SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Beautiful Luncheon at the Country Club Yesterday

In Honor of the Countess de Moltke Hinfeldt—Miss Newton Complimented—Luncheon on the "Carmita"—An Eclipse Party—The Country Club—Pretty Children's Party—House Party—Social Items

In honor of her sister-in-law, the Countess de Moltke Hinfeldt, who was formerly Miss Bonaparte, of Baltimore, Mrs. Webster Edgar gave a beautiful luncheon yesterday at the Country Club. It was a course luncheon, and the decorations were pink roses.

Those who enjoyed Mrs. Edgar's hospitality, besides the guest of honor, were: Mrs. John Tilton, Miss Mabel Vaughan, Miss Virginia Wise, Mr. Geo. Bain, Mr. Lucien Starke, Mr. Harry Goodridge, and Mr. T. Goodridge.

IN HONOR OF MISS NEWTON.

Mrs. R. K. Crille gave a very pretty card party at her home in Ghent on Friday evening, in honor of Miss Virginia Newton.

Hearts was the game played and the ladies' prize, a book, was won by the guest of honor. The gentlemen's prize was won by Mr. Bain, and the booby fell to Dr. McCurdy.

In the dining room, where a tempting supper was served, the table looked lovely in its decorations of roses.

The guests were: Miss Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Jordan, Miss Gussie Newton, Miss Eloise Chamberlain, Dr. McCurdy, Mr. Collingwood Burrow, and Mr. George Bain.

LUNCHEON ON THE "CARMITA." In compliment to Mrs. Winn and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Winn, Mr. Lee Forest gave a luncheon on Wednesday last on board his beautiful yacht "Carmita." Mr. Wilson Ayre, of Philadelphia, was among the guests.

The "Carmita" was formerly owned by the Vanderbilts, and is one of the finest sailing yachts.

AN ECLIPSE PARTY.

A private card party came over from Roanoke on Monday last to witness the eclipse. In the party were Mrs. George Johnson, daughter-in-law of the general manager of the Norfolk and Western railway; Mrs. O. Leary, Mrs. Merrill and Mr. Merrill, assistant superintendent of the Norfolk and Western. They registered at the Monticello Monday and had a delightful visit with Mrs. Gordon McIntosh, returning home Wednesday evening by special car.

WILLARD-RYALS.

The marriage of Miss Edna Ryals and Mr. James A. Willard will take place on the evening of June 5th at the home of the bride, on Duke street. The attendants will be Miss Katherine Bentley, of Pulaski, Va., and Miss Annie Blount de Rossett, a cousin of the groom, of Wilmington, N. C.

Mr. E. G. Willard, a brother of the groom, will be the best man.

Among the out-of-town guests who will attend the wedding are Mrs. M. B. Willard, of Baltimore, mother of the groom, and Mrs. G. T. Williamson, of Graham, N. C.

THE COUNTRY CLUB.

The reception at the Country Club yesterday afternoon was of a delightfully informal character. The members were scattered here and there over the lovely grounds, and bowling and golf were enjoyed by many. Some of those who were present were the Countess de Moltke Hinfeldt, Mrs. Senator Echols,

Mrs. Atkinson, of Staunton, Mr. and Mrs. John Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Thom W. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hughes,

Captain and Mrs. Niles, Paymaster and Mrs. Eldridge, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Byrd Page, of Denver; Mrs. Holt Page, Mrs. Allen M. Cook, Mrs. Kennedy, Miss Elizabeth Lauder, Miss Louie Heath, Lizzie Freeman, Miss Fannie Leigh, Miss Bessie Chamberlaine, Miss Josephine Cook, Miss Nellie Little, Miss Alice Bland, Miss Ethel Reynolds, Miss May Nichols, Miss Bessie Allyn, Miss Emily Allyn, Miss Mabel Allyn; Misses Tyler, Mr. George Bain, Mr. Agelasto, Mr. Saunders Taylor, Mr. Torrence and Mr. Jones, of California.

A PRETTY CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Little Miss Eliza Battle Dancy was the hostess at a very pretty children's party on Friday evening at her home on Boush street. Games of various kinds were enjoyed and delightful refreshments served, the decorations being red roses. Those who were present on this happy occasion were Kitty Hardy, Honoria Mitchell, Lida Martin, Elois Waldrop, Ellen Waldrop, Gavin Morgan, Nina Rhodes, Bessie Payne, Pearl Rettew, Mary Payne, Margaret Pannill, Clara Godwin, Arnold Walke, Louise Taylor, Enan Taylor, Mary Walke, Elizabeth Walke, Lucy Quinby, Kitty Quinby, Alice Castle, Annie Brown, Leah Starke, Bessie Kelly, Lucy Thom, Annie Thom, Virginia Cook, Mary Herbert, Eliza Palmer, Bessie Corby, Grace Stanworth, Lelia Hobson and Hilda Francis.

HOUSE PARTY.

Complimentary to the G. G. Social Club, Mr. George Meredith is entertaining at a delightful house party at Virginia Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry B. Gordon and Mrs. Morton Gordon are the chaperones. Others who are enjoying this occasion are Misses Ashburn, Tatem, Mahone, Howlett, Whithead, Gertrude Gwinn, Gentile Gwinn, Messrs. Elliott Morris, F. Hancock, O. Edgerton, F. Hodgson, W. Meredith and W. Walters.

THE CHILDREN'S SINGING CLASS.

The home of Mrs. William T. Brooke, on Boush street, presented a very attractive scene on Wednesday afternoon, the occasion being the last meeting of the Children's Singing Class this season.

This organization is a very interesting one, and its high purpose, that of cultivating a love for good music among the children of Norfolk, is a credit to the city.

It will be difficult to fill the place of Professor Newton Fitz, its present director, who leaves in a few weeks for Boston, but Mrs. William T. Brooke, the promoter of the class, whose devotion to music is well-known, will use every effort to have it continued next winter under as able a director.

SOCIAL ITEMS.

One of the engagements recently made public, which has aroused much interest, is that of Miss Virginia Farrington Newton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Newton, to Dr. N. A. Auguston McCurdy. The Newtons are one of the best-known and most distinguished of the old Virginia families, and Miss Newton is one of the most popular young women in Norfolk. The wedding will take place the latter part of this month, and will be the largest and most fashionable of the June weddings.

Mrs. Lawrence Groner will leave this month to visit Mrs. V. D. Groner, at her cottage at Warm Springs.

Mrs. Jenkins is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Peggam, on Granby street.

Mrs. H. G. Leigh, of Petersburg, nee
