walter Sharp and E. E. Dawes Elected to National Advisory Board, of Philadelphia Commercial Museum.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Norfolk Board of Trade and Business Men's Association was held yesterday noon at the office of the secretary.

Several new members were admitted and a considerable amount of routine business was transacted. Mr. George H. Dawes was elected as a director, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. J. C. Carroll. Mr. D. J. Callahan was elected as a member of the Executive Committee.

THE EXPORT EXPOSITION. Messrs S. L. Foster, Walter Sharp and E. E. Dawes were elected members of the National Advisory Board of the Philadelphia Commercial Museum.

The plans of this important installation and the great Export Exposition to be held at Philadelphia for the benefit of American manufacturers and exporters, have been heretofore noted at some length in the Virginian-Pilot. This paper also recently gave a view of the mammoth building where the exposition will be held.

THE SOUTHERN EXPOSITION. The following letter in reference to the Southern Exposition, to be held at New York from October 31st to November 25th, 1899, was received and referred to the Committee on Manufacturers:

"Business Men's Association, Norfolk, Va.: 'Gentlemen,—I have the honor to transmit, herewith, a copy of the prospectus of the Southern Exposition to be held in this city from October 31 to November 25, 1899.'

"The great purpose of this exposition is to bring together the interests of the industrial-producing South and the capital-investing North and East. The prospectus sufficiently sets forth the advantages which will accrue to both, and it is with this view that we request such action by your board as may seem best to aid us in the accomplishment of this end. Its endorsement and active co-operation in bringing the exposition to the knowledge of the various interests of your city and vicinity will materially conduce to the success of the undertaking, which we believe will be of great benefit to the South.

"Yours truly, 'JOHN J. GARNETT,' 'Director.'

Street Car Jumps the Track. Car No. 44 of the Lambert's Point electric line, ran off the track at the corner of Queen and Brewer streets Sunday night about 19:15 o'clock and crossed the street and sidewalk and ran into a small store one door from the northwest corner of the streets mentioned. There were several passengers on the car, but no one was injured. The car was slightly damaged from its collision with the house, and the pavement was torn up. Captain of Police Prince, who lives nearby, was attracted to the scene by the noise and excitement, and he found a railroad spike which had evidently been placed on the track, probably by some mischievous boy, thus causing the car to jump the rail just as it was turning the curve.

A Fine Sermon. Rev. R. F. Beadles, pastor of Central M. E. Church, Portsmouth, preached an eloquent sermon to a deeply interested congregation at Queen Street Church Sunday night. The central theme of the discourse was God's inestimable love to man, in providing a scheme of redemption for him through the crucifixion, death, resurrection and ascension of Christ. The discourse was replete with eloquent passages that greatly moved his audience.

To-morrow, the 19th, is the Day For the First Baptist excursion to Richmond, Leave N. and W. depot 8:15. $1.00 round trip. jy18-1f

All in sight of monument. "Newest Discovery" extracts teeth painlessly. N. Y. Dental Rooms, Ennes only, 324 Main street, corner Talbot.

ADMITTED TO BAIL

Trial of E. H. Dunbar—Treasurer Merry Arrested.

Justice Tomlin, of the Police Court, Hears the Statement of the Complainant—Defendant Claims He Was Merely an Agent.

E. H. Dunbar, the Norfolk manager of the Northern-Southern Kindling Wood Company, a concern chartered in Maine, was arraigned before Justice Tomlin in the Police Court yesterday morning. The case was partly heard by the Justice, but there being other evidence which it was thought desirable to be produced, the hearing was continued until next Monday morning. Dunbar was admitted to bail in the sum of $800, but failed to give it, and was taken back to jail.

The story of Dunbar's arrest was given in Sunday's Virginian-Pilot. Dunbar still claims that he is not culpable; that he acted merely in an agent's capacity in receiving the money from Mr. Shelley. He is represented by Mr. E. J. Morris, who argued that it was merely a civil case of action that Mr. Shelley had against his client, or the company he represented.

Justice Tomlin heard the statement of Mr. Shelley. He talked right out, using the plainest of Queen's English in designating Dunbar and describing his dealings with him.

Justice Tomlin asked Mr. Shelley what representations Dunbar made to him to secure the $250 he is charged with fraudulently obtaining.

