PEOPLES' FORUM.

NOTE.—The People's Forum being freely open to all parties, classes, persons, views and capacities, the Virginian-Pilot is responsible for none of the statements nor opinions expressed therein, nor for the style in which they are set forth. The ignorant and uneducated shall be heard here equally with the learned.

WHAT WILL THE COUNCIL DO?

Portsmouth, Va., Dec. 4, 1899. Editor Virginian-Pilot: I am very grateful for your prompt publication of my letter of last week, in relation to the Portsmouth Pig Point and Newport News Railway and Ferry Company, and beg that you will give me space now to address a few words to our City Council.

In addressing you this way, gentlemen, I trust you will understand that it is wholly attributable to my inability to attend the meeting of your honorable body to-morrow night, when, if permitted, I would give my views on a question so important to our city. I am satisfied that you gentlemen are more than anxious to know the wishes of the people in regard to the privilege of the Portsmouth, Pig Point and Newport News Railway and Ferry Company, now the Hampton Roads Development Company, so that you may act advisedly in the premises. Now, while I do not claim that my letter of last week on the same subject disclosed originally as to the reasons why this right of way should be granted by the city, I do know, from its general approval, it touched a chord so responsive that I may safely say, save a few exceptions, the people favor the grant. Especially are our business men deeply concerned. They are fully advised, and, therefore, appreciate the advantages our city will acquire by securing one of the terminals of this company. Apart from the fact that they regard this as the initial step towards business relations with the Chesapeake and Ohio railway, of incalculable value to them in the near future, they know they would have, by granting to this company a right of way down High street, the advantage of a land and water line of traffic to New York, twelve or fifteen miles less than any similar road now in operation. Such an advantage need not be discussed, gentlemen, for you to understand why they favor the road. They are not hostile to the Port Norfolk road, as their grant, through your honorable body, of the right of way through London, Middle, County, and several other streets, abundantly prove. But they do think, and say, with the greatest respect, that the city should multiply, rather than cripple, its commercial facilities, when there is much to gain and nothing to lose. There is plenty room here, gentlemen, for another electric road; and the people, having confidence in your desire and purpose to legislate for the best interest of the city, are persuaded that your honorable body will not overlook the fact that, to give the Port Norfolk company the right of way down two blocks on High street, which will lessen their distance only four blocks, would virtually bar the entrance of any other similar line of traffic to this city, which would cripple them, naturally, to seek terminals elsewhere to the prejudice of our people.

Respectfully,
K. R. GRIFFIN.

PORTSMOUTH'S NEW PREACHERS

Rev. Arthur C. Thompson, Trinity's New Pastor.

RAWLINGS AND BOOKER

French to Overflowing Congregation Creating a Favorable Impression Among the Large Number of Church Goers—Rev. Waterfield Expects to Wind Up Work this Year With a Great Jubilee.

The services in many of the churches in this city Sunday were of special interest and were attended by unusually large congregations. Especially was this the case at the Methodist churches, each of which has a new minister. Trinity Episcopal Church also has a new minister, and the services at that church, both morning and evening were very interesting. Rev. Arthur C. Thompson, the rector, officiated at both services. The new rector has a most admirable field in which to labor and the indications are that his going in and out among the people will largely increase the membership of "Old Trinity" and redound to the good of the cause in which he is so actively engaged.

Monumental M. E. Church was well attended, both morning and evening services. Rev. E. H. Rawlings, their new pastor, preached his initial sermon at 11 o'clock. At night the congregation was one of the largest that has attended this church for several years. The pastor preached a deeply interesting sermon, the theme being "Acceptable until God Which is Your Reasonable Service," from which he discoursed for about half an hour. The new pastor is a man of great ability and of deep piety. His appearance in the pulpit is entirely natural. His delivery is exceptionally fine. To sum up, he seems to be the right man in the right place.

At Wright Memorial Rev. George E. Booker, who succeeds Rev. R. B. Blankenship, preached to overflowing congregations both morning and evening. His discourses are highly spiritual and delivered with much force and eloquence. Mr. Booker is a man of good delivery, his appearance, attitude and gestures in the pulpit being entirely natural, and form a most pleasing attraction. The people of Wright Memorial, as a whole are very much impressed with their new pastor and look for a great work this conference year.

