Honors for a Norfolk Girl—A Coming Musical Treat —Conservative Chorus Rehearsal—Sponsor and Maid of Honor Selected.

Tuesday evening Mr. J. M. Coin entertained a Miss Marie Whitehurst and a number of her young friends at the home of Miss Whitehurst, on York street. The first thing on the program was a spelling bee, which afforded much merriment. Miss Annette Kilby was the first to sit down and was awarded the booby prize, a pen wiper.
Miss Jessie Whitehurst was the champion speller and carried home the prize, an elegant box of note paper. Refreshments of a tempting nature were then served and duly enjoyed. After they were partaken of games were indulged in until a late hour, when the party came to a close. Those who accepted Mr. Coin's hospitality were Misses Marie Whitehurst, Baby Hinch, Fannie Priddy, Annette Kilby, Annie Field, Mary Field, Josephine Wrenn, Jessie Whitehurst, May Whitehurst and Alice Smith.

Mrs. Miles Selden has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter Patty, to Lieutenant Hutchinson Virham Cone, United States Navy. The ceremony will take place on Tuesday evening, October 16th, at 7 o'clock, at St. Luke's Church. Miss Selden is one of Norfolk's most popular young ladies and it is with great regret we give her up.

Miss Kyle Reid entertained a party of friends most charmingly Wednesday evening at her home, on York street. The occasion was a dinner party, covers being laid for twelve people. The table was exquisitely decorated. La France roses forming the center-piece, pink being the color scheme of the decorations. The party were invited to the dining room at half-past 7 o'clock, and the feast began. During the course of the evening Miss Kyle arose and announced the engagement of Miss Kyle Reid and Mr. Brevard Miller, of Charleston, S.
C. Best wishes and healths were then in order until the dinner came to a close. Miss Reid and Mr. Miller will be married early in November. Those who composed this pleasant party were Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson Tilton, Miss Alice Lee Moore, Miss Lissie Hilliard, Miss Margaret Reed, Miss Lulu Reed, Miss Kyle Reid, Mr. William Moore, Mr. E. M. Henry, Jr., Mr. Wallington Hardy, Mr. J. Pendleton Turner and Mr. Percy Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. David Dunlop, Jr., of Petersburg, spent last week with a pleasant party at Old Point. Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop and their guests were on Mr. Dunlop's new yacht, the "Lady Evelyn," and passed a most enjoyable time on board. Those who composed this party were Mr. and Mrs.
Dunlop, Miss Marie Davis, of Petersburg; Miss Bessie Venable, of Petersburg; and Miss Louise and Lady Anne Booker, of Old Point.

Now that the concerts have been resumed at the Monticello, the people flock to that hospitable hotel for an evening of sociability. And very pleasant it is, too, to listen to the music and then repair to the cafe for a little bird supper or something of the kind.

from Old Sweet Springs.

Mrs. J. S. Goldsmith, of Atlanta, Ga., is stopping at the Monticello.

Mr. A. M. Travers, of New York, is in Norfolk.

Miss Margaret Batten, of Smithfield, is visiting friends in Portsmouth.

Mr. Louis T. Doble left last week for Waverly.

Paymaster Galt has returned from a visit to Caroline county.

Mr. George Hillips returned last week from Max Meadows.

Mr. W. Kerny Williams returned last week from New York. Mr. Williams will leave shortly for Michigan, where he will in future make his home, much to the regret of his many Norfolk friends.

Invitations have been received in Norfolk to the marriage of Miss Susie Leyburn to Mr. H. Eugene Hyatt, the ceremony to occur Thursday evening, October 18th, at 7 o'clock, at Trinity Memorial Chapel, McDonough, Md. The invitations were issued by the brother and sister of the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Turner Moreland.

Mr. E. M. Gloeckler, one of the prominent Pennsylvania bankers, is spending some time with his cousin, Mr. E.
A. Kline.

Rev. C. Q. Wright, chaplain of the fleetship New York, on the North Atlantic station, is at his home, 335 Marine's avenue, Ghent, called here by the illness of his wife. Mrs. Wright's many friends will be pleased to learn that she is convalescent after an attack of typhoid fever. Mr. Wright will return in a few days to New York, where the flagship is undergoing repairs at the New York navy yard.

Miss Grace Rhodes has returned from a pleasant visit of several weeks to friends in Asheville, N. C.

