have operated to make times better. The need of more money of ultimate redemption is not so sharply felt. The despotic tendencies of McKinleyism have alarmed the country.

He knows that the pains of the gold-standard will be sharply felt again in the next few years; he wants no remedy at hand in the shape of a Democratic bimetallic pledge.

There must still be a good deal of "magnetism" about an issue that throws a gold-bug into convulsions every time he touches it.

COERCION ALREADY BEGUN. The coercion of employees and of business subordinates is not a new feature in American politics.

It was in 1896 that this species of scoundrelism reached to the greatest magnitude. In that year hundreds of corporations all over the country threatened to discharge all employees who did not vote for Mr. McKinley.

Others threatened to cut wages if Mr. Bryan was elected; while yet others threatened to shut down entirely if the Democrats were victorious.

There were numerous cases where employees were forbidden to attend Democratic meetings, and others where Republican spellbinders were imported to whoop it up for Mr. McKinley.

These gentlemen who upheld the "country's honor" by bribery and bullying; by the tactics of a bully and the ethics of a thug, in 1896, have already begun preparations for the present year.

defence to the voters, to his ability to reflect the will of the majority in his actions, and to find that majority; to his energetic partizanship for the party and its success, and to his outspoken and ever-evident impartiality between rival candidates and disputes.

These observations naturally corae to us who observed closely the actions of the Second District Committee meeting. One cannot but feel that a sacrifice should have been made, if necessary, as a guarantee of the very good will that exists, or should have existed, in the Second District.

There seems to be prevalent the impression that the Democratic State Convention having declared for a revision of the Constitution, that there is nothing further to be done in assuring that result. The rest is taken for granted.

It is stated that the operation was entirely successful, and is one of the most remarkable on record. Former Consul Wildman hints that General Otis is either ignorant of the situation in the Philippines, or has been handling the truth carelessly.

While a benevolent administration is "assimilating" the Filipinos, it does not forget to starve a few Indians. The Klows, Comanches and Apaches have not dined for some weeks now.

There is a big row on in Havana between the candidates and the police, and the latter have been forbidden to carry revolvers. Now, if the former are forbidden to carry mouths there will be peace.

The attorney of Gaynor and Greene, who shared Captain Carter's $2,000,000 of loot, declares that the government was never defrauded. The attorney is right. It seems to have been a plain, robust case of steal.

Judge Lochren's decision that the Constitution extends to Porto Rico has been promptly assigned to the unkind cut department of the Administration archives.

If the Sultan had offered to buy an election through Mark Hanna instead a ship through Cramp, that little misunderstanding would doubtless have been straightened out promptly.

The scheme of satrapy government seems to require a great deal of cobbling. Mr. McKinley's Congress might provide itself with a "finishing department" with distinct benefit.

Hon. Webster Davis says President McKinley is in the hands of designing men. And Mr. Davis was for quite a while a part of the situation.

With Sam Jones and Eugene Debs both holding forth at the same time, Baltimore has been greatly puzzled to know which was the main tent.

Besides the not too friendly designs of Mark Hanna, Hon. Joe Foraker has a full-grown bullabalo with an Ohio preacher on his hands.

The New York and Texas having seen the duck-trousered pro-Consul safely ashore at San Juan, are back at Newport News.

"The Senate is becoming the most undignified body in the world," remarks the Washington Post. What has the Senate still if its dignity has vanished?

England is raising too much row over a few doctored dispatches from the seat of war. In America they have long been a "matter of course."

Lord Lansdowne can get a job lot of sympathy by application to Hon. Russell A. Alger.

The transformation is complete. George Dewey has taken to singing.

It is asserted that a real general has succeeded Otis in the Philippines.

cause a decline in the public revenues. In that case a relief of the people from taxes would enable them the better to overcome the evils of a business reaction. Besides, experience shows that a temporary Treasury deficit is less embarrassing and mischievous than an enormous surplus of revenue drained from the earnings of business and tempting to extravagant and wasteful expenditure.

MORE AMENDMENT NEEDED. (Houston Post.) It is suggested that Congress ought to perfect its discriminative work by amending the Porto Rican legislation so as to protect resident Americans in the island against that 15 per cent. duty on imports.

To Our Advertisers. The Virginian-Pilot is compelled to require that all advertisers desiring to change their advertisements in our Sunday edition furnish us with copy not later than 12 o'clock noon Fridays.

Every Remedy Had Failed, But He is Perfectly Well Now! "I HAD TRIED ALMOST EVERY CATARRH MEDICINE I ever heard of and ALL FAILED to cure me. My sufferings were severe and I was miserable indeed. I FELT ALL THE TIME AS IF THERE WAS A LUMP OF PHLEGM IN MY THROAT which I must hawk away. This kept me hawking all the time. My throat would get dry and sore and MY NOSTRILS FELT STUFFY AND CLOGGED UP. MY EARS KEPT RINGING AND SINGING CONSTANTLY AND MY EYES WERE SORE, WATERY AND WEAK. My appetite was very poor, and I was so bad off I couldn't sleep and WOULD GET UP IN THE MORNING AS TIRED AS WHEN I LAID DOWN AT NIGHT and didn't feel like working at all. I felt tired all the time and GOT EASILY FATIGUED. OFTEN I HAD A DULL HEADACHE WHEN I GOT UP IN THE MORNING. In this condition a FRIEND ADVISED ME TO BE TREATED BY DR. FREY, which I did, and HIS TREATMENT HAS MADE ME FEEL LIKE A NEW PERSON. MY APETITE IS EXCELLENT, SLEEP WELL, FEEL WELL, LIKE TO WORK, EARS AND EYES ALL RIGHT, ALL THE CATARRH SYMPTOMS GONE, BREATHE FREE AND EASY; IN FACT I FEEL ENTIRELY CURED. Before taking his treatment I USED TO LIE IN BED AN HOUR COUGHING AND HAWKING BEFORE I COULD GO TO SLEEP, BUT NO TROUBLE NOW. I certainly recommend Dr. Frey's treatment as the best Catarrh Cure."

FEAR A REACTION. (Philadelphia Record.) The opposition in Congress and in the administration to a reduction of war taxes is in the confessed fear that a reaction in business prosperity may cause a decline in the public revenues. In that case a relief of the people from taxes would enable them the better to overcome the evils of a business reaction. Besides, experience shows that a temporary Treasury deficit is less embarrassing and mischievous than an enormous surplus of revenue drained from the earnings of business and tempting to extravagant and wasteful expenditure.