Central Church had three new accessions Sunday. Rev. W. C. Vaden preached at 11 o'clock and the pastor, Rev. R. F. Beadles, at night. Both sermons were of great spiritual power and proved of interest to the large concourse of people who heard them. Rev. D. B. Austin, the new pastor of Central Mission, divided his time during the day between Brighton and Cottage Place, preaching at 11 o'clock at the former and the latter at night. Mr. Austin is a young man and unmarried. His people are highly pleased and will make his stay among them a very pleasant one.

At Owen's Memorial Church the pastor, Rev. R. T. Waterfield, preached at 11 o'clock and Rev. W. C. Vaden at night.

At each of these services there were large congregations present. Mr. Waterfield has entered upon the fourth year of his pastorate at this church and says he expects to wind up the work of this conference year with a jubilee.

IN MEMORY OF THEIR DEAD.

Portsmouth Elks Held Their Annual Lodge of Sorrow Sunday.

Portsmouth Lodge No. 82, B. P. O. Elks, held its annual Lodge of Sorrow in memory of deceased members at Elks' Opera House Sunday afternoon, a very large concourse of people witnessing the solemn and impressive ceremonies.

On the stage, in ascending tiers, were grouped the members of the order, the front of the stage being artistically decorated with a profusion of palms and potted plants, with a stag's head, an emblem of the order, figuring conspicuously in the foreground, forming a magnificent spectacle.

The exercises were opened with a selection by the Naval Post Band, followed by the beautiful and impressive ceremonies as laid down in the ritual of the order. Exalted Ruler Charles R. Welton presiding over this part of the service. The opening prayer was offered by Rev. R. F. Beadles, pastor of Central Church.

The musical program opened with the quartette—"Even Me"—which was rendered in a most admirable manner by Mrs. J. Griff Edwards, Miss Virginia Griffin, Messrs. Richards and Anderson.

A tenor solo—"God of Love"—by Mr. James Duncan, followed next, the rendition of which was most pleasing to the assembled throngs. Ashford's "Abide With Me" was next heard. Mr. William Richards, whose mellow bass voice was at its best, rendering the selection with very fine expression.

The address was delivered by Mr. Harry M. Smith, Jr., of Richmond. Miss Abee J. Oliver was heard with a deal of pleasure in a contralto solo, as was Miss Flovina Martin, whose rich soprano has always proved an attraction, was shown off with fine effect in a solo which was well received by the audience. A baritone solo by Mr. Crowell was also one of the leading features of the program.

"The duet, an arrangement from "Il Trovatore," as sung by Mrs. Edwards and Miss Griffin, and the quartette from Gault's "The Holy City," rendered by Mrs. Warren and Miss Oliver and Messrs. Crowell and Richards, were exceptionally well rendered.

The ceremonies were closed with singing the doxology and the benediction by Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, pastor of the Fourth Street Baptist Church.

DEATH OF MR. SEAY.

Mr. Robert Seay, aged 60, a resident of Scottsville, died Saturday night at a late hour. His funeral was conducted yesterday afternoon from his late residence. Rev. Mr. Saunders officiating. The remains were interred in Oak Grove Cemetery.

CHURCH RECEPTIONS.

The Several New-Pastors of the City Highly Complimented. A formal reception was tendered Rev. George E. Booker, the new pastor, and his estimable wife. The Sunday school room was decorated with holly, long leaf pine and flowers, and presented a very attractive appearance.

The exercises were begun with a solo by Professor James H. Dunbar. Rev. W. C. Vaden in a few well chosen remarks formally introduced the new pastor and his family. Mr. Booker, responded in a most happy manner. Here followed a public reception, when each person present passed the center of the room, grasping the hand of the pastor and his family warmly. This was followed with a solo by Mr. Harry Butt.

Instrumental selections were then rendered by the Brescia Brothers and Professor Proeffer, with Miss Irene Etheridge pianist. There were also several vocal selections given during the evening, which were well received by those present. The musical program concluded with a solo by Miss Flovina Martin, accompanied by Professor Raphael Brescia and Mrs. Etheridge.

A bountiful repast, to which ample justice was done, came on later. The entire affair was a most signal success. Everyone present seemed at top notch of enthusiasm, and the high tide of prosperity seems likely to attend the efforts of Wright Memorial people through the coming conference year.

A reception was last night tendered Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, pastor of the Fourth Street Baptist Church, and his bride.

