RICHLANDS.

Last April we began to advertise our town lots, making at that time a number of statements in regard to what we would do. Through the non-completion of the Clinch Valley extension of the Norfolk and Western our railroad facilities at that time were very limited. We had no railroad station and, indeed, one old farmhouse was the total sign of life about the place. Since then the railroad has erected a fine brick and stone freight station, one of the largest on the road, and will shortly erect a fine passenger station, while the Clinch Valley Company has spent, or is under contract to expend, $350,000. A four-story hotel, the finest in Southwest Virginia, is under roof; a handsome iron bridge, of 180 feet span, crosses the Clinch river; two second-class hotels have been built, and a large number of stores are building under contract. The company has erected a handsome three-story building for its offices, and a fine stone bank building is nearing completion. Machinery for the rolling mill is on the grounds, and the track to the coal mines, three miles away, is completed, and coal is now coming out. A steam brick plant, the most complete in Southwest Virginia, is in operation, and a large amount of grading and other work is going on. This work attracts a great deal of attention, while Richlands is merely at the end of a non-completed line. The completion of the Clinch Valley division this fall, and the running of through trains between Washington and Louisville, putting Richlands immediately on a through line, will give an impetus to the prosperity of the town sufficient to throw it ahead of all competitors, and the attention of investors is called to real estate here as giving greater promise than any town in Southwest Virginia.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

What People are Doing In and Out of Roanoke.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to James H. Lacy and Harriet Hale, both colored.
Mrs. J. R. Terry and Mrs. R. J. Bosman left yesterday morning for Norfolk, where Mrs. Terry will be the guest of Mrs. Josman for a month or more.
Chief of Police M. C. Morris and Officer J. A. Vest left on the morning train yesterday for Pechahontas with W. H. Cabell, who is wanted there to answer the charge of murder.
Miss Annie Nichols died at her home on Gainsboro avenue last night, and the remains will be interred in Fairview Cemetery at 3 p. m. to-day.
Mrs. Henry Neal, of No. 432 Fifth avenue, n. e., is recovering from a severe illness.
Fifty-seven wagons paid the curbstone tax at the Second ward market yesterday, and thereby contributed $8.70 to the city.
Judge Blair will hold a special term of the circuit court at Salem on the 13th of October to consider the question of confirming the recent sale of the Shenandoah Valley railroad, made in this city on the 30th ultimo.
Booker Mitchell was arrested yesterday on Railroad avenue for making an assault on an unknown colored man. He will have a hearing before Acting Mayor Hanthorne this morning.
The sidewalks on Salem avenue and several other important thoroughfares of this city could be greatly improved if the bricks were taken up and relaid.
Harold W. Whiteway, of Dover England, is at Hotel Roanoke, the guest of Mr. W. L. Cobb.
Mr. and Mrs. Stuart L. Jones, of Algona, West Va., who have been on a tour of the South, are at Hotel Roanoke for a few days.
Mr. James McFall, recently a clerk in the Auditor's office of the Norfolk and Western, has resigned his position to take a place with the real estate firm of Carter & Whitesell.
Mr. J. L. Cowles, of Farmington, Conn., with his wife and four daughters, are at Hotel Roanoke.
The darkness these nights might be greatly illuminated by a moderate use of gas on the part of the city authorities.
The rainy and chilly weather of the past four or five days has been very demoralizing to people of a nervous temperament. Overcoats and straw-hats look like an anomaly, but they have been frequently seen on the streets of the city during that time.

Mayor Evans' Nephew Dead.
The sad intelligence was received here yesterday that Edwin Branscomb, a nephew of Mayor W. G. Evans, died at 1 o'clock at Blacksburg after an illness of some weeks. Mr. J. M. Oakey, of the firm of Woolwine & Oakey, was sent for to embalm the remains, which will be interred at Blacksburg, the exact time of which had not been decided at this writing.

Given His Liberty.

John Johnson, colored, of Franklin county, has been accepted by Justice Howerton as the bondsman of Frank Hopkins, who is charged with having a number of stolen goods in his possession. The bond is for $50, and Hopkins, as soon as accepted, was given his liberty. The case will be tried at the October term of the Hustings Court.

Did you ever know one to use "A. B. C. Alternative" for blood taint without a cure?

MAYOR'S COURT.

His Honor, Mr. Joseph Hanthorn, acting mayor, disposed of the following cases yesterday:
Lewis Neal, alias "Black Diamond," was before the mayor yesterday on the charge of vagrancy and in default of a fine and costs of $15 was sent to jail. Lewis is not much of a "diamond" in the way of appearance.
Ben Pendleton invaded the sacred precincts of a box-car and was fined $1 for his temerity. Ben now finds it would have been better to have gone to a regular boarding house for the night than to tempt the hospitality of a moving car.
Myra Patterson was fined $5 for loitering on the streets, and Caroline Spinner agreeing to see the fine paid, she was allowed to go on her way rejoicing.
James Dayly, T. Brown and James Murray were adjudged vagrants and ordered to leave the city. They were escorted to the suburbs of the city by Officer Mabry and seemed to think they had made more by their temporary sojourn here than the city. Brown resembled somewhat the description of a man who is wanted at McKeesport, Pa., for murder, but the authorities decided he was not the man.
W. C. Banton was fined $1 for leaving his horse unhitched on the street, which sum he promptly paid.
Mary Wells, Bettie Base, Maggie Terrell, Mary Gibson and Ida Randolph were charged with committing a nuisance. The three first named were fined $1 each and the charges against the other two dismissed.
C. C. Pennell was found drunk on the sidewalk and was assessed $2.50 therefor.
Several of the cases were called up, but on examination they were dismissed.

OPENING IN ROANOKE.

Manager Bartlett, of the Washington Zinc Works, taking a hand in this section.

Mr. J. H. Bartlett, manager of the Washington Zinc Works, at West Lynchburg, has secured two rooms in THE TIMES building in connection with his mineral investigations, and will be in the city quite often with his assistants, although the working of his zinc furnace in Lynchburg will require a large share of his attention. The vicinity of Roanoke and the rest of Southwest Virginia, according to the opinion of an eminent geologist, will yet prove to be among the richest and most valuable zinc producing sections of the United States.

There are plans on foot, which bid fair to be realized, that will bring a large manufacturing plant here with skilled mechanics. Such contracts have already been signed, and are in Mr. Bartlett's possession, as will insure this, provided certain preliminary conditions can be completed.

Licenses for September.

Commissioner of the Revenue Turner issued 56 licenses for the State during the month of September, receiving therefor $1,063.17. For the city during the same period he issued 66 licenses for which he received $1,199.98, of which last there were 13 merchants, 3 liquor dealers, 11 dealers in tobacco and cigars, 1 auctioneer, 1 billiard table owner, 15 drays, 2 attorneys, 3 doctors, 1 private banker, 8 land agents, 3 eating houses, 1 insurance agent and 3 boarding houses.

Davy Crockett at the Opera House.

Frank Mayo's "Davy Crockett" is one of the best of the realistic class of plays. Though a story of the backwoods, there is none of the blood and thunder talk to be found in the picture of border life, but the pure love of a strong, untutored nobleman of the forest is at all times portrayed in a masterly manner by Mr. Mayo, who, in this character, a creation of his own, has no equal in the country.
