RICHMOND NEWS AND GOSSIP

Gift to Governor from Chiefs of Pamunkey Indians.

ANNUAL PRESENTATION

A Deer and Turkey Given to the Chief Executive of the State—Decision in the State and United States Court of Appeals—After the Railroads—Richmond Locomotive Works to Exhibit at Paris.

Richmond, Nov. 22.—Chiefs Dennis and Brady, of the Pamunkey Tribe of Indians, presented a picturesque appearance this morning as they strode up the steps of the Executive Mansion bearing their annual tribute to the "Great Father" of Virginia, which consisted this year of a couple of deer and a large turkey.

There was quite an imposing ceremony when the presentation was made, the grave Redskins and the genial Executive vying with each other in politeness. The chiefs apologized for the smallness of their contribution, and laid before the Governor a complaint regarding the circumscribed reservation they now occupy.

The Attorney General, Hon. A. J. Montague, and D. Southall, Superintendent of Public Instruction, were included in the gift, receiving half a deer each.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT. In the United States Circuit Court of Appeals this morning the following cases were argued:

No. 327. German steamship "Lt. Georg." Appellant vs. Wilnot D. Porcher, appellee; cross-appeals from District Court of South Carolina, was argued by J. N. Nathans, of Charleston, S. C., for appellant and by A. M. Lee, of Charleston, S. C., for appellee, and submitted.

The first case for argument to-morrow morning is No. 328, Pickers Township, S. C. Plaintiff in error vs. Henry A. V. Post, defendant in error; in error to Circuit Court at Charleston, S. C.

THE SUPREME COURT.

The Virginia Court of Appeals was to-day occupied with the following cases:

Rouze vs. Daingerfield. Argued by H. I. Lewis and R. H. Bagby for appellant and Thomas E. Bakay for appellee and submitted.

Tunis Lumber Company vs. R. G. Dennis Lumber Company. Argued by Edward R. Baird for appellant and continued until to-morrow.

Southern Railway Supply Company vs. Pyrites Mining Company; dismissed.

The next cases to be called are Sanders vs. Coleman, Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company vs. Clements and Nalle, etc., vs. Farish and als. Nos. 15, 16 and 17.

It is expected that a number of important opinions will be handed down to-morrow by this court.

MARRIAGES.

Mr. William H. Felthaus, one of Richmond's best known young men, and Miss Annie M. Heeke were married this morning at St. Mary's Church. The bride is the charming and attractive daughter of Mrs. Mary E. and the late Joseph Heeke, and enjoys the acquaintance of a large circle of friends. The groom is well known and popular and is the cashier and bookkeeper of the United Banking and Trust Company.

AFTER RAILROADS.

The Railroad Commissioner of Virginia has instituted legal proceedings against the Richmond, Petersburg and Carolina, the Big Stone, the Marion and Rye Valley and the Tuckahoe and James River railroads for failure to file their annual reports as required by law. The statute provides a penalty of $500 fine for failure or refusal to comply.

WILL EXHIBIT AT PARIS.

The Richmond Locomotive and Machine Works will have an exhibit at the Paris Exposition in the shape of the engines which are now building at this plant for the Finnish and Swedish governments.

Each of these powers desire that one of the engines so constructed shall be placed on exhibition at the Paris Exposition in 1900. The splendid product of these works will, therefore, be placed where all the nations of the earth can be convinced of the skill of the American mechanic.

NEWPORT NEWS.

TO HANDLE NAVAL STORES—RAILWAY IMPROVEMENTS.

Newport News, Va., Nov. 22.—The contract to handle all naval business between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts has been awarded the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company; also the contract to handle all naval business to and from all Western points and Newport News and Norfolk.

These contracts have been awarded by the United States Government for the ensuing fiscal year.

This is the Chesapeake and Ohio's victory and the service in handling this business has been favorably commented upon. During the past year much of this business has been carried over the Chesapeake and Ohio and connecting lines.

This means that hereafter all of the material for the ship-yard and for the naval base at the Norfolk Navy-yard will be shipped over the Chesapeake and Ohio to this city. As this business amounts to something in the course of a year, the contract is a big one for the Chesapeake and Ohio.

RAILROADISTIC.

The electric railroad force is busy to-day putting in the cross tracks at the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Lafayette avenue. The track on the avenue has been laid from Twenty-fourth to Twenty-fifth street. A piece of the Twenty-fifth street track had to be raised to the grade, having sunk a little where the sewer was put down.

PETERSBURG.

TO BE HANGED—SUCCEMBED TO INJURIES.