The Sunday school room, in which the exercises were held, was tastefully decorated with holly, autumn leaves and mistletoe. The tables, which fairly groaned under the weight of good things, were decorated with potted plants and banquet lamps.

During the course of the evening a select musical program was rendered by well known talent of the city. The members and friends of the church, who were present in goodly numbers, were introduced to Mrs. Fisher by the officials of the church. It may be said that the entire affair was a most pleasing success and highly beneficial to the church.

One of the most striking features of the occasion was an exceptionally large number of the Sunday school children present. Mrs. Fisher was presented with a handsome bouquet of flowers by one of the small girls of the school.

A reception was tendered last night to Rev. Mr. Rawlings, the new pastor of Monumental Church, by the ladies of the church. A large number of the members of the church and a number of others were present, and warmly welcomed both the pastor and his wife to their new home. The reception was held in the lecture room of the church from 8 to 10 o'clock, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion.

MEETING OF BOARD OF HEALTH. The Board of Health held their regular weekly meeting last night, with the following members present: E. L. Lash, president; Walter Clark, E. R. Barksdale, E. A. Wood.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Sanitary Inspector submitted his report for the week, showing a number of nuisances abated. He reported the city in good sanitary condition.

NEW BUSINESS. The president stated that a contract had been signed with the Bell Telephone Company to put a 'phone at the pest house.

On motion of Mr. Barksdale, the clerk was instructed to notify the Council that the almshouse keeper had refused the board the use of the 'phone at an independent 'phone run, and that they had no further use for other 'phone.

All properly approved bills were allowed.

On motion, adjourned.

MEETING OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS. The Board of Police Commissioners held their regular monthly meeting last night, with the following members present: Hon. J. T. Baird, president; R. F. Taylor, Dr. L. A. Bilsoly, W. A. Green and James O. Shannon.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The resignation of Officer Meginley was read and accepted. Mayor Baird made a statement to the board complimentary to Officer Meginley, saying that he had been a faithful and diligent officer; he had been on the job for thirteen years, and had never had a charge preferred against him, and had never received a reprimand of any kind. On motion a resolution was passed commending him for this record, and it was ordered to be placed upon the minutes and a copy of the same to be forwarded to him in Richmond.

The name of several gentlemen was presented for the position made vacant by Mr. Meginley's resignation. Mr. Archie Michone having received three out of the five votes cast. He was declared elected.

There being no other business the board adjourned.

FUNERALS SUNDAY.

The funeral of Mrs. Kate Fahy took place Sunday afternoon from St. Paul's Chapel. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Hanley, after which the remains were taken to St. Paul's Cemetery for interment. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Charles Shrier, Mallica Higgins, John Walsh, Thomas Casey, Michael Shea and John P. Dolan.

The remains of little Lorena Craig, age 6 1/2 years, arrived here from Franklin Sunday and were taken to Oak Grove Cemetery for interment. The funeral services were conducted at the grave by Rev. Father Thomas J. Brady.

MRS. GEOGIANNA TURNER DEAD. Mrs. Geoganna H. Turner, wife of Mr. A. E. Turner, died at the residence of her husband, on Chestnut street extended, at 3:45 o'clock yesterday morning, in the 39th year of her age.

Mrs. Turner, who has been a great sufferer for years, leaves a husband and one son, Mr. William Turner, to mourn their loss.

The funeral will take place from the residence at 10 o'clock this morning.

GIVEN A RECEPTION.

Mr. Harry M. Smith, Jr., of Richmond, prominent Elk, who delivered the memorial address at the Elks' Lodge of Sorrow Sunday, remained over until yesterday, when he was tendered a reception by a number of the members of the order. Mr. Smith is well pleased with his treatment here and thinks that the Portsmouth Elks know how to treat a brother.

CONCERT TO-NIGHT.

The high class concert to be given under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary will take place this evening at the Elks' Opera House. A select program will be rendered by the following persons, who are well known artists: Miss Ethel Neely, Mrs. A. S. Porter, Miss Sue Russell, Mr. William Richards and Mr. E. D. Fisher. The tickets are 50 cents for any part of the house and can be secured at the Y. M. C. A. building, from any member of the auxiliary or at the door. It is safe to predict that this will prove to be one of the most enjoyable events of the season.

BANNER CLASS.

The following were the banner classes at Monumental Methodist Sunday School for the month of November:
