

A STUPENDOUS JANUARY CLEARING SALE

LEVY BROS.

BEGINS HERE TO-MORROW MORNING

When you may expect the greatest values. We intend this to be a Genuine Clearing Sale, to surpass any we ever inaugurated. Not of odds and ends and broken sizes, but from beginning to end of this great stock, your choice at such low prices that will surprise the most sceptical. In spite of rising prices, our already low prices will be cut deep. We need the room, we also need the cash. Inventory time is near, and thousands of dollars' worth of Spring Goods waiting for room. These causes combine to give you this bargain chance. These price hints give a faint idea of the many bargains. We advise early selection, as this will be a continuous sale, and we can't duplicate these bargains when closed out. Sale begins Monday at 8 o'clock.

C.; Miss Fannie Caliper, of Norfolk; Miss Rebecca Nash, Miss Maupin, Misses Le Grand, Miss Willie Ashton, Miss Mary Kings, Miss Miss Winfred Wattr, Miss Essie Wilson, Miss Marguerite Ames, of the navy yard; Miss Lois Wright and Miss Lois Wemple.

Miss Mary Lou Gray entertained a few friends informally New Year's evening at her home, in Bute street, in honor of her guest, Miss Katherine Parr, of Holford City. Those who received the callers were Miss Gray, Miss Parr, Miss Mary Francis Doyle and Miss Mary Bull. The gentlemen present were Mr. Edward Henry, Mr. Emmet Brown, Mr. Percy Jones, Mr. William Gresham, Lieutenant Charles Stansworth, Mr. Marshall Payne, of Petersburg; Mr. James Payne and Mr. Hugh Henry.

The New Year's german given by the Senior German Club at the Montefiore Hall Friday evening, though not up in brilliancy to the Christmas dances of a week before, was a function of great charm and attraction. The Naval Post Band, as usual, played the music, and Mr. Wallington Hardy, in his skillful manner, led the german. At 9:30 o'clock the whistle was blown, and the luncheon preceded the cotillon, followed by many pretty figures. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nelson Page, Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Burwell and Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Dohie were the characterons. A delightful menu, consisting of Lynnhaven oysters, celery, pickle, chicken croquette, green peas, stewed oysters, sherry, sweetbread, patties, olives, icecream, cake, conserves, coffee, chocolate, apple-toddy, prepared by Caterer Pincus, was partaken of at half-past 11, and followed by dancing until 1 o'clock.

Miss Carolyn Cohn entertained Miss Louise Jones, Miss Nan Freeman, Miss Katherine Newbill, Miss Addie Pigman, William Burrall, Davis Jordan, Thomas and Hugh Page, Baldwin Myers and Herman Cohn Tuesday evening at her home on Botetourt street in honor of her guest, Miss Anna Rice, of Philadelphia. The occasion was a sugar stew, and lots of fun was to be had in watching the candy boil and pulling it to the desired whiteness.

Miss Virella Jones entertained a number of her friends very delightfully Monday evening at her home on Bute street. There were four tables of whist, one at which crokinole was played and one table of carrom. Miss Louise Shelden won the ladies' prize, a ymagrette, and Mr. Linton Jones was awarded a card-case as the gentleman's prize. The consolation prize was drawn for and won by Mrs. Greenwood. A bountiful repast was then served. Those who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Greenwood, Miss Louise Sheldon, Miss Lillian Simcoe, Miss Ethel Simcoe, Miss Cora Pollard, Miss Josephine Nottingham, Miss Eloise Hayden, Miss May Cannon, Miss Nannie Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nash, Mr. John Richardson, of Portsmouth; Mr. James Warren, Mr. Arthur Hall, Mr. Henry Urquhart, Mr. William Jones, Mr. Samuel Pollard, Dr. Walter Pollard, Dr. Robert Griffith, Mr. A. L. Jones, Mr. Baker, of Portsmouth; Mr. Herbert Holland, Dr. Paul Jones and Mr. Mat Land.

Miss Virginia Newton gave a very delightful party Monday evening at her home on Freemason street. There was a grab-bag, in which was a present for each of the guests as a souvenir of this delightful New Year's party. Delightful refreshments were served, a huge bowl of egg-nog being very much in evidence. Games of all descriptions, such as Up Jenkins, Going to Jerusalem, and so forth, were indulged in, and merrily did the minutes fly. Among the guests were General and Mrs. Groner, Mrs. Berry, Mrs. Ramsey, Mrs. Grandy, Miss Emily Baker, Misses Kensett, Miss Elizabeth Freeman, Miss Eloise Chamberlaine, Mr. George Loyall, Mr. Edward Brockenbrough, Dr. McCurdy, Lieutenant Gilmer, Messrs.
