LACROSSE, WIS., November 16.—Ninety-nine persons were arrested yesterday for violating the Sunday laws. Among them were C. J. As soon as the lawyers can fix the time test cases will be made in regard to each branch of business. The saloons were run Sunday with wide-open doors, the barbers did a good business, and most of the clothing-stores, candy-shops, and other places of business were open to the public. No one was interfered with, but the police were active in taking the names of the law-breakers, and yesterday's arrests were the result of their vigilance.

Killed by a Mob.

NASHVILLE, November 16.—A special to the American from McKenzie says: Charles Dinwiddie (colored) was arrested Saturday night, charged with assaulting and robbing one Jennings, a white man. A preliminary examination was to have been held to-day before Squire Mobine, it having been continued from 10 o'clock yesterday for want of counsel. The negro was under guard at the calaboose, being in charge of Marshal Bryant and others.

About 10 o'clock last night twenty-five masked men rode into town, coming from the direction of Huntington, and proceeded directly to the calaboose, where a portion of the crowd instantly rushed into the calaboose with drawn pistols, overpowering the guard. They riddled the body of the negro with pistol balls. He, in his frantic effort to escape, burst his chain loose from its fastening, and knocked over the stove, which was full of fire. That work being done, the men mounted and left without even speaking a word. The negro was a desperate character.

The Pestiferous Mexicans.

LAREDO, TEX., November 16.—De Riviera, consul here for the Mexican Government, has been taking testimony for several days in the matter of the arrest and imprisonment of Captain Rafael Penales, a Mexican citizen in the Laredo jail, on a charge of murder committed in 1879. The facts in the case are that in 1878 Captain Penales, while commanding a company of Mexican infantry, at New Laredo, fired upon and killed a deserter from his company after the man had crossed the Texas bank of the Rio Grande.

The Mexican Government will probably claim damages in the sum that will offset the damages claimed by Cutting at El Paso. The only advantage Cutting will have is the notoriety given his imprisonment, while Captain Penales and his Government have made but little noise, but will present a very strong case.

New York Stock Market.

NEW YORK, November 16.—The revival of general activity has been very marked to-day, and has extended to the whole list. Many stocks which have been neglected for some weeks past having shown evidence of resuscitation in a significant manner. Reading has been very strong, and the belief seems to be that the prolonged investigation of its affairs is about drawing to a close; but the outcome may be more favorable than the numerous adverse reports that have been circulated lately would have indicated.

The new management, however, is a capable one, and while its measures may be cautious, they are likely to be well purchased and speculations continues to be attracted toward them. The position seems to us to promise a more extended market and higher prices. The closed was generally strong. Money, 6 per cent.