The first meeting of the season of the Daughters of the Confederacy will occur at Mrs. F. A. Walker's residence, No. 122 Grace street, on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Gen. Stith Bolling, grand commander of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia, has appointed Miss Rebecca Coke Nash, of Portsmouth, sponsor, and Miss Grace Ratcliffe Day, of Smithfield, maid of honor, for the district to the meeting of the Grand Camp, which will be held in Staunton on the 10th instant. Miss Nash is the niece of Col. R. C. Marshall, of Portsmouth, and Miss Day is the daughter of Hon. Fenton Day, of Smithfield.

Prof. A. Bellezza's soiree at Monte-more Hall last Friday evening was one of the most pleasant affairs that has been given so far this season. It was very largely attended.

On the night of Tuesday, October 15th, a delightful treat will be afforded music-lovers, as on that night Miss Booker, of Richmond, Va., and Miss Sallie Kindred Williams, of Norfolk, will give a concert at the Y. M. C. A.
Hall. This will be Miss Booker's first appearance in Norfolk, although she has been heard with great pleasure in a series of fine concerts at the Chamberlain Hotel, Old Point Comfort.
Among her numbers from "Faust," she will give the "Jewel Song" from "Faust." She is the possessor of a clear, beautiful, well-trained soprano voice of splendid quality and power and has recently accepted a position in a leading New York church choir.

Miss Williams' rich contralto voice is so well-known here, where she is always heard with pleasure, that comment in her case is quite unnecessary.
The full program will appear in next Sunday's issue of the Virginian-Pilot.
Mrs. Laura de Russy Berry will act as pianiste.

The chorus of the Norfolk Conservatory of Music will have its first rehaersal of this season next Tuesday evening, October 17th, at 8 o'clock, and all those wishing to join, together with its members, will please be present on time.

Miss Cora A. Eames has returned from Boston and is ready to receive pupils in elocution and physical culture at Norfolk Conservatory of Music.
The Conservatory is to be congratulated upon securing the services of Miss Eames, as she is a graduate from the elocution department of New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, school whose reputation is unsurpassed in sending out valuable and finished teachers.

Miss Eames graduated at the head of her class and has the honor of being the only pupil from the elocution department invited to recite at the Quarterly Concerts given in Music Hall, Boston, where she was received with enthusiasm. She pays especial attention to the dramatic art, in the art, which study, combined with physical culture, should be desired by every young lady and child in Norfolk and Portsmouth.

The friends of Miss Lee Eare are glad to welcome her home, after spending the winter in Boston at the New England Conservatory of Music and Oratory, where she graduated with marked honor, receiving 100 on her external. Miss Eare had the honor of being the only new girl selected to accompany Prof. Kelley with his Tableaux d'Art Company, which is composed of the most talented young ladies in the Conservatory.

Miss Maude Gerish returned yesterday morning from a four-months' visit to Europe, during which she visited the Paris Exposition and the Passion Play.
Her trip included a trip to Switzerland.
She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs.
W. W. Cummer and daughter.

Mr. F. H. Gale will leave here for New York this evening to be absent about a week.

Dr. Joseph A. Guthrie, of the receiving ship Franklin, who has been ordered to attend the families of all officers on this naval station, has removed his residence to 235 Duke street, Norfolk.

Run your eye up and down the advertising columns and notice the number of medicines that are advertised and the promises they make.
Most of them guarantee to cure almost everything.
You are bewildered between the good and the bad, the real and the humbugs.
Well, if you bite at every weed you find in the fields, you will run across trouble sooner

Some New Things for To-morrow's Selling.

The New Dress Stuffs and Silks are here—the latest thoughts from American and Foreign mill—several new weaves only a few days old will be shown tomorrow, and particularly new is a silk and wash effect, in black only, rich creations are the patterns and the prices are amazingly low. Ask about them.

This is Norfolk's Best Silk Store —all the new sorts are ready and a "look over" such a collection means a purchase.

French Flannels for Waists, in plain colorings and dainty figures—ideas that are late—colorings that are altogether correct and proper—50c for the plain ones—a better grade at 59c and the figured ones are 85c.

"Olwoola," the new production, about 21 colors, especially suitable for waists, dressing sacques, etc.—31 inches wide—the colors guaranteed not to fade in the sun, nor shrink in washing. Price, $1 yard.

An Unusual Showing Flannel and Silk Waists begins to-morrow. There's a flannel waist at $3 in all the correct shades (that will surely interest you—better grades are also here. An abundant supply of the richest things wanted in Black Taffeta and Colored Silk Waists, for
"This is Norfolk's Best Store."
