THIS IS THE HUB A STRANGER'S OBSERVATIONS IN ROANOKE.

COMPARED WITH OTHER CITIES. He is Enthusiastic About It. 50,000 Population Ten Years Hence—83,000,000 in New Industries—The Connection With Salem.

I am afforded much pleasure in comparing with your request to give briefly, through the columns of the Real Estate Herald, a few notes or impressions of Roanoke, as obtained during a recent short visit to that wonderful and phenomenal city.

By way of introduction, permit me to say that I have visited numerous other cities throughout this broad land in recent years, but of few, if any, have I been able to form as favorable an opinion as of the Magic City of Southwestern Virginia.

In saying this, I take into consideration, of course, the almost unprecedented growth and rapid development of the place, from a sluggish village of 400 people in 1881 to a great industrial center of nearly or quite 20,000 population in 1890.

Within its limits are to be found not only elegant and commodious hotels, which are constantly filled to overflowing with visitors, principally from the Northern, New England and Eastern States, covetly seeking investments, but all the other commodities which combine to make a thrifty and promising city, such as street railways, the are and large and extensive machine shops and manufacturing establishments, one of them alone employing over 1,300 hands; large wholesale and retail stores of every variety; fine churches of all denominations; good markets; National and private banks; and other financial institutions; beautiful streets; elegant residences of diverse modern architectural designs; social organizations, etc.

These are some of the tangible evidences presented which give to the stranger, almost at a glance, a most favorable opinion of Roanoke's wonderful strides toward her destined greatness, and which tend to impress and convince the most skeptical that her growth is not of a mushroom character, but one of substantial and enduring reality.

It is also so located as to be one of the most fertile agricultural and richest mineral sections of the country. Within the radius of a couple of miles are obtained the raw material for nearly every kind of industry, and simple railroad facilities are afforded to convey these, when manufactured into various articles, to the markets of the world.

THE SOLDIER BOYS. Will go on an Excursion to Natural Bridge on the 30th.

The Roanoke Light Infantry will give an excursion to Natural Bridge on Saturday the 30th inst., and the occasion promises to be one of the most pleasant of the season.

The train will leave here at 7 o'clock in the morning. The boys will go down in their uniforms, and among the features of the day for the military will be an exhibition drill for a gold medal, and target practice.

There will be a number of ladies in the party, of course, and dancing in the pavilion will follow. Fine music will be secured, and everything possible will be done to contribute to the success of the excursion.

The train will leave Natural Bridge for Roanoke at 6:30 in the evening of the same day. Reduced rates at the hotel will be given, and the fare for the round trip will be only $1.00.

The boys will be accompanied by the officers of the company, and the excursion will be a most successful one.

THE 1890 ASSESSMENT. A Phenomenal Increase Over that of Five Years Ago.

On Saturday last James Green completed for Commissioner of the Revenue C. M. Turner, the work of writing out the tabular records of the assessed value of the real estate and personal property in the city for the year 1890.

The records show a most flattering increase over last year's assessment, and prove that our growth in wealth during the year just passed has been commensurate with our growth in population.

The following are the totals of the records with the amount of tax that will accrue to the city therefrom:

Assessed value. Tax. Real Estate $2,936,885 $36,702.81 Personal property 1,715,643 21,415.54 $4,652,528 $58,118.35

In the West of Crime. The Bristol Courier of yesterday has the following notice of the case against Allison, the accused negro train-wrecker:

The negro, who is under arrest for misplacing the switch on the Norfolk and Western at Max Meadows a few weeks ago and causing an awful wreck, will be put on trial at Wytheville tomorrow.

It is said there is no doubt of his guilt, and his conviction is equally certain. Witnesses testify that they heard him call to the men in the caboose of the side-tracked freight train and tell them to get out as the other train was coming and was going to have an accident.

IT IS SECURED. ALL OF THE $50,000 SUBSCRIBED.

A LIVELY MEETING LAST NIGHT. Public Spirited Citizens Come Forward—The Work of the Committee—Dr. Parsons Gives $10,000—Rah For Roanoke.

The requisite $50,000 has been subscribed, and if there was ever any doubt about the Roanoke and Southern coming to this city, it may be banished now.

Last night's meeting of the stockholders at Gray & Boswell's office was the largest yet held since the question of raising the money has been discussed.

The meeting was made up of representative business men, and they had confidence in the plan that had been suggested.

On motion of Dr. E. A. Parsons R. E. Scott was elected chairman, and Hinton Helper acted as secretary.

The committee appointed at the last meeting reported that they had succeeded in bringing the total amount to $45,750.

L. L. Powell, in the reading his report, said that the entire amount could be raised, but he met several of the committee and upon comparing notes they had concluded that the $50,000 required had been subscribed, and therefore no further effort had been made.

A misapprehension, he said, would have been made somewhere, but he didn't know how it had been made.

James S. Simmons then suggested that the soliciting committee be continued for a day or two until the money was realized.

He said that by that time the subscription would be entirely made up and the stockholders would meet and formally organize the Roanoke and Southern Development and Improvement Company.

The motion was not put, as the members had something yet to say.

Mr. Scott moved that the meeting thank Dr. E. A. Parsons for his very liberal subscription of $10,000, and the motion being seconded by Mr. Woodman, was carried.

Dr. Parsons repudiated the suggestion that he had been very liberal. His motive, he said, was selfish after all, for he firmly believed that he would more than get the money he advanced.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB. It Has Been Organized and Will Soon Be in Working Order.

The Commercial Club has been organized, and is now an assured fact.

There was a meeting last night at Gray & Boswell's office, and fifty-four names were enrolled as members of the club.

Hinton Helper made an address explaining the idea of the institution, and the speaker proved that the institution could do more than any other one thing to advertise and advance the interests of the city.

He cited Louisville as an illustration of this point and quoted Henri Watterson as saying that the commercial supremacy of that place depended more upon its business club and its ramifications than anything else.

Dr. E. A. Parsons gave his experience with the Commercial Club of St. Paul his former home, Jas. S. Simmons also made a brief speech commendatory of the scheme.

He said that there were three organizations that would help the cities progress, A Commercial Club, Real Estate Exchange, and a board of Presidents.

The election of officers resulted in the selection of R. H. Woodrum, president; C. O'Leary, vice-president; Hinton Helper, secretary, and S. D. Ferguson, treasurer.

President Woodrum made a brief address, giving his ideas of what the club should be. He said that if it was made a cold, hard business organization it could not be a success.

The social feature should be always kept in sight. This would make it a success if anything would.

THE RACES AT LYNCHBURG. For the information of Roanoke owners of fast horses the TMMS prints this morning the program of the races at the Lynchburg fair on the 18th.

First race, purse $75, running one mile dash, three or more to enter and two or more to start. Purse divided, 50 per cent to first, 30 per cent to second and 20 per cent to third.

Second race, purse $75, running half-mile heats, three or more to enter and two or more to start. Purse divided, 50 per cent to the first, 30 per cent to the second and 20 per cent to the third.

Entrance fee will be 5 per cent of the purse. Entrances close Saturday, August 9, 1890. These races will be contested. There will be horses from Charlottesville, Warrenton, Fincastle and this city. There are now eight runners in training at the fair grounds.

ROANOKE WINS. THEY TAKE A GAME FROM THE BRISTOLS.

HE SCORE 6 TO 5, ELEVEN INNINGS

Cardinal Newman Dead—The Iron Market Active—War in Morocco—Death of John Boyle, O'Reilly—Telegraphic Briefs.

Special to the Times. BRISTOL, Tenn., Aug. 11.—The game this afternoon between the Roanokes and the Bristol was the most interesting seen in Bristol this season, and the result was a surprise to those who had heard of the record of the Roanokes.

Roanoke in the end won the game, but the boys had to work for it. Eleven innings were played and the large audience manifested the greatest interest. Roanoke sent the strongest team here that Bristol ever played against, but the home club knew its grounds and ran around the familiar bases in a way that demoralized the sluggers from Virginia.

Winston hit the first ball safe, and then scored on a wild throw and a sacrifice. But this was their only one. Roanoke failed to score in the first. Frizzle opened the second with a home-run hit over the fence. Roanoke got three men on bases, and the excitement was intense when a hit and a wild throw gave them two runs.

The score stood even until the fifth. When Sands hit a home run, Roanoke took two batters over the top. Gookin's two-bagger over the top brought Crawley over the home.

In the eighth, Crawley made a hit and was advanced to third by Vance's hit. This tied the score. Bristol failed to reach home in the tenth, and when the eleventh came round Widgin hit a little one which the pitcher fumbled, and the big Roanoker went down to second. Then Wigmore picked up the stick and hit a liner between center and right. Widgin scored, and the game was over.

The score was 6 to 5 in favor of Roanoke. Cardinal Newman Dead. By United Press. LONDON, Aug. 11.—Cardinal Newman is dead. He was in the 83d of his age, and was created a cardinal in 1879.

Dr. John Henry Newman, who in London February 21, 1841, educated at the school of law, at Ealing, and at Trinity College, Oxford, was graduated in 1830. He was elected a fellow in Oriel College. Here he attracted the attention of the celebrated Dr. Wheatley, and was by him employed in the preparation of his "Treatise on Logic." He was ordained in 1824.

In 1828 he was presented to the vicarage of St. Mary's at Oxford. It was here that he delivered the sermons that had such a wonderful influence in forwarding the religious movement with which his name is permanently associated. At this period Dr. Newman was an earnest antagonist of the Roman Catholic church, and transferred his support from Sir Robert Peel to Sir Robert Peel, on the occasion of the former's introducing the Roman Catholic relief bill. But in 1845 he was induced into the Roman Catholic church, and in 1851 he was appointed rector of the Catholic University in Dublin. He was made a cardinal deacon in the church in 1879.

THE STRIKE STILL ON. By United Press. NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—The strike on the New York Central continues, but evidences of weakness are everywhere apparent. The engineers and firemen have not joined the switchmen as expected.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 11.—At 4 p. m. fifty Pinkerton detectives and 100 railroad men went to Syracuse. The Pinkertons formed in line and cleared the yards of strikers, who yielded without a struggle. The strikers are now in session. The other men at once went to work making up freight trains.

Death of a Poet and Editor. By United Press. BOSTON, Aug. 11.—John Boyle O'Reilly, the poet and editor of the Boston Pilot, died yesterday afternoon at his summer residence at Hull. His death is supposed to have been caused by an overdose of choral, taken for insomnia.

England and the Pope. By United Press. ROME, Aug. 11.—Cardinal Rannolla, Papal Secretary of State, has been informed by the English government that it is impossible for England to receive a Papal envoy or to send a minister to the Vatican.

The G. A. R. Encampment. By United Press. CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—The annual meeting of the G. A. R. commenced to day and will continue during the week. President Harrison is here. Fully 50,000 strangers are in the city.

One Hundred and Twenty-six Deaths From Cholera. By United Press. CAIRO, Aug. 11.—One hundred and twenty-six deaths from cholera, occurred at Jeddah yesterday, and at Mecca the deaths from the disease numbered 108.

The Scotch Iron Market Active. By United Press. GLASGOW, Aug. 11.—The iron market is active and excited. Scotch warrants have advanced from 47 shillings 10d. to 48 shillings 10d.