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 22.—Junius Robinson, the negro who shot and killed W. M. Jolly, in Dinwiddie county, some weeks ago, was tried in the County Court of Dinwiddie to-day. He was convicted of murder of the first degree and was sentenced to be hanged in the County Jail January 2d next. The murder for which Robinson was convicted was a most brutal one. Jolly, who was a prominent farmer and merchant doing business near Dinwiddie County Court House, had prohibited Robinson and other negroes from passing through his premises on the day of the shooting. Jolly again saw Robinson passing through his lands, and when ordered off the negro became very insulting and drew a pistol, with which he shot Jolly in the abdomen, inflicting a wound which caused death shortly afterward. Threats of lynching the murderer were made and, by order of Judge Epps, of the County Court, he was brought to Petersburg and committed to the jail here, and was kept here until taken to Dinwiddie for trial. Robinson was again brought to Petersburg to-night and committed to jail, where he will be kept until the day of his execution.

KILLED BY CONSTABLE.

Walter Mitchell, colored, who was shot in Chesterfield county yesterday by Constable Fond, while attempting arrest and attempting to shoot the officer, died of his injuries this morning. The ball passed through his stomach, lung and intestines. The doctors who made the post mortem examination discovered that Mitchell had previously been shot, and found buckshot under his skin.

HAMPTON.

THE ELKS' MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES.

Hampton, Va., Nov. 22.—The committee having in charge the program for the Memorial Day exercises of Hampton Lodge No. 372, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, which will be held in the Soldiers Home Theatre Sunday afternoon, December 3d, are preparing quite an excellent program.

The services which are observed annually by the Elks in commemoration of the deceased members of the local lodge, are always largely attended, and the Hampton people will undoubtedly find this one of unequalled pleasure.

The body will issue invitations to the friends of the order and admission will be strictly by card.

Rev. Baker P. Lee, Jr., son of Judge Baker P. Lee, of this city, will deliver the principal address on the occasion. Mr. Lee is one of the brightest young ministers in the Episcopal Diocese of Tennessee and his appearance on this notable occasion will lend no little interest to the memorial exercises. On Wednesday night, November 29th, Hampton Lodge will make Mr. Lee a member of their body by conferring the degree of Elkdom upon him, which will also have a tendency to make the observances of the time honored and lovingly precepts taught by the lodge in gathering together once a year to pay their tributes to those members who have passed away of more than passing interest.

Chronic Dyspepsia

Cured by the New Treatment.

IT IS GUARANTEED.

Philadelphia, June 6, '99. The R. T. Booth Co.: Dear Sirs—I have suffered with chronic dyspepsia for years and NOTHING would relieve me. Doctored with the best physicians and grew worse under their treatment. Suffered from acid stomach and experienced the greatest distress after eating. Could not sleep and was very miserable. I have used but two boxes of the Hyomei Dyspepsia Cure and am now perfectly well. I recommend it to all my friends who are suffering with the same complaint. Very respectfully, MRS. LIDIA McLANE MILLS, 1539 Vine street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Hyomei Dyspepsia Cure is Unlike Any Other.

It treats each phase of the disease separately, and contains the only germicide known, which can be taken internally and without danger and yet destroy the bacilli which cause intestinal indigestion (the most dangerous form of dyspepsia). Hyomei Dyspepsia Cure is the only one ever GUARANTEED. Your money is refunded if it fails to cure. Price, 50c. All Druggists. One day's treatment sent free to any address on receipt of stamp. THE R. T. BOOTH COMPANY, Ithaca, N. Y.

TOWN OF SUFFOLK

Miss Cutchin Becomes the Bride of Mr. Cutchin.

The Coroners Jury Finds that Mr. Freeny Died by His Own Hand—A Quiet Marriage—Obsequies—Other News Matter.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Suffolk, Va., Nov. 22.—There was a very pretty church marriage this afternoon at South Quay. The Rev. J. E. Jones was the minister and the Baptist Church the place. At 3:30 o'clock Miss Mary Cutchin, daughter of Mrs. A. Cutchin, became the bride of Mr. Braxton M. Cutchin.

Linwood Cutchin was best man, and Miss Lydia Daughtrey maid of honor. The ushers were R. G. Camp, C. R. Rawles, J. M. Robertson and T. L. Daughtrey. The other attendants were W. C. King, with Miss Susie Gardner; P. R. Camp with Miss Nellie Williams; Harry Ashburn with Miss Ethel Howell; J. A. Cutchin with Miss Nannie Miller; Bew W. Council with Miss Rosa Gay; Jasper Daughtrey with Miss Christine Rawles; J. E. Johnson with Miss Minnie Joyner; J. Frank Cutchin with Miss Cora Ashburn. Little Miss Emma Ashburn Cutchin was ring bearer. The church auditorium was decorated.

The bride was attired in white silk. She carried a lovely bouquet of white carnations. The maid of honor wore pink organdy and the other bridesmaids blue organdy.

