Probably a Fatal Fight.

A gory fight occurred at a negro store in Old Lick yesterday afternoon between Cyrus Moore, the proprietor of the store, Bob Moore and the former's two boys, Royal and William, aged about 18 and 20 years each. Bob and Cyrus, who are not related, had an altercation over $1.40 in making a settlement. Bob struck Cyrus on the head with a stick, when Cyrus replied in the same way. Then for ten minutes the blows rained hard and heavy. Finally Bob got in a good lick and Cyrus went down. The former then started away when one of the boys fired three shots at him, all of which went wide. When the policemen arrived on the scene, the store and steps were as bloody as a slaughter pen. Bob and the two boys were taken to the station house. The latter were bailed, however, but Bob is held to await the result of Cyrus' wounds. He was in a very critical condition at a late hour last night.

PUBLIC SALE OF LOTS. The West Shenandoah Land Co.

Will have its First Public Sale of BUSINESS AND RESIDENCE LOTS AT SHENANDOAH, VA., ON DEC. 1, 2 and 3, 1891.

These lots are situated on the west bank of the Shenandoah river, overlooking the town of Shenandoah and connected with the principal business portion thereof by a new iron bridge, just completed and open to travel. This sale opens the handsomest residence portion of the town, and affords a rare opportunity to workmen about Shenandoah to own their own homes without paying speculative prices. Investors and Building Associations will find in this property an excellent opportunity for paying investments. Houses in Shenandoah are in demand, rents are high and these lots will be sold low. Shenandoah, like Roanoke, is an iron manufacturing and railroad town. A large furnace, supplied with ore from the surrounding mines; a new rolling mill to manufacture its output into commercial iron, and extensive car and machine shops are among the prominent industries. At least five times as much building has been done here in the past summer and fall as ever before in one year, notwithstanding the depression elsewhere throughout the country; and yet the demand for houses increases.

Terms: One-third cash; balance in one and two years, with interest. Paid-up stock of company will be received on deferred payments at 50 per cent. advance on cost of stock. For maps and other information address the Secretary, at Shenandoah, Va.

W. K. COMPTON, J. HAWSE, Secretary. President.
