THE OFFICERS' BALL
Norfolk's Contingent Barred by Wind and Seas.

A Beautiful Function at Old Point, Which is Greatly Enjoyed, Though the Storm Prevents Many Distinguished Guests' Attendance.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.) Fort Monroe, Va., Feb. 21.—Despite the inclement weather last night the officers ball at Hotel Chamberlin was a grand success. The beautiful ball room had been tastefully decorated for the occasion with flags of various nations, and the stately pillars were trimmed effectively with draperies of white and blue, while similar draperies decorated the spacious dome. The musicians' platform was screened around by potted plants and greenery and also by flags. A pleasing feature here was the introduction into the decoration theme of several brass mortars of 1864 and stacked arms supporting the national colors. The music was furnished by the Fort band and a most charming musical program was presented. The attendance was about 300 and the ball room presented a beautiful sight with the many officers in full uniform and beautiful ladies in charming gowns. Among the throng of beauty were a number of debutantes of the season, who added to the loveliness of the occasion. The dance program was as follows:

Supper.
Dancing ceased at 12 o'clock, and was followed by a tempting supper in a style befitting the occasion and the Chamberlin Hotel. Mine Host Campbell had given his caterer carte blanche for the occasion and the supper was perfect. The committee having the ball in charge were as follows: Reception Committee—Gen. F. L.
Guenther, Miss Guenther, Mrs. Col.
Marye, Dr. and Mrs. O'Reilly, Mrs.
Lancaster, Mrs. Townsley, Capt.
Townsley.
Committee in Charge—Dr. O'Reilly, Capt. Alexander, Capt. Cronkhitt.
Floor Committee—Capt. Phillips, Lieutenant Granger, Lieutenant Embrick.
The distinguished guests from Washington, the Secretary of War and high officials, who were expected, did not arrive, but among those present were society people from New York, Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Boston, Philadelphia, and other leading cities.

NORFOLKIANS DISAPPOINTED.
The Mobjack came up to the dock with about one hundred couples from Norfolk, but as the sea was high and the night very rough the captain decided it was unsafe to land, so turned her around and went back to Norfolk.
The ladies of the Reception Committee were attired as follows: Miss Guenther, opal silk with violet velvet.
Mrs. Marye, spangled net over yellow satin.
Mrs. Lancaster, black and white brocade.
Mrs. O'Reilly, green moire, black lace.
Mrs. Townsley, lavender crepe de Chine.

HOTEL GUESTS.
Among the prominent people now stopping at the Chamberlin are General McCook and Mrs. McCook, U. S.
A., retired, who expect their daughter in a few days; Mrs. Col. Best, of New York; General Carlton and daughter, of Washington; Mrs. Capt. Bverett, of New York; Capt. C. M. Chester (who is to command the Kentucky), Mrs. Chester, and their son, Lieutenant and Mrs.
Gove; Mrs. Orrick and Miss Orrick, of Cumberland, Md., and Mr. Kaelyer and family, of Amsterdam, N. Y.
Among the prominent people who have left within the past few days are Lady Kirkpatrick, and Mrs. Cobell, and Mr. and Miss Wilson, of Canada; Mrs.
Letchworth and Miss Letchworth, of Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Turnbull, of Baltimore; Mrs. McCormick, of Chicago; Sol Smith Russell, Mr. Abner Mc-Kinley and Miss McKinley.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.
There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the W. C. T. U. yesterday morning. Since the school of methods the work seems to have taken on new life.
Several new members, both honorary and active, were received.
It was decided to rent the hall on A very interesting program was arranged for the reception to be given to the new members next Tuesday night at the residence of Mrs. J. L.

Belote, No. 200 Bank street. The program will embrace music, recitations and a delicious supper.
All the W. C. T. U. and Y are cordially invited to come and bring their friends, both active and honorary.

of Zenda."

WARD AND VOKES COMING.
The Ward and Vokes production of "The Floor Walkers," which comes to the Academy of Music for one performance only Wednesday, February 25th, is one of the novelties in the list of new fun shows this season. Ward and Vokes will be surrounded by such talent as Lucy Daly, Margaret Daly, Vokes, Hattie Bernard, the Chicago Ladies' Quartette, Will West, George Sidney and John W. Early. A fine chorus of pretty girls who can sing will be a feature.

ATLANTIC CITY.

LeKies Memorial M. E. Church was the scene of a beautiful and impressive nuptial event at 2:45 p. m. yesterday, the parties to the contract being Mr.
Samuel S. Green, of Norfolk, and Miss Carrie Lane Lambert, the accomplished daughter of Captain Harry J. Lambert, of Avenue A.
The pulpit and chancel of the church were tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and potted plants in commemoration of the auspicious event, and a large audience assembled to witness the marriage rite.
The bride was costumed in a rich mode colored go-away gown of golf cloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a bride nosegay. The groom wore conventional black.
The best man was the Rev. E. E.
Dudley, of Central Avenue Baptist Church, and the ushers were Messrs.
E. T. White, W. H. Mathews and M.
L. Peterson. They wore suits similar to that of the groom.

Promptly at the hour the bridal party arrived at the church and proceeded up the aisle in the following order: The best man and ushers two abreast, the bride, under escort of the groom, bringing up the rear, while the wedding march was skillfully executed on the organ by Prof. J. Pollard Rives. On arriving in front of the chancel the happy couple were met by Rev. Graham H. Lambert, by whom they were united in the bonds of holy wedlock according to the discipline of the M. E. Church, South.
The ceremony over, the bride and groom, accompanied by their attendants, took carriages for the Chesapeake and Ohio steamer's wharf, where, amid the waving of handkerchiefs and adieux, Mr. and Mrs. Green left on an bridal tour for Richmond, Chattanooga, Atlanta and New Orleans. They will be at home to their friends on Avenue A after the 7th of March.

BRIEF MENTION.
The meeting of the Atlantic City W.
C. T. U. yesterday afternoon was one of the most interesting held by the union for some time. The talks on temperance were spirited, awakening much enthusiasm for the cause on the part of all present.
The storm interfered much with the mid-week exercises at the several churches in the ward last night.
Two more marriages are to come off in the ward early in March.
Central Avenue Baptist Church is making satisfactory progress toward erecting their new edifice on Olney road. Those who are mostly interested in the enterprise hope to see the foundation commenced not later than next Monday.

BRAMBLETON.

The home of Rev. T. C. Whitehurst, on Grandview avenue, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding at 8:30 o'clock last evening, when Mr. Lancaster Pentecost led to Hymen's altar Miss Sadie A. Drumwright, a popular young lady of the ward. The bride was attired in a becoming suit of gray. The groom wore conventional black. Miss Mary Ferebee was the maid of honor.
She was costumed in a dress of black satin. Mr. Williams acted as best man.
After Mr. Whitehurst had concluded the marriage rite the happy couple left in a carriage for their future home, No.
413 West Highland avenue.
Mr. and Mrs. W. V. James have moved from Thalia, Va., and are residing with Mrs. Morgan McFarland, a sister of Mrs. James, No. 211 North Marshall street.
Miss Sue Russell will recite at Mrs.
Dudley's, on Lovitt avenue, to-night, on the occasion of the "Pink Tea" given for the benefit of St. Peter's Episcopal Church.
The revival at Spurgeon Memorial Baptist Church, which has been in progress for the past ten nights, is meeting with encouraging success.
There have already been twelve professions. Despite the severe rain storm last night, the exercises were fairly well attended and much interest manifested.
The Brambleton Democratic Club will put up in front of their club rooms on West Brambleton avenue a large transparency. This club will hold its regular meeting to-night.
At the meeting of the new Democratic club at Williamson's Hall to-morrow night a name for the club will be selected and by-laws for the government of the same adopted.
Those who are to participate in the entertainment to be given at Kirn Hall to-night for the benefit of Martha Washington Council, Daughters of America, had a very satisfactory rehearsal last evening.
Two-thirds of South Kelly avenue has been curbed, graded and laid with shells. With good weather the permanent improvements on this end of the street will be finished this week, and pedestrians will no longer have to trudge through mud and mire.

well as of distress. By taking a teaspoon-

WIND AND RAIN.

NORFOLK VISITED BY A SEVERE STORM LAST NIGHT.

Norfolk was visited last night by the severest rain and wind storm of the year. The extent of the damage will not be known until to-day, but it is supposed to be considerable. The wind attained a velocity of forty or fifty miles an hour and played havoc with signs, window blinds and glass, shade trees, swinging signs, etc.
The flagstaff was blown from the roof of Perrebe, Jones & Co.'s clothing house, Main and Commerce streets. In falling to the street it barely missed striking a passing car filled with passengers. Had it struck the car serious damage would probably have resulted.

The sign in front of Mr. W. W. Reid's store, in Roanoke avenue, was blown down and smashed a large window glass.

On East Main street a large tree was uprooted and thrown across the street car tracks.

Something struck the big electric light in front of No. 336 Main street, breaking the globe and carbon.

A middle-aged gentleman was blown to the pavement in front of the Monicello Hotel. His face was badly bruised, and he expressed fear that his arm was broken. He was removed to his home in a carriage. His name was not learned.

The steamer Mobjack, which carried the Norfolk contingent to Old Point to attend the ball last night, was unable to effect a landing on account of the wind and waves.

To the Citizens of Norfolk.

Cheer up, and awake to your labor; Don't waste the bright hours away;
For a better time is coming I predict it from to-day.

The fast-gliding moments are passing Forever beyond your recall, And God, in His wisdom, has given A work and a duty for all.

Go cheerfully forth to meet it, Wherever your lot may be cast;
Be diligent, earnest and faithful, And worthy of honor at last.

The path may be humble and lowly, With trials and sorrows to bear, But patience and cheerfulness always Take much from the burden of care.

There's a pleasure in work and in duty, With laziness out of the way—A pleasure most healthy and healing, That saves from the rust of decay.

In this day of hustle and progress, There's no time for foggy ideas;
ADVERTISE IN OUR BIG EDITION, And you'll save the labor of years.—
—HAL DAVID.

COL. DE VILLEBOIS-MARUEIL.

French Officer Who Conducts Boer Plan of Campaign.
(London Mail.)

The Boer authorities persistently represent Colonel De Villebois-Marueil, late of the French Army, as the accredited attache of the French Republic.
As a matter of fact, however, Colonel Villebois-Marueil has unquestionably entered the Boer army as an active officer, with the rank of a general, and with the heavy responsibility of revising, if necessary, improving upon the plan of campaign already worked out by General Joubert for the present operation. Indeed, he has been intrusted with the plans for defending Pretoria, when the bombardment of the Transvaal capital takes place.

Colonel de Villebois-Marueil was engaged by Dr. Leyds early in September, the negotiations having taken place at de Villebois-Marueil's castle, Bois Cor-be, in Brittany. It should be noted that he severed his connection with the French Army in 1896, and was at liberty to enter the service of any army he chose. His reasons for sending in his resignation to the French War Office were because he had been refused the command of the Madagascar expedition, and because the state affairs, which predominated in the French Army and the petty jealousies and intrigues which obtained in the Etat Major, were not to his taste.

In accepting the high position in the army of the South African Republic, he was actuated by none of those sentiments which characterize the French Anglophobe. On the contrary, Colonel de Villebois-Marueil's tastes are, in many respects, essentially English. He speaks English fluently; his daughter was under the tutelage of an English governess, and his tailor lives in a street off Hanover Square; while during his residence in Algiers, where he held the command of a division, he used to Being, however, only fifty—and a soldier at that age is in the prime of life—and essentially a fighting man with great talents for strategy and tactics, he eagerly jumped at the offer and the tempting remuneration held out to him by Kruger's representative. At the same time he thought it advisable to keep his engagement secret in order to elude the inquisitiveness of French officialdom, with which every Gaul, be he in the military or civil service, whether active or retired, remains to some extent in touch. With the exception of his friend, Comte de Rothays, and his daughter nobody was aware of the new career Colonel de Villebois-Marueil was about to embark upon.

A curious fact in connection with this officer is that the important role he was and is about to play has been hitherto obstinately ignored by those whose ambition it is to be informed on all matter. And yet it was Colonel de Villebois-Marueil who was responsible for the tactics displayed by the Boers at Colenso on the memorable 15th of December, and to whom alone was due the conception of the plan of fighting and the distribution of the troops along and around the Tugela River. Shalk Burger was merely a figurehead, a nominal substitute for the absent General Joubert.

The French press follow the movements of Colonel de Villebois-Marueil very closely, for which doubtless the Colonel is far from being grateful. The papers attribute to him all kinds of absurd statements of which the following is a fair sample. It is alleged to be an account, in the colonel's own words, of the loss of the squadron of Hussars after the battle of Glencoe.

"A regiment of Lancers (sic) disappeared completely in the course of a battle, and this is what happened to them: The English Lancers, after charging a Boer detachment, threw themselves upon the wounded, whom they massacred and despoiled. They were engaged in this abominable work of savagery when they were surprised by a Boer commando. Seeing themselves on the point of being annihilated, they raised the white flag, but in consequence of the atrocities they had been guilty of the Boers shot them down to the last man.

—This example—adds this venomous journal—has struck a terror into the English, who will not recommence their atrocities."

An old man's idea of a useful person is one who always has time to play a game of checkers.—Arlington Globe.

Little Pimples Turn
to Cancer.

Cancer often results from an impurity in the blood, inherited from generations back. Few people are entirely free from some taint in the blood, and it is impossible to tell when it will break out in the form of dreaded Cancer. What has appeared to be a mere pimple or scratch has developed into the most malignant Cancer.

"I had a severe Cancer which was at first only a few blotches, that I thought would soon pass away. I was treated by several able physicians, but in spite of their efforts the Cancer spread until my condition became alarming.
After many months of treatment and growing steadily worse, I decided to try S. S. S., which was so strongly recommended. The first bottle produced an improvement. I continued the medicine, and in four months the last little scab dropped off.
Ten years have elapsed, and not a sign of the disease has returned."

The One Great Remedy
To Take in the Spring.

DR. GREENE'S NERVURA

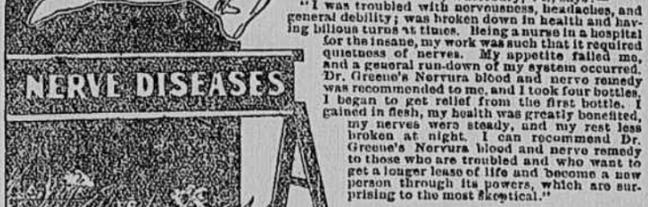

Blood and Nerve Remedy.
THE GRANDEST OF ALL SPRING MEDICINES.

"It Gives New Life to the Blood, New Strength to the Nerves."

Tingling with vigor—every vein pulsating with the rich, red blood of life—mind bright—nerves strong—digestion perfect—that's the way every man and woman in the world should feel—it's the way Dr.
Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will make you feel.

Among the hundreds of imitations that have risen around it, like the hungry waves of the sea, it has stood for years—staunch—sturdy—strong—a light-house pointing the way to the harbor of health over the jagged rocks of weakness and disease.
It doesn't matter what caused the trouble, or how long it has been running. Dr. Greene's Nervura will cure it.

Let dangerous drugs and narcotics alone. Take a remedy that has stood the test and that is backed by thousands of well people who were once nervous and physical wrecks. Remember that it is Dr.
Greene's Nervura that is making the world's sick well.

Mr. W. W. FARRMAN, Waterbury, Vt., says:— "I was troubled with nervousness, headaches, and general debility; was broken down in health and having bilious turns at times. Being a nurse in a hospital for the insane, my work was such that it required quietness of nerves. My appetite failed me, and a general run-down of my system occurred.
Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy was recommended to me, and I took four bottles.
I began to get relief from the first bottle. I gained in flesh, my health was greatly benefited, my nerves were steady, and my rest less broken at night. I can recommend Dr.
Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to those who are troubled and who want to get a longer lease of life and become a new person through its powers, which are surprising to the most skeptical."

Dr. Greene, 35 West 14th St., New York City, is the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He has remedies for all forms of disease, and offers to give free consultation and advice, personally or by letter. You can tell or write your troubles to Dr.
Greene, for all communications are confidential, and letters are answered in plain, sealed envelopes.