The prosecutor produced a number of circulars which he said Dunbar gave to him. These circulars described the company and its purposes. One of them stated that the company was chartered in Maine and had a capital stock of $50,000, fully paid up. The head office of the company, it was stated, was in Boston. The object of the company, briefly stated, was to utilize the waste ground sawmills and lumber yards by manufacturing and selling kindling material. It was claimed by the promoters of the company that the George C. Reid mill at Money Point and the Batchelder, two miles further up, had been secured by the company and that scrap lumber, shavings, saw-dust, slabs, etc., would be carried on barges to these plants and converted into kindling material.

The Shelley Fuel Company, of Philadelphia, was organized about the same time. Mr. M. Shelley, the general manager of this company, is the inventor of the Little Joller and Lighter Kinder, which is a box of kindling material about half the size of an ordinary shoe box. Mr. Shelley claims that Dunbar, who was advertised on the circulars as the Norfolk manager of the Northern-Southern Kindling Wood Company, came to him and showing him the circulars, got him interested in the enterprise, and a contract was entered into by which the company represented by Dunbar was to turn out 10,000 of those kindling boxes daily for Shelley. When the contract was made Dunbar secured from Shelley $250.

This story was fully told to Justice Tomlin by Mr. Shelley, who further said that he had let Dunbar have about $40 on his personal account, which he didn't have charged to him. Besides this he said he had spent between $400 and $500 in sending out his salesmen from Philadelphia to this section of the country.

Mr. Shelley told Justice Tomlin that he had investigated the company since coming to Norfolk and found that it had no plant at Money Point, and had no fuel there except some old water-soaked cord wood. He also claimed that it had not bought the Reid plant, nor leased the Batchelder plant.

Further interesting developments are promised.

TREASURER MERRY ARRESTED. George G. S. Merry, the treasurer of the company of which Dunbar is local manager, was arrested last night about 9:50 o'clock by Detective Childress, who found Mr. Merry at his home in the country beyond Berkeley.

The charge against Merry is the same as that brought against Dunbar, and is brought by the same man, M. Shelley.

At 11 o'clock last night Merry was bailed by Judge W. B. Martin, of the Court of Law and Chancery, in the sum of $250, with D. C. Ferguson as surety. Mr. Tazewell Taylor, who Merry employed to defend him, went to Judge Martin in company with Merry and Detective Childress.

Merry stated to Detective Childress that he had no fears whatever of the outcome of the case. He said the company of which he was treasurer has acted in good faith with Shelley, and that it will be ready shortly to deliver him the kindling boxes per contract.

BRIDGE WORK IN NORFOLK.

WORK ON ATLANTIC CITY BRIDGE—GHENT BRIDGE REPAIRS.

The work on the Atlantic City bridge, which is being constructed by the Edge-Moor Bridge Company, of Wilmington, Del., under the supervision of Mr. W. H. Taylor, Jr., of the City Engineer's office, is progressing very satisfactorily. About two-thirds of the under structure is completed. The foundation is of stone and concrete, and the bridge is fastly anchored at either end. It will be 300 feet long and will be one of the best structures of its kind in this vicinity.

The work of repairing the Ghent bridge is still held up because of the inability of the City Engineer to get any one to go ahead with the work. Councils referred this matter to the Finance Committee with full authority to act, and the expenditure of $5,150 has been authorized to complete the badly needed repairs to the bridge, but as bridge building firms are busy all over the country no one has yet been awarded the contract for this work.

The Holt street bridge, leading to Brambleton, will also be repaired shortly at a cost of $4,000.

Jail Commission to Meet. The special jail commission appointed by the Councils will meet to-morrow afternoon in the city treasurer's office, to begin the formulation of plans for a new city jail. This commission consists of Councilman D. J. Callahan, chairman; Councilman Edward Camp, Councilman P. Jacobs, Mayor C. Brooks Johnston, Judge of the Corporation Court Allan R. Hauckel, and City Engineer Brooke.

Came After Young Hart. Sergeant of Police Donahue, of Petersburg, came to the city yesterday morning and in the afternoon left with W. S. Hart, the young man who is wanted for film-flaming in that city.

Dr. Daniel Remedy Co., Richmond, Va.: Gentlemen—In reply to your letter of Feb. 24, inquiring about my health and results of your treatment for cancer, I have this to say: Your treatment of the cancer on my lip has been perfectly successful in every respect. It is now two years since you cured me and there are no indications of a return of it, and my general health is better than for several years past.

I will be glad to certify to these facts to any one who is suffering as I was. You are at liberty to refer to me at any time. Yours very truly, C. A. PETTIT.