There was a 6 o'clock reception at the home of the bride's mother, where a bounteous dinner was served. The honeymoon was postponed by reason of the groom's father's illness. Both principals are well liked. They will live near Auguste.

THE CORONER'S VERDICT.

The Coroner's jury which was summoned yesterday to view the remains of the late James C. Freeny, whose body was found at his distillery near Suffolk, met again to-day in the Mayor's office, City Hall building. They didn't bring out anything later than that already told in the Virginian-Pilot. The verdict agrees that the deceased came to his death as a result of some poison administered by his own hand. They did not learn what sort of drug it was. The leaf bearing Mr. Freeny's death statement was torn from the deceased's memorandum book and pinned to the verdict. It becomes a part of the record.

They have not yet heard the whereabouts of Mr. Freeny's daughter and her husband, who are now away on their honeymoon. They are expected home Friday, whether they be reached by wire or not. The funeral will likely happen that day.

A QUIET MARRIAGE.

Mr. Jesse E. Rawles, 54 years old, a merchant on Kilby street, was this afternoon married to Mrs. Virginia C. Duke. The ceremony was performed by Dr. W. W. Staley at the home of the bride's father, Mr. John Turlington. Only a few relatives and friends of the persons were present. Mr. Rawles drove his bride to Suffolk. They will live on Kilby street, near the head of North.

SMALL TROUBLES.

John Allen, of the county, had a hearing before Justice George E. Bunting to-day on the charge of stealing tools. The warrant was dismissed.

Hurricane Branch to-day caught David Bowser riding a Norfolk and Western coal train and put him under arrest. Justice Eley made it thirty days despite the fact that Bowser is an employe. Employes must have passes, walk or go to jail.

JOSIAH WILKINS' FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Josiah Wilkins took place this afternoon from the home of Dr. Harrell, near Cypress Chapel. The deceased was the father of Mrs. Felix Brinkley, Suffolk; Mrs. S. A. Baker, Georgia; Mrs. Dr. Harrell, Nansemond county; Mrs. Mills E. Gay, Nansemond county.

SAID OF PERSONS.

Dr. H. Dunston, of Windsor, N. C., was in Suffolk last evening.

Miss Ida Bowen, of California, who had been entertained by Mr. Joseph Bowen's family, left this afternoon to visit relatives at Delmar, Del.

M. Jones & Son got a police overcoat contract yesterday at $22.

Rev. J. F. Love and the lay delegates from Suffolk have returned from a meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Dr. A. W. Eley has returned from the Petersburg Methodist Conference.

Mr. West Lloyd, of Norfolk, was in Suffolk to-day as a guest of his brother, Mr. M. F. Lloyd.

Mr. G. L. Holloman, of Rich Square, N. C., was in town to-day.

Mr. C. J. Dennis has returned from a short trip to Norfolk.

Mr. L. W. Jordan was thought to be a trifle better to-day.

Mrs. Charles R. Brothers has one of the biggest turkeys ever seen in Suffolk. It was grown by Mr. Frank E. Parker, of Cypress Chapel.

The County Supervisors will have their regular November meeting to-morrow.

LEHIGH AND VIRGINIA FOOT-BALL GAME.

Charlottesville, Va., Nov. 22.—Only nine days remain now before these two great teams will fight for supremacy of the gridiron. A great game will be expected, and a large crowd will fill Broad Street Park, the scene of so many royal battles, in the days gone by. This game will no doubt be one of the hardest and fiercest ever seen on a Virginia gridiron. Both teams are strong and well trained. Lehigh held Cornell down to one touch down, while Cornell held the old Tigers from Princeton down to two touch downs.

Virginia has taken such a brace that one would not believe it, the same unfortunate team that started out in the early part of the season. This fact was evident from the two last games played, the great game with Blacksburg, heralded as the finest team in the South, which was snowed under by a score of 23 to 0; then the game last Saturday, although at a disadvantage in weight, and with the star player, Geistle, knocked out after five minutes' play. With these handicaps the Orange and Blue played a great game and stubbornly held their own, and prevented a score.

The team is under the coaching of one of the greatest quarter-backs in the business, Archie Hoxton, of the famous '94 team. His name is a familiar one to a great number of Virginia alumni, and his work cannot be too highly complimented.

Geistle, the star half-back, who was injured by the unnecessary roughness of the Georgetown men, is getting along all o. k., and will be in the game Thanksgiving Day. Lankford, of Norfolk, will probably play the other half. For quarter we have two excellent men, Shilley and Nalle. Both handle the team well, and inspire confidence and grit into the boys.

