REVIEW OF MARKETS

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

Stocks, Money, Exchange, Bonds, Grain,

morning. American securities dealt in in London were-depressed all the way from a large fraction to 1½ below the closing price here on Tuesday. British consols had lost all but 1-16 of a full point, and French rentes had fallen sixty-five centimes from Tuesday's price. Such was the striking effect of the alarm felt in European markets over the pass to which the affairs in China have come.

To the alarm on account of the Chinese crisis must be added renewed uneasiness over the financial conditions at Berlin, where there was a condition bordering on panic both yesterday and to-day.

As the Berlin discount rates have declined on both occasions, it is evident that the forced selling there must be due to the same sort of discrimination against the nummerous brood of industrials as collateral which so acutely affected our own industrial stocks last December. Large amounts of the selling for London accounting had their initiative in Berlin.

The home market began to rally with increasing vigor after this selling had ceased. The depressing influence of

The home market began to rally with increasing vigor after this selling had ceased. The depressing influence of the Chinese situation was converted for home use into a factor of positive strength, and for the first time since the scare over the crop became an issue, the prices for wheat and for stocks advanced simultaneously. The argument was that in the event of extensive military operations in China, much material would have to be supplied from our Pacific coast. This served to raise the grangers well over Tuesday's level of prices. The rally in prices was conspicuously aided by manipulation on the part of the prominent bear leaders. There was much political prediction accompanying the professional operations. A rise of 5½ points in New Jersey Central further ed their efforts. The movement was accompanied by continued talk of change of control in the interest of B. & O. The latter stock, Pennsylvania, Missouri Pacific and Reading first preferred were actively bid up by bull leaders. The same element was influential in lifting Sugar over 2 points. The local traction stocks and a number of the leading industrials also showed occasional strength. The metal stocks were all notably strong and advanced from 1 to 3 points after the opening declines on the growing conviction that prices of from and approaching a basis where consumptive demands will come into the market.

There were some recessions on profit

ments.
Bonds were fairly active, but the movement of prices was irregular. Sales, par value, $1,360,000.
U. S. new 4s declined ½ and the old 4s ½ in the bid price.
