FOR MAYOR.

WILLIAM G. EVANS. William G. Evans was born at Blacksburg in Montgomery county, on January 16, 1852, and was educated at the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College there. He left Blacksburg when nineteen years old, and went into busine's at Salem, remaining there ten years. He moved from Salem to this city in October, 1881, and established the hardware house of Watts, Bell & ANDREW L. PITZER.

ANDREW L. PITZER.

ANDREW L. PITZER.

Major A. L. Pitzer was born within many friends. He is a native of a mile of this city in 1827, and was going to school here when the stars fell in 1833. He was educated in part in an old field school, and in the academy at Salem and at the Virginia Mily years ago was elected president of that body and resigned his position on the death of Hon. William Carr to fill the unexpired term of mayor. He is a Democrat.

ANDREW L. PITZER.

Mr. George O. Houston is a candidate for Mayor, and he has a great many friends. He is a native of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, having been born there in 1846. He has lived in various parts of the country occupation, a methodist by choice, and a soldier from necessity. He served in the four years war, first as a major of cavalry, and three years as major of cavalry, and three years as MICHAEL DRISCOLL. Michael Driscoll is an employe of the Roanoke Machine Works and one of its most trusted men. He is employed in the blacksmith department and has a host of supporters among the boys down there. He has lived in this city for a number of years. E. G. HAISLIP.

E. G. Haislip is also a workman at the Machine Works and stands very high both with the men and the employes. He lives in East Roanoke.

EVERETT PERKINS.

E. C. Welsh has been a resident of school at Gordonsville and entered the law office of W. E. Bibb and read law under him for two years. He took a course of law in the University of Virginia after which he practiced in Louisa county till 1889 when he moved to this city. For two years previous to his removal to this city he served as county surveyor of Louisa sioners of election have been applied.

The following judges and commissioners of election have been appointed for the several wards:
