A TIE AFTER TEN INNINGS.

Roanoke Refuses to Play Further and Winston Wins.

The Score Stood 4 to 3—The Most Interesting Game Ever Played in North Carolina—Quarles Strikes Out Eleven and Puts the Ball Over the Fence—Two Runs Were Earned by Each Team.

WINSTON, N. C., Sept. 20.—[Special.]—The greatest game of ball ever played in North Carolina took place to-day between Winston and Roanoke. Ten innings were played, at the end of which the score still stood 3 to 3, and the eleventh inning was ordered when Roanoke threw up the sponge.

At precisely 4 o'clock McGann picked up the stick for Winston; but, after lifting safe, was not allowed to score; the three following dying on first. Roanoke was treated likewise. Neither side scored until the third. Kelly opened it for Winston with a strike-out. J. Jones did the same thing, but McGann hit safe and scored on Lanier's two-bagger.

Farrell hit a beautiful fly to Kirby, who, with Wigmore, made a double play putting out Lanier. Roanoke came in and after two men were out knocked a home run over the center fence. Pfeifer hit a hot liner to Wade, who caught it. Winston made nothing in the fourth, but Quarles put the ball over the center fence for a home run. Winston, 1; Roanoke, 2.

Neither side scored in the fifth. Winston came in in the sixth, McGann struck out, Lanier made a home run by knocking the ball over the center fence, and Farrell knocked one out also, but after much kicking it was decided a two bagger. Benner and Bennet went out on flies respectively to Wigmore and Kirby. Roanoke was goose-egged and score stood, Winston, 2; Roanoke, 2.

Intense excitement prevailed in the seventh. J. Jones hit safe for Winston, stole second and scored on a passed ball by Keefer. Wade and Keeley were out in quick succession. Roanoke made one by Pfeifer, and neither made anything during the remainder of the game, although ten innings were played.

The eleventh was ordered, but Roanoke threw up the game, it being decided in favor of Winston 4 to 3. Summary: Earned runs—Winston 2, Roanoke 2. Struck out—Winston 9, Quarles 11. Single hits—Wigmore, Rosenthal, Quarles, Dolan, Keefer, Winston 3. Two base hit—Lanier. Home runs—Lanier, I. Brodie, Quarles. Passed balls—Lanier 4, Keefer 2. Errors—Quarles 1, wild throw to first.

Score by innings:
