IVANHOE
WYTHE COUNTY, VA.
At the junction of the North Carolina extension and Cripple Creek extension of the Norfolk and Western Railroad. A great railroad junction, in the heart of the greatest mining district of Southwest Virginia, and destined soon to rank with the great industrial centers of the New South.

THE IVANHOE
LAND AND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY
Will Sell at Private Sale
JULY 16th, 1890,
1,000 Lots at an average Price of $300.

All lots are favorably located on gently rising grounds overlooking the beautiful Valley of New River.
The exceedingly low price at which these lots are placed upon the market, assures to investors quick and large returns.
TERMS OF SALE: One third cash, balance in one and two years.

IMMENSE LIMESTONE QUARRIES ARE BEING OPERATED WITHIN THE TOWN.
The No. 1 Furnace of the New River Mineral Company is already in successful operation, while the

Ivanhoe Iron Company,
under the Presidency of Mr. Jordan L. Mott, of the Mott Haven Iron Works, of New York, has been organized for the purpose of erecting another furnace of large capacity. The extensive mines of the Mud River Mineral Company, adjoining the town, are already giving employment to a large number of men.
The IVANHOE ZINC COMPANY, with a capital of $500,000, has purchased immense deposits of exceedingly rich zinc ores, which they are now developing, and will soon erect several fine furnaces.

Being 2,000 feet above the sea, the climate is unsurpassed by the celebrated mountain resorts of the world. A large tract of level land with a front of one and a half miles on New River has been set aside for manufacturing purposes. Liberal inducements will be offered to industries locating here. Through its connections with the steamship lines, the Louisville and Nashville, the Cape Fear and York River and the Shenandoah railroads and its outlet on the Ohio River, the Norfolk and Western Railroad places IVANHOE in direct communication with the great markets, North, East, South and West. For maps, descriptive pamphlets, etc., apply to the Ivanhoe Land and Improvement Company, or G. M. S. Sley, Secretary, Ivanhoe, Wythe county, Va.

DRESS FABRICS of every description, suitable for the HOT MONTHS.

Only a few drunks were before the mayor yesterday.
W. F. Matthews, of Lynchburg, is at the Continental.
Mr. John Kimmier, of Lynchburg, is registered at the Hotel Felix.
Mr. G. N. Petty, of Front Royal, Va., is in the city prospecting.
Mr. A. M. Stover and wife, of Montgomery county, are in the city.
W. F. Pierson, of Lexington, Va., is registered at the Continental Hotel.
Misses Lillie and Mary Kimmier, of Lynchburg, are visiting relatives in the city.
Moonlight drives to Salem are becoming a frequent and most delightful recreation.
Engine 208 was slightly disabled at West End yards yesterday evening, and was taken to the shops for repairs.
Mrs. Sarah Garner and her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Walden, are both quite sick at their home in West Roanoke.

It is said that the Shenandoah Valley Railroad Company will erect a handsome union depot at Basic City in the near future.
The stationary engine at the Bridge-water Carriage Works has been placed in position, and the portable engine heretofore used will be dispensed with.
Mr. A. W. Finch, a merchant of Buchanan, is a guest at Hotel Felix. An exchange says the shirt has come to stay. Please allow it a washing furlough occasionally.

Mr. Harry Garman, of East Roanoke, is visiting friends in this county. This is the first holiday he has had in three years' steady work. He is the efficient fireman on the yard engine for Roanoke Machine Works.
W. H. Conner, foreman of the tin working establishment of Brewer and Sons, went to Roanoke yesterday to superintend the outfitting up of some galvanized iron cornices on a business block in the "Magic City"—Bristol Courier.
Mr. A. Q. Betts, of Springfield, Mo., has arrived in the city, and is quartered at the Read House. He is so favorably impressed with the enterprise and progress displayed by our citizens, that he contemplates remaining here. His business is that of a contractor.

A colored cart driver named Holland and a mule became engaged in an altercation in the West End yesterday, which terminated by the mule striking him a severe blow in the face with his hind foot. Holland's face was badly lacerated and his injury quite painful.
Mr. Thomas Goggin returned yesterday from a two days' recreation at the James, with a fish story. He said that among a large number of the finny tribe which he had succeeded in capturing, was a black bass weighing five pounds. A fish that size is a whopper.

Pilgrims to the Shrine of Hyman.
Two couples from Glad Spring, Va., in company, sought Tennessee's "Gretna Green" yesterday, that they each might here join the course of their lives for the remainder of the nearly pilgrimizing in a single stream. They came in on the belated noon train, which arrived in Bristol at about 2:40. They at once sought the parlor of the Nickels House, where the two expectant bridegrooms, by the bride-elect, was waiting.
They were in a short time they returned to the hotel parlor, and at about 4 o'clock, in presence of quite a company of witnesses, the couples, one after the other, stood before Elder A. H. Burroughs, and pledging to one another the truth and making binding vows as to loving and cherishing each other till death should separate them, the brides and grooms were respectively joined in the holy bonds of matrimony, to live together in that state according to God's ordinance. The respective couples were Mr. Walter Hawthorn and Mattie I. Owens, and Mr. Francis M. Cook and Miss Stoots. It was the first time the elder had been called upon to officiate at a double wedding.

A Witty Scotch Lad.
A farmer's boy in Scotland was brought up, charged with pushing a girl into a mill pond. In pleading his case he said he did not push her in, he was only "gaun to do't;" whereupon the bailie summarily informed him that "gaun to do't" was the same as the "gaun to do't" was to pay a fine of ten shillings or go fourteen days to gaol. The boy, not having the necessary wherewithal, was allowed to go and get it from a friend. In a little while he was again seen standing in court, when the bailie asked if he had paid his fine yet. "No," said he, "but I was gaun to do't, as ye say 'do't and gaun to do't' was the same, I'm thinking you an' me'll be clear noo!"

The Cigarette Machine.
The Universal Cigarette Machine was on exhibition before a large number of people yesterday, and they all expressed themselves as very much impressed with its utility. The machine will be exhibited today at a Wellford's warerooms on Jefferson street.
The Hobble Music Co., Lynchburg, Va., has headquarters for Pianos and Organs, they are selling them at lower prices and on easier terms than any other house in the country. The following are some of "the many" they handle: Weber, Krainich and Bach and Knabe Pianos and Estey Organs. Compare their prices with other dealers and be convinced.

ABOUT THE CITY
Why Support the Home Paper?
Why? Because, if for no better reason, the home newspaper supports you. You wake up once in a while perhaps, and forsaking your private business, in which for years you have been immersed, you turn out and spend a day or an hour for the public good—at the polls fighting against the re-election of a boodler, at a public meeting talking for water works or some new enterprise—and then you return to your pursuit, leaving the newspaper to clinch the victory or protect the retreat, as the case may be.
The newspaper man has been so long the watchman on the tower, or the man on guard, that his service in this line is taken as a matter of course, and the value of that service has fallen to far in public appreciation.
But the newspaper man is not whining. He cares whether his service is appreciated or not—everybody who anybody is sensitive to appreciation or the denial of it; but he knows what belongs to his guild, and knowing, he is going to continue his performance. Still, when reasons are wanted for supporting the home paper, it is fair to say that the newspaper should be supported because it is a daily public benefit, contending for the public good when the public itself is drowsy or slumbering deeply.
But that, you may say, is a sentimental reason; so it is, partly. No, self-respecting newspaper man would urge it alone. The strict business reason for supporting the home paper is that it pays, directly, as well as indirectly. Let two men try two opposite policies. Let one man advertise in the home paper—not putting in an "ad" written in a minute on a scrap of paper, but preparing an announcement with care and study, changing it frequently, always with the same care, and keeping the series going steadily. Let the other man try any plan in place of pushing business—diamonds, prizes, brass bands, balloon real estate tricks, personal solicitation from house to house—anything he pleases—and see how it will come out. For the same money the newspaper advertiser will beat the other man two to one!

Choice Lot Sale.
The Bedford City Land and Improvement Company announces a sale of choice lots on the 5th day of July, 1890. The number of lots is limited but choice, and they will be sold on moderate terms. Everybody is offered an opportunity to make big money. It is intended to have this sale earlier, but it has been postponed until after the exercises at the dedication of Randolph Macon Academy on the fourth of July. Large numbers of our citizens and distinguished guests, among them several bishops, clergymen, United Senators and the governors of some of the Southern States, will be present to witness the splendid programme prepared by "President" Smith, and to enjoy a magnificent display of fire works at night.
We earnestly request all visitors to remain over till the fifth and attend the excursion to the beach. The agents are agents for the company. The same lot will not be sold to several purchasers, but as soon as a sale is effected it will be placed on the bulletin board. The company has set the price low to induce persons to build, and with all who will contract to build houses special terms will be made. It is not the policy of this company to boom. It offers lots which will double in value in six months, at least, and bring interest to the town. J. M. Berry, president, R. B. Claylor, vice-president, J. I. Campbell, secretary, of Bedford City Land and Improvement Company, Bedford City, June 21. June 20 July 5.

Mr. L. R. Ammen, corner Commerce and Campbell streets, will for the next thirty days beginning Monday, June 29, close out her entire stock of millinery and notions at cost. Come early and secure bargains. June 29-1 w.

Real Estate Agents,
There has been wonderful activity in city real estate in the last two weeks, even for Roanoke. Several hundred thousand dollars worth of property changed hands at handsome profits. One lot for example, which sold for several thousand five hundred dollars eight days ago, was resold yesterday for eleven thousand dollars. Dozens of similar examples might be given. Have you been making any money dealing in Roanoke REAL ESTATE? Well, if you haven't it's your own fault.
