BERKLEY. Portsmouth Local

PRESENTED WITH A WATCH AND CHAIN.

Sunday morning after the usual lessons were gone through at Monumental Sunday School Mr. W. H. N. well arose and said that on behalf of the Sunday school he had been selected to present the superintendent, Mr. John H. Hall with a gold watch and chain, also a charm set with diamonds as a token of esteem in which he is held by them.

After paying Mr. Hall a number of compliments on the manner in which the school had been conducted under his jurisdiction he handed in the present. It was accepted by Mr. Hall in a graceful manner with a short speech and regrets at having to leave them.

THE BERKLEY GRADUATED SCHOOL. The next to be considered was Oak Grove school. Patrons were also present from that school with objections to Mrs. S. H. Cuthrell's re-election.