Captain Summersgill and Lloyd, both excellent men, and at the same time very heavy, can be expected to hold down the positions of left and right tackle to the satisfaction of all. Both are old men, and everyone knows from their brilliant work what they are capable of doing. Haskell and Griffin, as guards, have been playing great ball, and can be expected to hold their own. Taylor, of Norfolk, and McGill, are the two ends. Both played a plucky game at Washington Saturday. They tackle well, and their playing is marked by an unusual amount of grit. Both play hard ball throughout the game. Our full-back, Coleman, is the finest punter Virginia has ever had, not excepting the great Pope. The only spot on the team that is at all weak is our center, and it is hoped he will take a brace. From his work the last few days there is some improvement.

As a whole the team is a strong one, and, as shown Saturday, is capable of playing great ball, and a great game can be expected next Thursday. It is hoped that a large delegation from Norfolk will go up on the excursions. This is a big day in Richmond, and all who go have a gala day of it. With a loyal crowd cheering them on the boys from the Old Dominion will fight hard and the Orange and Blue will come off, as in past years, floating their pennant of victory.

Root for the team: Wah, hoo, wah, Wah, hoo, wah! U-n-i-v, Vir-gin-i-a, Hoo, rah, rah; hoo, rah, rah, Rhay! Rhay! U-V-A!

ROANOKE.

GREAT RELIGIOUS REVIVAL IN PROGRESS.

Roanoke, Va., Nov. 22.—A great religious wave is overspreading Roanoke, and a great interest is being manifested by the people of all classes and conditions regarding their spiritual welfare. A most successful revival has just closed at St. James Methodist Episcopal church, South, where an unusually large number of souls were converted. The meeting was conducted by W. H. Williams.

Rev. Dr. Leftwich, of Nashville, Tenn., is conducting a revival service at Greene Memorial Methodist Episcopal church, South, preaching twice each day, and much interest is being manifested.

At the Christian church, Rev. S. R. Maxwell, of Richmond, is conducting a most successful series of revival services. There have already been a large number of conversions, and the services will be continued throughout the week. At the First Presbyterian church Rev. Dr. Pearson, evangelist, is drawing hundreds of people, many of whom are being turned away for want of room. Dr. Pearson is a powerful speaker, and his presence will long be remembered by the church-going people of Roanoke.

At Trinity Methodist Episcopal church South, an interesting revival is in progress, being conducted by Rev. H. C. Morrison, evangelist, assisted by other local ministers. It is understood that a series of meetings will begin on Sunday night at Grace Methodist Episcopal church, South, to be conducted by Rev. T. F. Fishburne, assisted by others. Rev. T. M. Green, the pastor, has not sufficiently recovered from his recent illness to be able to participate in the meeting.

LADY'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Mrs. John W. Johnson had a narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon at the Terry building. She had some legal business on the second floor. The elevator was in the fifth floor, and she opened the door on the ground floor and stepped on the platform, being under the impression that she was in the proper place to get on the elevator when it arrived. N. L. Taylor, a lawyer from Welch, was standing nearby, but paid no attention to what occurred, until he saw the elevator rapidly descending on the lady. He yelled to the elevator boy and the woman screamed. The boy quickly reversed the elevator and the lady escaped with a sprained wrist and a shock of the nerves.

WHEELER AND LEE. WHAT THEIR CHICAGO ADMIRERS ARE DOING. (By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.) Chicago, Nov. 22.—A meeting of the women who wish to honor Major-Generals Joseph Wheeler and Fitzhugh Lee was held last evening in the parlors of the Auditorium Hotel. Those interested in the project have organized themselves into an association called the Lee and Wheeler Movement, and have elected as president Mrs. Annie Marie de Breck, and as secretary Mrs. Louise Abbott. Letters have been sent out to the members of Congress, asking them to use their influence in getting appointments for Wheeler and Fitzhugh Lee as major-generals in the Regular Army. It is the intention to raise a sufficient fund, with which to purchase a gift sword for each of the officers named.

Dististinguished Georgia Dead. (By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.) Macon, Ga., Nov. 22.—S. B. Price, of Macon died this afternoon of intus suspension complicated by peritonitis. An operation was performed early this morning at the Macon hospital. Mr. Price was one of the most widely known public men in the state. He served with distinction in the Confederate army. His connection with the city government dates back to 1874 and he was elected mayor in 1884, which position he has occupied continuously with the exception of two years, 1894-1895, when he was legislated out of office. Those years he served as postmaster of Macon under the Administration of President Cleveland. Saved From Water Grave. (By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.) Baltimore, Md., Nov. 22.—The Donaldson Line steamship Lokania, Captain McNeal, arrived at this port this morning with the crew of the British steamship Manchester Enterprise, which foundered on November 15, 480 miles southeast of Cape Race. The rescued men number fifty-three, of whom nine are cottonmen returning from Liverpool. The Manchester Enterprise sprung a leak during a severe gale on November 13th.
