SIN CAN'T BE HIDDEN. DR. TALMAGE TELLS OF SOME COMMON CLOAKS FOR INIQUITY. Official Position, Good Manners, Kind Heartedness, Social Advantages, etc.

WINDFIELD, Kan., June 29.—Dr. Talmage deals in his sermon today in characteristic style with the various garbs in which sin masquerades in modern society.

First, I remark that there are those who, being honored with official power, expect to make that a successful cloak for their sins.

Belshazzar's deacons could not keep the mysterious finger from writing on the wall. Ahab's sin literally lurled him from the throne to the dogs.

Again, elegance of manners cannot successfully hide iniquity from the eye of God. That model, gentlemanly apostle, Paul, writes to us: "Be courteous."

Again, let me say that the mere profession of religion is but a poor wrapping of a naked soul. The importance of making a public profession of religion if the heart be renewed is not to be exaggerated.

TRUSTEES AND COMMISSIONER'S SALE. THE FIDELITY INSURANCE, TRUST AND SAFE DEPOSIT COMPANY AND OTHERS. VERSUS THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY RAILROAD COMPANY AND OTHERS.

The undersigned, the Fidelity Insurance, Trust and Safe Deposit Company, trustee, under a mortgage given by the Shenandoah Valley Railroad Company, bearing date April 1st, 1880, and A. Moore, Jr., special commissioner, by virtue of a decree entered in the above-entitled cause by the circuit court of the city of Roanoke, in the State of Virginia, upon the 26th of April, 1890, and by the circuit court of Jefferson county, in the State of West Virginia, on the 24th day of May, 1890, and by the circuit court of Washington county, in the State of Maryland, on the 3rd day of June, 1890, offer for sale at public auction on Tuesday, the 30th day of September, 1890, at twelve noon, upon the front steps of the court house in the city of Roanoke, in the State of Virginia, all the right, title, and interest of the Shenandoah Valley Railroad Company in and to its entire line of Railroad extending from Roanoke, in the State of Virginia, through the counties of Roanoke, Botetourt, Rockbridge, Augusta, Bockingham, Page, Warren, and Clark in said State and through the county of Jefferson in the State of West Virginia and through the county of Washington in the State of Maryland to Hagerstown in the State of Maryland, a distance of two hundred and thirty-nine miles more or less, together with all branches, sidings, and other appurtenances of the said line of railroad, with the tolls, incomes, rents, issues, profits thereof, and all its real estate, rights of way, easements, fixtures, rolling stock, machinery, tools and equipments, and all other personal property thereto belonging, and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all corporate powers and franchises belonging or appertaining to the Shenandoah Valley Railroad Company.

The receiver will remain in possession of the mortgaged premises, and continue to operate the line of railroad after the sale and until the conveyance thereof. He will keep a correct account of the earnings and income of the premises accruing after the date of the sale, and if the sale shall be confirmed the purchaser, on delivery of possession by the receiver, will be entitled to receive the net income and earnings subsequent to the date of sale, and the proceeds of the sale of the mortgaged premises, bidders are referred to an inventory, which may be examined at the office of the receiver, room No. 121 Bullitt Building, Philadelphia. The premises to be sold include all additions made or to be made by the receiver, and all railroad supplies which the receiver may have on hand at the time of sale, or may acquire thereafter before delivery of possession.

Table with 2 columns: Item description and Amount. Includes items like 'Costs of suits in Virginia, West Virginia and Maryland', 'Sundry judgments which are specific liens upon detached tracts of land in the State of Virginia', etc.

This sale will be made subject to all executory contracts made by the receiver under the authority of the court, of which contracts the receiver, by said decrees, is directed to give to the trustee and special commissioner a full and accurate statement, to be publicly announced by the trustee and special commissioner at the time of sale, and in subject also to any liability that may be established against the receiver growing out of any lawful acts done by him in his capacity of receiver or out of any suits which may be pending against the receiver at the time of sale, or that may be instituted against him at any time thereafter; all such liabilities, if any, will remain a lien upon the premises until discharged.

TERMS OF SALE. By the decrees hereinbefore recited, it is provided that—The said trustee and special commissioner shall sell the premises herein directed to be sold to the highest and best bidder, and shall require such bidder, before making an adjudication, to pay in cash the sum of $25,000, and if the sale is one-third within three months, one-third within six months, and the balance within nine months from the date of sale, each of said deferred payments to carry interest from the date of sale at the rate of six per cent. per annum; but the purchaser shall have the right to anticipate the day of payment after the payment by the purchaser of such sum in cash as may be sufficient to pay the amount of such proceeds of such sale shall be legally applicable as prior to the first mortgage, and for the payment of the pro rata dividend of the net proceeds of sale for distribution that may be due to those beneficiaries under the said trust deeds, whose bonds and coupons may not be used in payment of such proceeds, as is herein provided for, the said trustee and special commissioner may receive from the purchaser or purchasers, in part payment of the purchase-money, any of the bonds or unpaid interest coupons, with interest thereon, in the order of their priority which are secured by the said deeds of trust to the complainant, or to toward the payment of which the said net proceeds shall be legally applicable, and the amount of such bonds and coupons so to be received in part payment of such purchase-money to be determined and fixed at a sum which shall, upon a proper distribution and accounting for such proceeds, be at least equal to the share or proportion payable out of such net proceeds to such purchaser or purchasers as the holder or holders of such bonds or coupons, and the bonds and coupons so applied in satisfaction of the purchase-money shall be treated as a payment thereof to the extent of such application.

In case the Central Improvement Company, or its representatives, shall become the purchaser of the property herein ordered to be sold, it shall be lawful for such purchaser to make payment of so much of the purchase money as is applicable to the equitable lien of the Central Improvement Company, by receipt for such amount upon account of such lien. If any question shall arise as to the proportion of the purchase-money that must be paid in cash and the proportion thereof that may be paid in such bonds and coupons, or by giving credit upon said equitable lien, application may be made to the court to have the same determined.

In case of the failure of such sum in cash as may be sufficient to pay the amount of such proceeds of such sale, the trustee and special commissioner may reject the bid, and proceed at once, then and there, to make a resale, or may then and there publicly announce that on some other day, to be then designated, and between certain hours of the day, to be designated, they will sell the same premises, and they may make the same accordingly. And the trustee and special commissioner shall have power to adjourn the sale from time to time, in their discretion, until a sale shall have been made in accordance with the provisions of this decree.
